THE POWER TO MAKE IT HAPPEN[®]

CHANGE A LIGHT BULB. CHANGE THEIR FUTURE.

Save energy and protect the environment with CFL bulbs at reduced prices. APS has arranged for CFLs to be sold at special prices at local retailers. We want children to watch the Diamondbacks play under a beautiful blue sky for decades and decades to come. Using CFLs is one way to help. If everyone in America replaced just five light bulbs at home with CFL bulbs, it would reduce greenhouse gas emissions equal to taking 8 million cars off the road. A better tomorrow starts today.

The Compact Fluorescent Lighting program is funded by APS customers and is approved by the Arizona Corporation Commission.

D-BACKS ORGANIZATION

A THRILLING RUN

THE FIRST 11 YEARS OF D-BACKS BASEBALL

With 11 full seasons in the books, the Arizona Diamondbacks begin their 12th campaign in an attempt to build on what has been — by many measures — the most successful early run anyone has ever seen from an expansion franchise.

In its first 11 years, Arizona has had seven winning seasons, four division titles and playoff appearances, and of course, a World Series championship in 2001, the franchise's fourth season. The D-backs were the fastest club to ever win a World Series, and the fastest to 100 wins, which they reached in their second season in 1999.

There were many superb individual achievements, most notably Randy Johnson's perfect game against Atlanta in 2004 and his four consecutive Cy Young awards, Luis Gonzalez's 57 home runs in 2001 and 30-game hitting streak in 1999, and Brandon Webb's Cy Young in 2006.

It was, in short, an 11-year span that was anything but dull.

Of course, although the D-backs are 11 years old as a competitive entity, they were actually born 14 years ago on March 13, 1995, when Major League Baseball awarded franchises to Arizona and Tampa Bay at a record cost of $130 million per franchise.

And the foundation for the Valley's entry into MLB had actually been laid five years before that when the Arizona Legislature passed a bill authorizing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for the express purpose of building a baseball-only facility.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for an air conditioned $354 million downtown structure complete with retractable roof, swimming pool in right field, and nostalgic dirt path between the mound and home plate were held Nov. 16, and included the novelty of an actual game between two Little League teams on a specially built kids-size field.

With Opening Day still some three years away, Buck Showalter, late of the New York Yankees, was hired as the team's first manager.

The assembling of the team officially began with the selection of left-handed pitcher Nick Bierbrodt in the team's first-ever amateur draft in 1996, and the signings of first baseman Travis Lee and pitcher John Patterson.

Shortly thereafter, infielder Jay Bell of the Kansas City Royals became the first Major League player to sign with the team, and lefthander Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians was the first player chosen by the team in the expansion draft.

Finally, the big day everybody had been waiting for arrived — March 31, 1998, Opening Night at Bank One Ballpark.

Opening ceremonies included a tribute to the late Jackie Robinson, and two youngsters escorted to the mound by then-Owner Jerry Colangelo threw out the first ball. One of the loudest cheers of the night from the overflow crowd of 50,179 was for the opening of the roof to the accompaniment of stirring music.

The Colorado Rockies were the parties of the second part, Andy Benes was the D-backs' starting pitcher, and Lee got the team's first hit and also hit the team's first home run.

This was the start of a great "honeymoon" for the team, and nobody was the least bit surprised or even slightly bothered when it lost 31 of its first 40 games.

And it's not like there weren't any highlights. Centerfielder Devon White drove in 85 runs, stole 22 bases, and tied with Lee for the club lead in home runs with 22. Benes won 14 games.

Omar Daal was 8-12, but had a fine 2.88 ERA, and Gregg Olson's 30 saves earned him club Pitcher of The Year honors. David Dellucci, who quickly became a fan favorite with his acrobatic catches in the outfield, hit a solid .260.

As a team, the D-backs finished strong, playing .500 ball over the final 24 games, including an expansion record-tying seven-game winning streak in September, and finished at 65-97, which left them last in the N.L. West, but was quite respectable for an expansion team.

The club also had 21 sellouts and drew 3,602,586 fans, and everybody went home for the winter happy with the team's first season.

Andy Benes throws the first pitch in franchise history against Colorado's Mike Lansing, March 31, 1998.

During the offseason, the D-backs went on a spending spree that netted pitchers Randy Johnson, Armando Reynoso, and Greg Swindell, and center fielder Steve Finley. Then-General Manager Joe Garagiola Jr. acquired Gonzalez and Tony Womack in trades that turned out to be steals. And during the season he reeled in Marlins closer Matt Mantei.

Gonzalez, who came over from Detroit with a nice chunk of cash in exchange for outfielder Karim Garcia, would become the face of the franchise and deliver the winning hit off closer Mariano Rivera in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series. And Womack would have some good years here and deliver two of the biggest hits in franchise history in the playoffs that year.

But the rest, as they say, is history.

Johnson was 15-2 with a 2.01 era at the All-Star Break in 1999, went on to lead the Majors in strikeouts (364) and complete games, and would go on to win 17 games and the first of his four Cy Young Awards here while posting a 2.48 ERA.

Gonzalez, meanwhile, had one of several career years he would fashion with the D-backs, hitting .336, with 26 home runs and 111 RBI, and putting together that hitting streak.

And he had plenty of help. Matt Williams hit 35 home runs and had 142 runs batted in, Bell was good for 38 and 112, and Dellucci hit .374 in a utility role. Womack stole 72 bases while hitting .277, Daal won 16 games, Reynoso added 10, and Mantei saved 22 while striking out 42 in 29 innings as the D-backs went from 65 wins to 100 to take the West by a landslide.

They lost their first-ever playoff game to the New York Mets, 8-4, but came back behind some gutsy pitching by Stottlemire and five RBI by Finley to win Game 2, 7-1. With the Division Series moving to New York, the Mets won Game 3, 9-2, as Todd Pratt hit a 10th inning home run just over Finley's outstretched glove to close out the series with a 4-3 win.

The 2000 campaign was most notable for another great award-winning season from Johnson and the in-season acquisition of pitcher Curt Schilling. Although the Phillies ace wasn't fully recovered from injuries, he still went 5-6 the balance of the year here, and of course teamed with Johnson to form one of the most potent one-two punches ever.

As for Johnson, he again led the Majors in strikeouts (347) and tied for the league lead in complete games (eight), shutouts (three), and starts (35) while putting together a 19-7 record and 2.64 ERA.

Gonzalez did his bit, hitting 31 home runs and again driving in over 100, but otherwise, due mostly to a series of injuries, especially to slugger Williams and closer Mantei, the D-backs had a 15-victory drop off and slipped to third in the West.

The disappointing season led to the dismissal of Showalter, with Bob Brenly coming down from the broadcast booth to take over as manager — and the stage was set for one of the greatest seasons in the history of Arizona sports.

There will never be another year like 2001. This is not to say the D-backs will never win another World Series, but rather that there will never be an experience as exhilarating as that first one, especially when you factor in the Yankees, the grim background of Sept. 11, and the dramatic twists and turns of the series itself.

The regular season was exciting enough, what with Gonzalez hitting those 57 home runs and driving in 142, Johnson racking up a third-straight Cy Young Award with 21-6 mark and a 2.49 ERA and Schilling going 22-6 and 2.98. Craig Counsell emerged as the team's "glue" man, Reggie Sanders provided a big-time power boost with 33 home runs, and Mark Grace hit .296 and played some brilliant first base.

But the fun was just beginning.

The D-backs took out the St. Louis Cardinals in the Division Series, with Womack delivering the key hit in Game 5, then blew the Atlanta Braves away in five games in the Championship Series.

And now it was the upstart D-backs, who were all of four years old, against the lords of the realm, the Yankees.

Schilling and the upstarts overpowered the Yankees 9-1 in Game 1 here, and won Game 2 behind Johnson 4-0. With the series shifting to Yankee Stadium in the very shadow of Ground Zero, the "aura" and "mystique" of the Bombers that Schilling had poked fun at seemed to kick in.

The Yanks won Game 3 in fairly routine fashion, 2-1, behind Roger Clemens and Mariano Rivera, but the next night, with the Yanks down 3-1 and two out in the ninth, Tino Martinez hit a two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim, and Derek Jeter drove in the winning run with a fly ball in the 10th.

Danny Bautista slides head-first at home plate on Tony Womack's game-ending single that staked the D-backs to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals, propelling Arizona into the NLCS against Atlanta.

Craig Counsell, Curt Schilling and David Dellucci surround Luis Gonzalez after his game-winning hit to end the World Series against the Yankees

The following night, with the series tied at 2-2 the Yanks went into the ninth down 2-0. This time Scott Brosius hit a two-run home run off Kim, the Yanks survived a bases loaded situation in the top of the 11th and Alfonso Soriano drove in the winning run in the bottom of the 12th to send the series back to Phoenix with the Yanks leading 3-2.

Could anything top the drama in New York? Well, yes it could, but not right away.

Behind Johnson, the D-backs blew Andy Pettitte and the Yankees away 15-2 in Game 6, sort of the lull between dramas, as it were.

In Game 7, Schilling and the D-backs clung to a 1-0 lead over Clemens and the Yankees through six innings on Danny Bautista's RBI double, but Martinez tied it with an RBI single in the seventh, and when Soriano led off the eighth with a home run the Yanks took a one-run lead that loomed as large as 10 with Rivera and his 23 straight postseason saves warming up in the bullpen.

But Grace opened the home ninth with a single, and the usually smooth-fielding Rivera threw wildly to second on a sacrifice. One out later, Womack lined a double into the right field corner to drive in the tying run and advance the potential winning run to third.

Counsell was hit by a pitch to load the bases, and with the infield drawn in Gonzalez hit a soft little bloop that barely reached the outfield grass, Bell scored and pandemonium ensued.

The D-backs were world champions, and fittingly, the winning pitcher — working in relief with just one day of rest — was Johnson. It was his third win of the Series, and earned him co-MVP honors with Schilling.

With the Big Unit and Schilling at their peak, the D-backs seemed to be favorably positioned for a repeat.

And indeed, the D-backs won six more games in 2002 than they had the previous year and claimed their third division title in five years, with Johnson going 21-6 and annexing a fourth straight Cy Young Award, and Schilling going 22-6.

But injuries, including the late season loss of Gonzalez, left the depleted D-backs in no shape to deal with the Cardinals, who swept them in the Division Series. It would be four years before the D-backs got back to the postseason again.

The injury-driven downward spiral continued in 2003, only more swiftly. Johnson went down on April 12 with a knee problem that would require surgery and limit him to 18 starts. Schilling had an appendectomy in April, broke a bone in his pitching hand in May and wound up making only 24 starts, and relievers Mike Koplove and Mantei also went down.

And that was just the pitchers. Among position players, Counsell missed two months with a thumb injury.

But while the victory total shrunk to 84, there was a silver lining in all these clouds, namely the birth of the "Baby Backs", a rich harvest from a once-scorned system that was quietly sowing the seeds bumper crop after bumper crop of prospects down on the farm.

Pitchers Brandon Webb and Jose Valverde topped a list of 13 rookies that played for the big club that year. Webb had 10-9 record with a 2.84 ERA and opposing hitters batted only .212 against him, the third best figure in the National League. Valverde took up some of the slack in the depleted bullpen, racking up nine saves in May alone. And another reliever, Oscar Villarreal, set a league record for a rookie with 86 appearances.

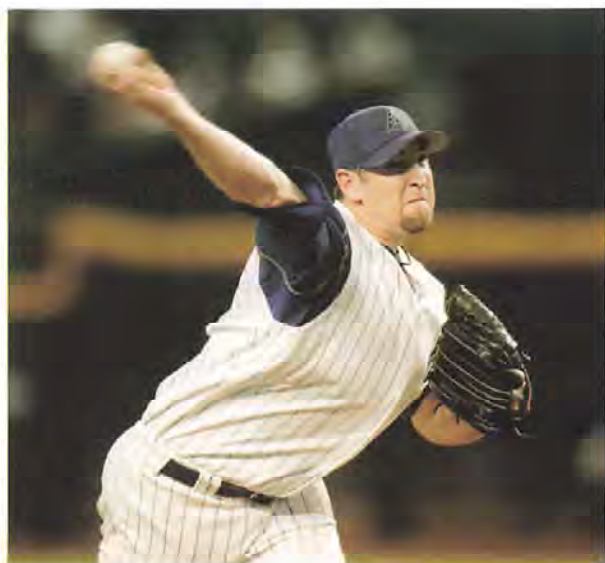

On the plus side, Gonzalez once again drove in 100 runs and hit 26 home runs, Finley had 22 home runs and Shea Hillenbrand had 17 after coming over from Boston in a trade for Kim.

The year also marked the departure of fan favorites Dellucci (trade), and Williams and Grace (retirements).

The downward spiral hit warp speed in 2004 when so many players went down with injuries, the club fielded its least experienced team since expansion, and not surprisingly lost 111 games.

Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling raise the World Series Most Valuable Player award after sharing the honor by going a combined 4-0 with a 1.40 ERA during the Fall Classic. They were also named Co-Sportsmen of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Brandon Webb captured the 2006 Cy Young Award.

One of the biggest single blows was the loss of slugger Richie Sexson. Two days after hitting a massive 503-foot home run in April — the longest in Chase Field history — Sexson dislocated his left shoulder and was done for the year. The biggest loss, of course, was Schilling, who had been dealt to Boston in the offseason.

Gonzalez played hurt much of the year, but was finally shut down Aug. 2 with a painful elbow injury that required surgery.

But there were slivers of a silver lining even in this cloud, most notably Johnson's perfect game in Atlanta. He finished the season 16-14 and was second in the Cy Young race behind Clemens, though Johnson had better numbers in ERA (2.60 to 2.98), innings pitched (246 to 214) and strikeouts (290 to 218).

With the team in free-fall, Brenly was replaced as manager by Al Pedrique.

With Josh Byrnes installed as Senior Vice President and General Manager, and former bench coach Bob Melvin rejoining the team as manager, the upward spiral began in 2005. Schilling and Johnson were gone, but Gonzalez and Counsell were healthy again, Tony Clark had a sensational year with 30 home runs and 87 RBI in just 349 at bats, Troy Glaus hit 37 home runs and the club recorded a 26-win improvement at 77-85.

The upward spiral hit a slight hiccup in 2006, an emotional year of transition in which the D-backs said goodbye to veterans like Gonzalez and Counsell, and symbolically handed the torch to the what was hoped — and did turn out to be — next generation of winners.

Webb had quite a year, fashioning a 16-8 record with a 3.10 ERA, making the All-Star team, and capping it off by winning the Cy Young Award.

In 2007 the D-backs fooled the experts who, while lauding the team's collection of young talent, felt it was a year away from contender status in the West.

Oh, how wrong they were.

The D-backs not only won 90 games and captured their fourth division title, but they did it while becoming only the fifth team in Major League history to reach the playoffs while giving up more runs than they scored in the regular season.

In other words, this was a season in which the sum of their accomplishments exceeded their statistical parts — a development which had the cognoscenti shaking their heads all year.

Sparkplugs Eric Byrnes and Orlando Hudson were the leaders of a group that had a knack for getting the right hit and making the big play, and with 32 home runs and 27 stolen bases, center fielder Chris Young became the only second rookie in Major League history to have a 30-20 season.

Rookie Mark Reynolds did a great job filling in for the injured Chad Tracy, Webb made a strong run at a second successive Cy Young Award (18-10, 3.01) and shortstop Stephen Drew had a more productive year than his .238 average would indicate.

Veterans Doug Davis and Livan Hernandez had so-so ERAs, but won 24 games between them, and the bullpen, with Valverde racking up 47 saves and Brandon Lyon and Tony Pena pitching effectively in setup roles, was one of the team's keys to winning so many close games.

Although they fell to the Rockies in the NLCS after sweeping the Chicago Cubs in the Division Series, the youth-oriented D-backs more than lived up to expectations and should be contenders for the foreseeable future. And the pipeline that produced all this young talent is by no means drying up.

The D-backs celebrate winning their fourth NL West title in Colorado on Sept. 28, 2007

Eric Byrnes' hustle helped lead the D-backs to the NLCS in 2007.

Heading into 2009, the D-backs are continuing to pull from that pipeline, bringing back the core group of players from a team that has been in first place for 212 days over the last two seasons, more than any other club in the National League.

Webb and newcomer Dan Haren — acquired via a trade with Oakland in the offseason — each spent much of the 2008 season in the discussion for the National League Cy Young Award, with Webb eventually finishing second. In the third-straight year in which he finished first or second in the Cy Young race, Webb shattered his previous career high in wins with 22, while also walking fewer batters and allowing fewer hits than in his equally stellar 2008 season.

Haren was also brilliant, nearly mirroring Webb's totals in innings pitched and earned runs allowed. He led the D-backs in strikeouts with 206, the only member of the pitching staff to reach the 200-plus plateau, and matched that with an absurdly low 40 walks, equating to less than two per nine innings.

The offense in 2008 saw breakout seasons by Drew and Justin Upton, with continuing progression from Conor Jackson, Chris Snyder, Reynolds, Young and Hudson. Drew was the team's best offensive player in the second half of the season, hitting .326, and reaching base 110 times with 23 doubles in 64 games. He led all big-league shortstops in extra-base hits for the season.

Upton got off to a terrific start, posting a .372 on-base percentage in March and April, with six doubles and five home runs. After battling back from an injury that kept him sidelined midseason, he finished as strong as he started, belting six doubles and four home runs with a .353 on-base percentage in September.

Perhaps no D-backs player endured more change in his role than Jackson, but he continued to progress as one of the game's steadiest young hitters. In addition to reaching career highs in on-base percentage (.376), batting average (.300) and hits (162), Jackson carried the D-backs offense for stretches of time. He was twice named the N.L. Player of the Week, for his April 14-20 and July 21-27 stretches.

Through all of this, Jackson moved from first base to left field after the D-backs lost Eric Byrnes for most of the season due to injuries.

Byrnes was a huge part of the D-backs' red-hot start in 2008, posting a sizzling .897 OPS before he got hurt on a trip to Los Angeles in late April. In the first 21 games of the year, he was batting .293, with 10 doubles, three home runs and a 14-game hit streak to boot.

The feel-good story of the year was, undoubtedly, that of Davis. Diagnosed with thyroid cancer days before the start of the season, Davis spent six weeks on the disabled list, returning in dramatic fashion. He started in Atlanta on May 23, 44 days after his last start, and threw seven innings, allowing one run on just five hits and two walks to pick up a win.

After the 2008 season, the D-backs underwent a major front-office change. Derrick Hall, previously the President, was named the President and Chief Executive Officer following the departure of the previous Chief Executive Officer, Jeff Moorad.

The D-backs approach the 2009 season with more than a decade of success in the rear-view, and lofty goals ahead. With more young pitching on the way, the D-backs will have an opportunity to make the second ten years even better than the first.

Stephen Drew hit for the third cycle in franchise history on Sept. 1, 2008 (as seen above), and was named the D-backs' Player of the Year by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 2008.

D-BACKS LEADING THE WAY IN COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Since its inception in 1997, before the D-backs ever took the field, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation has been a Valley leader in community involvement.

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation has donated more than $14.5 million to non-profit organizations and communities throughout Arizona since it was first established, and donated more than $2.5 million in 2008. The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation's annual donations back to the community are more than all of the other sports teams in Phoenix combined.

The Foundation focuses its efforts on three main areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development.

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation participates in many fundraising efforts, from large-scale events such as the annual Evening on the Diamond to smaller-scale ones like the Mystery Ball Fundraiser. With the dollars raised, the Foundation is able to give back to the community through Grand Slam Awards and various program grants.

Evening on the Diamond

Now in its third year, "Evening on the Diamond" raised more than $3 million combined in 2007 and 2008 for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, which featured entertainment from national recording artists Kenny Loggins and George Benson performing with Members of The Phoenix Symphony.

The headline performer in the 2009 event is comedy legend Bill Cosby.

The Evening on the Diamond, to be held April 2 this year, includes a cocktail party and dinner on the Chase Field diamond attended by many of the Valley's philanthropists and corporations. Members of the D-backs' team and coaching staff sit with guests at selected tables.

Sports memorabilia and entertainment packages are available for purchase in the silent auction, and sports packages go to the highest bidder in the live auction. All proceeds benefit the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation.

D-backs License Plates

The idea of a D-backs license plate was originally conceived several years ago as a method of spreading brand awareness and giving loyal fans another outlet to display their team pride.

Arizona Governor Janet Napolitano made the D-backs' license plate program possible after signing House Bill 2727 on Aug. 11, 2006. Senate President Ken Bennett also participated in making the program possible, which became law on Sept. 21, 2006. The license plates hit the streets in the spring of 2007 and more than 9,000 D-backs fans throughout Arizona now have a team license plate on their car.

Fans can now purchase a state-issued D-backs license plate through the Arizona Motor Vehicle Division. The D-backs were the first professional sports team in Arizona and one of roughly a dozen Major League teams to have a state-issued license plate.

The Sedona Red and Sonoran Sand license plate features the team's "D" snake logo in the background and "D-backs" across the bottom. The plate can be purchased at servicearizona.com or in person at any Motor Vehicle Division office throughout Arizona.

"Diamonds Back" Field Building Program

The Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation's cornerstone of giving is the "Diamonds Back" Field Building Program. The fields are built through the aid of corporate partners APS and Summit Builders, local businesses, funds from the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and monetary donations from individual players and owners.

Fields include a backstop, full fencing, dugouts, bleachers, bullpens, irrigation, fully turfed playing surfaces, warning tracks, electric scoreboards, scorer's tables, storage units and lighting systems.

One of the more unique and notable fields constructed by the program is the $3.7 million four-field Diamondbacks Youth Complex at the Reach 11 sports complex in North Phoenix, which was dedicated in 2007. The complex includes two adaptive fields and two Little League fields for youth experiencing a disability and able-bodied children to play and learn baseball side-by-side. The Reach League, comprised of several teams filled with disabled youths aged 6-16, began play on the adaptive fields, made with a synthetic surface called Tot Turf, immediately after they opened in the fall of 2007.

Doug Davis Field in Camp Verde, Ariz. was the 28th youth field either constructed or refurbished by the field building program in Arizona since 2000.

Grand Slam Awards & Program Grants

Established in 2002, the Grand Slam Award is designed to make a considerable impact on community organizations by providing a grant of $100,000.

Made possible by contributions from the D-backs Partnership Group, the Grand Slam Award has been given to the Southwest Autism Research Center and Resource Center, ACCEL, the Amblyopia Foundation, Clinica Adelante, Chrysalis Shelter for Victims of Domestic Violence, Arizona Helping Hands, Phoenix Herpetological Society, UMOM, Boys and Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix, the Arizona Science Center, Junior Achievement of Arizona and The Rodel Foundation of Arizona.

In addition to the Grand Slam Award, the D-backs Foundation contributes more than $250,000 annually to support community programs throughout Arizona with grants awarded in amounts of $1,000 to $5,000.

Season Ticket Scholarship Program

Prior to the 2008 season, the D-backs introduced a first-of-its-kind season ticket scholarship plan for fans or existing season ticket holders who may have experienced a change in personal circumstances or who could demonstrate financial need. More than 25 families whose nominations were approved by the D-backs were given full season tickets on the lower level at Chase Field for the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Hometown Tour presented by APS

Every year, D-backs players, coaches and staff head north, south, east and west to visit the cities and small towns that make up the Arizona fan base on the D-backs Hometown Tour presented by APS.

Stops include visits to schools and hospitals, along with autograph signings and appearances on D-backs radio affiliates.

D-backs shortstop Stephen Drew, who grew up in Hahira, Ga., a small town three hours from Atlanta, said he was able to find an immediate connection with D-backs fans who live hours away from Chase Field.

"I kind of know what those kids feel like," said Drew, who traveled on the east tour in 2008. "When somebody comes in who they have seen on TV, they say, 'whoa.' It's a great feeling for them. I like that small town feeling. That brought back some memories."

Military Appreciation Day

The D-backs honor past and present members of the armed forces when they host Military Appreciation Day. In 2008, the event coincided with the team hosting the San Diego Padres on July 4.

A number of military groups and personnel participated in pre-game ceremonies and were recognized throughout the game. Prior to the game, military personnel attending as Fox Sports Arizona guests and five Purple Heart recipients from Wounded Warriors were recognized on the field, while Disabled American Veterans and MLB's Welcome Back Veterans initiative were acknowledged with video messages on the Chase Field high definition video scoreboard.

Fox Sports Arizona also honored those in the military with its "This One's For You" telecast. During the coverage of the D-backs game, the television network recognized members of the United States military and also conducted live satellite interviews with an Arizona National Guard unit serving in Iraq.

Mystery Ball Fundraiser

On Aug. 9, 2008, the D-backs hosted their first-ever Mystery Ball Fundraiser, and after it's enormous success, they will host another in 2009. Fans can purchase a grab bag with a concealed, signed baseball inside it. The balls were signed by current D-backs stars such as Brandon Webb, past D-backs greats such as Mark Grace and Matt Williams, and stars from other teams, such as Chipper Jones and Ryan Howard. All proceeds benefit the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation.

Native American Recognition Day, Native American Inter-Tribal Tournament and NABI Baseball Tournament

The first Native American Baseball Invitational was held July 5-9, 2008, in Phoenix, partnering with the 10th annual Arizona Diamondbacks Inter-Tribal Youth Baseball Tournament.

Five years ago, the Native American Basketball Invitational was created in an effort to create opportunities for Native American high school players to receive college scholarships. The Phoenix-based tournament started small, but quickly grew, and now, heading into its sixth year, it's the first all-Native American tournament certified by the National Collegiate Athletic Association and draws teams from all over the country.

Based on the success of the NABI, its founders decided to give the same opportunities to baseball and softball players as well.

NABI Baseball, which featured high schoolers, and the D-backs' tournament, which featured elementary, middle school and early high school players, were hosted by the D-backs in partnership with the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community and NABI.

The tournaments are in conjunction with Native American Recognition day, an annual showcase of aspects of American Indian culture, held at Chase Field. The yearly event is the only one of its kind in all of Major League Baseball.

The event is highlighted by a pre-game ceremony featuring a traditional song and dance performed by youth from various Arizona tribes. The Diamondbacks Spirit Award for Native American Youth Advocacy is also awarded during an on-field ceremony. The 2008 event took place before the D-backs game with the San Diego Padres on July 5.

United Way Campaign

Every year, D-backs employees look forward to participating in the team's United Way campaign. Through various fundraising efforts, the D-backs are able to give back to one of the most far-reaching community organizations in America.

In 2007, as the team was coming down the stretch toward a National League West championship, the D-backs donated $5 from the purchase of every ticket to the Valley of the Sun United Way. The D-backs were able to donate $622,880 through the program.

Winter Classic

The D-backs have been hosting the Winter Classic for underprivileged children at Chase Field ever since the team's inception in 1998. Beginning in 2005, though, the team decided to do even more for the participating children. For the past three years, D-backs employees have provided new pairs of athletic shoes for the holidays at the event.

"Everybody who has the means should give back if they have the chance," said D-backs pitching coach Bryan Price, who has appeared at three Winter Classics. "The Diamondbacks make an extra effort, and I'm proud to be a part of that extension. To me, we're benefiting because we get to watch the excitement on the kids' faces."

At the event, each group of kids rotates through a series of four stations, monitored by a group of volunteers that includes volunteering D-backs employees.

At the Santa Claus station, each youngster has the opportunity for a picture with Santa Claus and a D-backs player and to receive a toy. At the food station, the kids get to sample ballpark fare and eat at picnic tables. At the music station, they have the chance to expend some energy by participating in a variety of upbeat dances emceed by a DJ. At the shoe station, each child receives a new pair of shoes and has an opportunity to talk to and receive autographs from D-backs players and coaches.

A board of Diamondback and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

Board members include:

D-BACKS GROWING ORGANIZATIONAL CULTURE

While success on the field and financial stability are utmost priorities for the D-backs from a business perspective, the team emphasizes one other thing equally as much — strong corporate culture.

The culture is evident, of course, in the organization's "Circle of Success," and can be seen in first Friday luncheons, quarterly employee outings and other events. The "Circle of Success" focuses the organization's efforts on performance, community, culture, financial efficiency and fan experience.

On the first Friday of every month, D-backs employees are treated to lunch, along with an interview segment between President and Chief Executive Officer Derrick Hall and a special guest, which has included influential people internally, such as Executive Vice President and General Manager Josh Byrnes, and externally, such as Laurel Priebe, Major League Baseball's Vice President for Western Operations and Special Projects.

It is at these meetings that Hall also introduces the organization's Employee of the Month, who earns a personalized D-backs jersey, plaques, an executive parking space for the month and a spot on the team's prestigious President's Council.

The ownership group and executive management team met with small groups of employees through "General Partnership" lunches and "President Roundtable" meetings to communicate the organization's goals and objectives while also taking suggestions from employees. Through feedback from employees, a President's Council was formed, comprised of select members of the executive management team and a rotating committee consisting of the organization's Employee of the Month winners, to organize numerous company events to enhance the culture through the company.

The President's Council meets regularly to discuss wide-ranging organizational topics, including selecting Employees of the Month and scheduling quarterly employee outings, which have included bowling and golf tournaments, a yearly softball tournament, and community projects such as volunteering at St. Mary's Food Bank.

The President's Council is also treated to an annual trip prior to the start of the season. In 2008 and 2009, the group travelled to Los Angeles to see live tapings of ABC's "The Jimmy Kimmel Show" and visit Disneyland and Universal Studios, allowing the group to take in experiences at facilities that pride themselves on great customer experiences, much like the D-backs.

While the team has several avenues to honor team employees, including a monthly segment in the team magazine, D-backs Insider, the organization wanted to find a way to pay tribute to gameday employees who are, to many D-backs fans, the face of the franchise. This includes employees from game operations, guest relations, guest services, Levy restaurants, security, Team Shop, ticket offices, traffic support systems, and suites and premium services.

These standout employees are honored on the field in a pregame ceremony and presented with an engraved wooden bat and a special lapel pin by Hall and a D-backs player. Each employee also receives a framed picture of the presentation to commemorate this special recognition.

The A-Game All-Stars policy is part of the larger FAWTSY (Find A Way To Say Yes) customer service policy which is adhered to by the entire organization to further improve upon the extraordinary fan experience at Chase Field.

These are regular segments, of course, but the D-backs also have an annual United Way campaign, during which two D-backs employees are given the opportunity to take leadership roles for presentations throughout the company.

All D-backs employees also receive a monthly employee newsletter, featuring stories germane to their work and question-and-answer segments with various employees.

The organization's investment into its employees resulted in the D-backs being named one of the "Best Places to Work" in Phoenix by the Phoenix Business Journal and BestCompaniesAZ in 2007 and 2008 and also PHOENIX Magazine in 2008. The D-backs were the first sports organization to be named a "Best Place to Work" in the program's five-year history.

While the D-backs take a great deal of pride in their presentation to those outside Chase Field, it's equally important to express the gratitude for the hard work done by those inside the ballpark. With monthly events and larger-scale annual occurrences, the D-backs are putting a strong emphasis on employee culture, to show appreciation to all team employees.

CHASE FIELD CONTINUING TO PROVIDE GREAT GAME EXPERIENCE

Visitors to Chase Field will notice some changes this year, including a new pool sponsor and a brand new section in the left field Insight Diamond Level area.

Beginning in the left-field section 221, the new all-you-can-eat seats will allow fans to enjoy a D-backs game and all their favorite ballpark food. Conveniently positioned one level below the St. Joseph's Sandlot kids' area, the new family-friendly section features its own private lounge with plenty of space to move around plus extra-wide seats with added leg room. Fans can enjoy unlimited ballpark fare, such as hot dogs, popcorn, chips, peanuts, soda and water.

Looking toward the rightfield side, fans will see the RideNow Powersports Pool. RideNow Powersports agreed to a three-year contract with the D-backs prior to the 2009 season to be the official sponsor of baseball's most unique in-ballpark attraction.

Sandlot, presented by St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center, was a ballpark attraction that developed over time, becoming a major destination point for families during the 2008 season.

For Opening Day 2007, the initial stage of D-backs President and Chief Executive Officer Derrick Hall's vision for an expansive, interactive kids' area at Chase Field was completed, when a Wiffle ball field was launched at a previously underused area on the upper level in left field. In August of that year, the area began to grow, incorporating Futures Field, a playground and a batting cage. Over the offseason, the area received an upgrade thanks to a partnership agreement with St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center.

The partnership with St. Joseph's enhanced the character of the area, which was refurbished with a "sandlot" look and feel reminiscent of old-style baseball fields while promoting a healthy and active lifestyle for kids.

In addition to the St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center branding elements, the team added a toddler playground, and remodeled the kids' playground clubhouses in an effort to be more user-friendly to accessible-needs children, maximize available space and to ease congestion within the playground.

In 2008, the D-backs also introduced the most notable and sizable change to Chase Field — dbTV.

Towering high above center field is the most magnificent video board in Major League Baseball, a 136-foot-by-46-foot high definition LED board, made by Daktronics.

Based in Brookings, S.D., Daktronics is one of the world's leading manufacturers of electronic video boards and other large display systems. The company also worked with the D-backs and the Maricopa Stadium District on installing Chase Field's now-outdated incandescent and cathode ray tube boards, the sound system which was updated in 2006, and the LED ribbon display installed prior to the 2007 season that rings the second deck of the stadium. The ribbon runs 1,119 feet and is the largest of its kind in Major League Baseball.

The LED (light-emitting diode) video board is so wide that it is capable of displaying two true high-definition 16:9 images side by side. It also provides the D-backs video crew with many display options, including using it to show one wide video display, or to segment into multiple windows showing a video, animation, still images, a scoreboard and more.

The board has 880 native lines of resolution and provides video in up to 4.4 trillion colors. The board is eight times bigger than the previous CRT video board that was used for the D-backs' first 10 years.

The project consumed Chase Field for much of the 2007-2008 offseason in order to be finished in time for the D-backs' home opener April 7 against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

With the changes in signage and appearance that occurred concurrent with the D-backs' re-branding in 2007, the new LED video board helped to keep Chase Field among the world's most innovative and technology-driven stadiums.

It's not the first time Chase Field has been considered innovative, however.

Nestled among Jefferson Street to the north, Fourth Street to the south and Seventh Street to the east, Chase Field is the epicenter of the downtown Phoenix sports experience. When ground first broke on the building in November of 1995, it was always intended to be among baseball's most unique parks. Then-named Bank One Ballpark was the first to feature a pool, is fully air-conditioned and features a retractable roof.

The RideNow Powersports Pool sits 415 feet from home plate and has been the recipient of many home run balls. The first was hit by Mark Grace, though not during his three years as a D-backs first baseman. He hit it prior to coming to Arizona, as a member of the Chicago Cubs, on May 12, 1998.

With all of the amenities and unique facets of the facility, one can easily imagine that it took significant time to build. The project began more than two years before the D-backs ever played a game, but it took all of that time — 28 months in total — to complete the structure, at a cost of $354 million. The park was designed by Ellerbe Beckett, with Bill Johnson serving as the design principal, John Watson as project manager and the Huber Hunt & Nichols company working as the managing contractor.

The designers borrowed from the downtown Phoenix warehouse district in their concepts, using red brick and exposed green structural steel. They even borrowed a real warehouse, in fact, incorporating the former Arizona Citrus Growers' Packing House as the south façade of the building, currently used as a commissary for Chase Field's concession stands.

On Sept. 23, 2005, the stadium name was changed to Chase Field (from the previous Bank One Ballpark) after the merger between Chase and Bank One.

The ballpark was officially opened when the D-backs took on the Colorado Rockies on March 31, 1998, though it has since been used for many events other than baseball.

In 2009, the D-backs hosted Fan Fest on the field. While the event had always been hosted at the ballpark, this year marked the first time the playing surface was used.

During the 2004 elections, President George W. Bush held a rally for supporters at the stadium.

The park is more known for its sports-related uses, of course. Arizona State University and the University of Arizona played two "Challenge at Chase" games at the park in 2006 and 2007, with the Arizona Wildcats winning both times. The stadium hosted the first-ever outdoor college basketball game, when the ASU women's team hosted Tennessee Dec. 27, 2000. The Sun Devils played at the stadium again on Dec. 18 2006, though the basketball game was cut short with just over four minutes to go because rain began to fall through the opened roof. Chase Field was also the former home of the Insight Bowl, part of college football's yearly bowl series. The final Insight Bowl played at Chase Field was won by ASU 45-40 over Rutgers.

The field has also been used to host the Professional Bull Riders Built Ford Tough Series, AMA Supercross, several international soccer matches and monster truck competition in the Monster Jam series.

One of the signature non-D-backs events that Chase Field has hosted was indeed baseball, though. Prior to the 2006 season, Major League Baseball and the International Baseball Federation used the facility to host the opening round of the first World Baseball Classic. The United States defeated Mexico, 2-0, in the first game played at Chase.

One of the main reasons Chase Field is considered such a desirable host for sporting events is, of course, its retractable roof. Made with nine million pounds of structural steel and operating with similar technology as draw bridges and overhead traveling cranes, the roof is opened and closed with a pair of 200-horsepower motors taking a little more than four minutes. It also incorporates more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. It opens from the middle, so the two segments of the roof can be opened or closed either in unison or independently, depending on need.

The roof opens and closes to its own music, which was composed to time out at exactly the four and a half minutes needed to move it.

On game days, the roof is left open to help grow the natural grass that is used on the playing field. The surface consists of Bull's Eye Bermuda, which is considered the most suitable grass for a retractable-roof stadium. Should sunlight prove to be insufficient, requiring more light on some days, large incandescent lights provide a substitute.

A decision is then made on a day-to-day basis of whether the roof will remain open or closed at game time. The main factor is, of course, the weather. If there is inclement weather, or the threat of inclement weather, the roof will be closed, as it will during day games in the summer when Phoenix temperatures are regularly well over 100 degrees. Because Chase Field is positioned directly north-south, the roof is rarely open during day games even in comfortable weather because of the effect that the afternoon sunlight has on fans along the first-base line.

For those hot summer games, Chase Field is air conditioned using the Northwinds cooling system, which was designed to cool down the highly populated facilities in Downtown Phoenix in 2001. The system cools the ballpark in less time than the prior air conditioning system did, which allows for the roof to remain open longer during the day time.

The air conditioning, along with the LED board and pool area, is all part of the overall Chase Field experience, along with the food and in-game entertainment, of course.

In nearly a quarter mile of concession stand area, fans can order nearly any kind of food imaginable. In addition to standard ballpark fare offered at many stands, fans can order from Peter Piper Pizza, Subway, Garcia's Mexican food, Fatburger, Panda Express Chinese cuisine, Cold Stone ice cream, Gordon Biersch's famous garlic fries and burgers, and more. One of the more unique stands is Big Dawgs, where fans can order grilled foot-long hot dogs topped with all sorts of items, such as French fries, chili and cole slaw.

Like the combination of a dirt strip to the mound and a retractable roof, the in-game entertainment is a blend of old and new. While the game operations crew plays current hits with the state-of-the-art sound system, the D-backs also incorporate organ music by Bobby Freeman, who has been with the organization since its inception.

With a hot dog in hand, singing along to "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" played on the stadium organ, and all sorts of video playing on the new high-definition board all in air-conditioned comfort, the Chase Field experience is second-to-none.

at Chase Field

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000, at Chase Field. The idea for the mascot came from Brantley Bell, son of former second baseman Jay Bell, who explained to his dad that the team should have a "BOB" cat as a mascot since the team played in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Bell informed management about his son's idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and an infamous "fur" ball. In addition to his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the D-backs organization, venturing off the field to visit hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Valley and the state of Arizona. At every home game, Baxter can be found signing autographs and taking photographs with all of his adoring fans.

For more information on Baxter, call (602) 462-6630.

EXECUTIVES

E.G. (KEN) KENDRICK

Managing General Partner

A charter member of the ownership group that brought baseball to the Valley of the Sun, Ken Kendrick's involvement in the general partnership took on added significance in 2004 when he assumed the role of Managing General Partner. Kendrick has taken an active role within the organization, representing the ownership group in the day-to-day operation of the organization and also representing the D-backs when Major League Baseball owners convene during the course of the year.

After receiving a B.S. in Business Administration from West Virginia University in 1965, Kendrick started his career with IBM in Baltimore. Three years later, he founded Datatel, Inc., which became the industry leader in the development of software for the management of infrastructure technology for colleges and universities. Today, Kendrick remains semi-active in the operation of Datatel, serving as chairman of the Datatel Scholars Foundation, which provides college scholarships to students throughout the U.S. and Canada.

As Datatel continued to grow and prosper in the 1980s, Kendrick stepped down from the daily oversight of the company to explore new business opportunities. He served as President of a Texas-based banking technology company for four years in the 1980s until it was purchased by a subsidiary of General Motors. In 1989, Kendrick invested in a community bank – Woodforest National Bank – in The Woodlands, Texas, which now is one of the largest employee-owned banks in the U.S. Kendrick also owns Bumble Bee Ranch, which includes more than 74,000 acres for horseback riding, cattle driving, off-road and helicopter tours and overnight facilities which are devoted to supporting charities that provide services to children throughout Arizona.

Consistent with the charitable ways of the D-backs organization, Kendrick is very active in his charity and philanthropic endeavors, beginning with his role as Chairman of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation. He and his wife, Randy, were the 2007 Living and Giving Honorees for the Desert Southwest Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Kendrick also received the Visionary Award from the Foundation for Blind Children, Spirit of the Children Award from Childhelp USA, Today's Kids/Tomorrow's Stars honoree of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix, River Conservator of the Year by the Roaring Fork Conservancy and was named Man of the Year by the March of Dimes. He also serves on boards for various charities including the Phoenix Art Museum, The Buddy Program, Brandon Webb K Foundation, Childhelp USA, Helping Hands Housing, Challenger Center for Space Science Education, TGen Foundation, Cleveland Clinic Foundation and Roaring Fork Conservancy.

A native of Princeton, W.Va., Kendrick is an alumnus of West Virginia University in Morgantown and sits on the Board of Directors for the university's WVU Foundation. He and his wife have established a program at WVU's College of Business and Economics focused on free-market research. Kendrick also supported the construction of the WVU Hall of Traditions, which provides a first-class showcase for the tradition of Mountaineer football and serves as a recruiting focal point at WVU. In 2006, Kendrick was one of four industry leaders with strong ties to West Virginia that was inducted into the state's Business Hall of Fame and was also named to the WVU Academy of Distinguished Alumni.

Kendrick also sits on an advisory board of the University of Charleston in Charleston, W.Va., where he received an honorary Doctorate degree in 2005. Kendrick also founded the Freedom Center at the University of Arizona to promote, along four dimensions, the understanding and appreciation of the ideals of freedom and responsibility via published research, undergraduate education, graduate education, and community outreach. The Freedom Center also endows the Kendrick Chair in Philosophy and Economics.

Kendrick and his wife, Randy, and their two children, Cal and Catie, make their home in Paradise Valley.

MIKE CHIPMAN

General Partner

Mike Chipman is one of the five general partners who possess the largest financial stake in the franchise, and while he takes a low-profile approach to his role, his business acumen is invaluable when the partners assemble to make executive decisions regarding the shaping of the D-backs.

A graduate from the U.S. Air Force Academy with a degree in Computer Science, Chipman spent five years in the basic research arm of the Air Force, attaining the rank of Captain before resigning his commission to pursue a career in civilian life. He spent the next few years as a research scientist working in the area of computational physics, principally at Science Application International in La Jolla, Calif.

Chipman then made a huge impact in the computer software industry in the early 1980s when he became an investor and founder of Chipsoft, Inc., the original owner and developer of Turbo Tax, the leading income tax preparation software program for consumers and small businesses. Chipman served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Chipsoft until 1993, when Chipsoft and Turbo Tax were sold to Intuit, Inc. Chipsoft grew from a spare room operation in the Chipman's home to a 550-person public company by the time he retired at age 45.

Since retirement, Chipman has invested in various businesses principally through an Investment Angels group. Chipman has recently had a hand in the development of the highly successful Bank of Internet USA and has been involved as an investor with other banks in Northern Nevada. He has been an owner of commercial real estate in Arizona for more than a decade during which time he became one of the primary investors in the D-backs.

In 2008, Chipman ventured on a dream of his to complete the 2,650-mile Pacific Crest Trail hike on foot from near the Mexican border in California into British Columbia in Canada. The trek took him more than five months to complete from April through September and he kept track of the D-backs by listening to game broadcasts on his XM satellite radio.

Chipman and his wife, Evy, make their home in Lake Tahoe, Nev., where he has built a model railroad, complete with nearly 1,700 trees, a project that has kept him busier than he even imagined. The Chipmans spend a lot of "baseball time" locally in Paradise Valley after having wintered in Carefree for 10 years. Chipman's son, Michael, and wife, Erin, are the parents of the first grandchild, Owen.

DALE JENSEN

General Partner

Dale Jensen is an original investor of the Arizona Diamondbacks and is currently one of the four General Partners of the organization. However, the D-backs are not the only company in Jensen's portfolio, as he is an investor in more than 30 other companies.

Jensen is also a large investor into the revitalization of downtown Phoenix. He is a part owner of Alice Cooper's town Restaurant near Chase Field and the Dodge Theater. He is also a key principal in the proposed Jackson Street Entertainment District, which would cut a path across the southern end of downtown, stretching from Central Avenue to Chase Field.

Jensen began his professional career at the tender age of 23, serving as the youngest Vice President of The National Bank of Commerce. After three years, Jensen co-founded Information Technology, revolutionizing the banking industry with computer software and solutions during the infancy of the computer era, and later sold the company for $383 million in 1996. Among his subsequent holdings in technology and entertainment, Jensen is a principal and investor in entertainment entities that delve into film and television production branding and content.

A Nebraska native, Jensen's holdings also include Superior Shores Lodge in Two Harbors, Minn., the Sands Hill Golf Club near Mullen, Neb., and Nanonation, a leading company that creates interactive signage and kiosk solutions to the retail and hospitality industries.

Jensen, who spent 1968-70 at the University of Nebraska before joining the National Guard during the Vietnam War, was a major contributor to the renovation of the university's Andersen Hall, the journalism and mass communications building and has endowed the Dale M. Jensen chairs in math and computer science at Nebraska. He is a large donor to Nebraska's athletic department, attends every home football game at Memorial Stadium and co-owned Pinnacle Sports, which held the radio rights to all Cornhusker sports events prior to being purchased by HOST Communications in 2007.

Jensen is also very active in a broad spectrum of philanthropy, not the least of which is donating money and time to find a cure for cystic fibrosis. He is a member of the Boomer Esiason Foundation's Board of Directors and was an Esiason Foundation MVP in 1997 after helping the former NFL quarterback, who's son Gunnar has cystic fibrosis, raise funds to find a cure. Jensen chaired the recently completed capital campaign for Notre Dame Preparatory High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., where the gymnasium bears his name.

Jensen and his wife, Vicki, make their home in Paradise Valley. He has a son, Christopher, who has followed him into the field of technology.

JEFF ROYER
General Partner

Jeff Royer's family is an original founding investor in the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Royer's involvement has grown to become a member of the General Partnership. Royer's love for baseball began in his youth as a devoted fan of Warren Spahn, the record-setting left-handed pitcher of the Milwaukee Braves. In the Wisconsin town where he grew up, work schedules were often made around the Braves' game schedule. He learned at a young age that baseball would be his primary sports interest.

Royer's business career began in investment banking. Since the late 1980s, Royer's work has focused on private equity investing but the primary focus of his business interests is telecommunications. His private and public investments include Galtronics Ltd., an antenna company, and Shaw Communications, a Canadian cable and satellite company.

Jeff, his wife, and family are all devotees of the game and spend as much time in Phoenix as possible. He makes his residence in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

DERRICK HALL
President & Chief Executive Officer

Developing under the O'Malley family ownership of the Los Angeles Dodgers as a young executive in the 1990s, Derrick Hall learned the value of taking care of the team's fans and creating culture throughout the organization while striving to put a competitive team on the field on an annual basis. Now, as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Hall stands out among his peers within the sports industry with his exceptional people skills to communicate with the team's dedicated fan base and by preaching the core values he established to employees throughout the D-backs organization.

Hall, who added the title of CEO on Jan. 2, 2009 after serving as team president for parts of three seasons, routinely communicates with fans as part of his "one fan at a time" concept by answering every letter, email or phone call. He also conducts monthly chats on the Internet and spends most of his time at home games communicating with the fans in the stands to ensure their fan experience at Chase Field is exceptional. Hall also developed mission and values statements for all employees, including a "Circle of Success" to focus the organization's efforts on fan experience, performance, community, culture and financial efficiency.

He also holds President's Roundtable meetings with employees and formed a President's Council, comprised of select members of the executive management team and a rotating committee consisting of the organization's Employee of the Month winners, to organize numerous company events to enhance the culture through the company.

Hall installed a FAWTSY (Find A Way To Say Yes) customer service policy throughout the organization to further improve upon the extraordinary fan experience at Chase Field, which also includes "A-Game All-Stars" and "Wow!" programs to reward game-day employees that have so many touch points with the D-backs' fan base. The organization's investment into its employees resulted in the D-backs being named one of the "Best Places to Work" in Phoenix by the Phoenix Business Journal and BestCompaniesAZ in 2007 and 2008, becoming the first sports organization to win such an honor, as well as by PHOENIX magazine in 2008.

Hall has also been invaluable in the community re-establishing relationships with civic leaders and serving on the board of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, which raised more than $2.5 million in 2008 to be given back to non-profit organizations throughout Arizona and donated a total of $14.5 million since its inception in 1997. In addition to the team's annual giving in 2007, he and the ownership group donated $5 from every ticket sold during the final five weeks of the season that resulted in $622,000 being donated to 27 children's charities throughout Arizona with the help of the United Way. Hall also established a first-of-its-kind season ticket scholarship plan for fans or existing season ticket holders who may have experienced a change in personal circumstances or who could demonstrate financial need that resulted in seven families being given full season tickets on the lower level at Chase Field for the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Hall is also a member of The Thunderbirds, Young Presidents' Organization, ad hoc committees for the ASU

Alumni Association and ASU Athletic Director, UMOM, Make-A-Wish Foundation of Arizona's Sports Council and was the 2006-07 Honorary Chairman for the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Arizona's annual campaign as well as the Honorary Host of the 2007 ASU Founder's Day. He is an active member of the Ohio University Sports Administration Alumni Advisory Board and is very active with charitable organizations by serving on the following Boards: Arizona State University Foundation Board of Trustees, ASU Downtown Campus, Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, Greater Phoenix Convention and Visitors Bureau, Downtown Phoenix Partnerships, US Airways Education Foundation, Valley of the Sun United Way, United Blood Services, Baseball Professional Scouts Foundation, Phoenix Community Alliance, Arizona Science Center, Arizona Mexico Commission, Phoenix Police Reserve Foundation, Great Hearts Academy, Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Rodel Foundation, Sports Philanthropy Project, Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Arizona Opera and the Brandon Webb K Foundation. Hall also serves as chairman of the following Boards: 2008 Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Walk to Cure Diabetes, Principal for a Day and the Arizona Foundation for Women's "Men's Anti-Violence Network." He will also serve as the chairman of the Valley of the Sun United Way fundraising campaign in 2009.

For his many accomplishments within the sports industry, Hall was named in the SportsBusiness Journal's prestigious "Forty Under 40" class in 2008. In 2007, Hall was named the "Father of the Year" for Arizona through the American Diabetes Association, was the recipient of the "Al Molina Community Lifeline Award" from Teen Lifeline and was named to Phoenix Business Journal's annual "Forty Under 40" list.

Hall originally joined the D-backs on May 23, 2005, as Senior Vice President, Communications and served in numerous other categories until being named President on Sept. 6, 2006. Prior to joining the D-backs, Hall made a brief stop as Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications for KB Home, a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles, where he increased the brand awareness of the nation's fifth-largest homebuilder. He spent parts of 12 seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, joining the organization's Single-A Florida State League affiliate in Vero Beach, Fla., in 1992 and departing as the club's Senior Vice President, Communications in 2004. In between, he was a strategic communications specialist that served key roles during three ownership changes with the Dodgers and was recognized for reuniting Fernando Valenzuela with the organization after hiring him as a color analyst for the team's Spanish radio broadcasts in 2003. Known as an industry-wide specialist in strategic communications, Hall spent a great deal of time on image building, media training, brand promoting, pro-active story pitching and crisis management, and taught a sports public relations class at the University of Southern California.

Hall stepped outside of baseball for employment during the 1999 season, first as a member of the media as a host for a three-hour morning talk show on the Dodgers' flagship station (XTRA 1150 AM) and as host of the "Dodger Game Day" pre-game radio show when the team played at Dodger Stadium. He also had a stint in front of the camera as a fill-in sports anchor at KNBC-TV Channel 4 in Los Angeles.

Hall received a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University, where he was named "Man of the Year" in 1991, in broadcasting and journalism and a master's degree from Ohio University in sports administration. In 2002, he was inducted into the ASU Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communications Alumni Hall of Fame and was awarded the ASU Young Alumni Achievement Award in 2003. In 2006, Ohio University's Sports Administration Program awarded Hall as the 25th recipient of the Charles R. Higgins Distinguished Alumnus Award.

JOSH BYRNES

Executive Vice President & General Manager

For the second consecutive season, Josh Byrnes and his staff built a roster featuring young, mostly homegrown talent. In 2008, the D-backs spent a franchise-best 136 days in first place until relinquishing the top spot in September. Overall, no other NL club has spent more days than the D-backs' 212 days in first place over the last two seasons. In 2007-08, Arizona has the Majors' ninth-highest winning percentage (.531) despite having the 10th-lowest payroll.

Byrnes' success in putting together competitive teams also includes a D-backs club that had a league-best 90-72 record in 2007 and surprised many by winning the NL West Championship in a competitive division that was the first in the Wild Card era (1995-present) to have four teams finish with winning records and two teams eventually meet in the League Championship Series. The D-backs remarkable 2007 season came only three years after leading MLB with 111 losses in 2004, tying three other teams (2006 Tigers, 1991 Braves, 1996 Padres) in baseball history to make the playoffs within three years of having a 100-plus loss season.

Byrnes began his front office career in 1994 as the Cleveland Indians were moving into then-Jacobs Field (now Progressive Field). In his time with the Indians, Byrnes performed a myriad of duties (advance scouting, contract research and preparation, pro scouting) before being named Director of Scouting in 1998. During Byrnes' stint in Cleveland, the Indians broke a 41-year playoff drought and won five consecutive American League Central titles.

In the fall of 1999, Byrnes followed Dan O'Dowd to Colorado as the Assistant General Manager of the Rockies. During his three years in Colorado, Byrnes assisted O'Dowd on all Major League transactions and also was involved in the club's scouting and development operations.

After the 2002 season, Byrnes accepted the Assistant General Manager position with the Boston Red Sox. Working with Theo Epstein, Byrnes assisted in all Major League personnel and contractual issues and continued an active role in all scouting matters. During Byrnes' three years in Boston, the Red Sox won at least 95 games each year, participated in the playoffs each season and ended the franchise's 86-year championship drought with a World Series title in 2004.

During his previous stints with other MLB clubs, Byrnes was involved in the drafting of CC Sabathia, Jeff Francis, Garrett Atkins, Brad Hawpe, Jonathan Papelbon, Dustin Pedroia, and Jacoby Ellsbury.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Byrnes attended Haverford College in Pennsylvania, establishing school career records for home runs and RBI (since broken). Currently, Byrnes and his wife, Charity, reside in Phoenix with their daughters Avery and Darby.

TOM GARFINKEL

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Since arriving at the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2006, Tom Garfinkel has led a team that has grown the organization's revenue by 25 percent, resulting in the highest controllable revenues in the team's history in 2008. Garfinkel was the architect of a disciplined, strategic approach to the business, developing new sales techniques within the corporate partnership and ticket sales departments while also enhancing the team's brand within the marketplace and throughout the sports industry. He also established new human resources and information technology departments and led the organization's first strategic planning process to better position the team for future success.

In 2008, the team set franchise records in season ticket renewal rate, new season ticket sales, group sales, and suite sales, growing these categories by a combined 143 percent over 2006 totals. The club also shifted its philosophy under Garfinkel's direction to reduce marketing clutter around the ballpark and developed rewarding relationships with its corporate partners, while at the same time shifting to a rights fee broadcasting model, resulting in a combined sponsorship and broadcast revenue increase of 34 percent from 2006 to 2008. Furthermore, the D-backs developed a marketing campaign and brand positioning for the future that is focused on the fan experience and exciting moments at the ballpark, reminding fans what is special and unique about baseball. Garfinkel was also the leading force to make the innovative and less expensive decision to bypass companies that specialize in athletic facilities and commission Target Commercial Interiors, a subsidiary company of the retail store chain Target, to value engineer the rebranding of Chase Field after the 2006 season.

Garfinkel originally joined the organization as Senior Vice President, Strategic and Corporate Development in May 2006 and was later promoted to Executive Vice President, Business Operations, and then again to his current position of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, where he oversees all marketing and branding, broadcasting, communications, community affairs, game operations, ticket sales, corporate partnerships, strategic planning and information technology.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Garfinkel spent five years with Chip Ganassi Racing Teams, joining the company in 2001 as Vice President and leaving in 2006 as Executive Vice President overseeing all business operations of the 400-employee company. He negotiated more than $500 million in sponsorship and driver contracts that resulted in a 280 percent increase of annual company revenue during his tenure with the company. While at Chip Ganassi Racing Teams, the company won two championships and grew to include three NASCAR Nextel Cup teams, one Busch Series team, two IndyCar teams and one Grand-Am team.

Garfinkel returned to his auto racing roots in September 2007 when he purchased controlling interest in Hall of Fame Racing from NFL Hall of Famers Roger Staubach and Troy Aikman. The team fields the No. 96 Ask.com/DLP HDTV Ford car in the NASCAR Sprint Cup Series driven by former Sprint Cup Champion Bobby Labonte.

Garfinkel's background also includes time at Texaco, Inc., where he managed their sponsorships and corporate branding department, and at Miller Brewing Company in strategic marketing and sales. Additionally, he has consulted on projects for Nike, Coca-Cola and Dell Computer Corp. He sits on the Board of Directors of Phoenix Youth at Risk and as an adjunct Board Member of Magee Women's hospital of UPMC. Garfinkel also proudly serves as an Honorary Commander at Luke Air Force Base.

Garfinkel earned a B.A. from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and an M.B.A. from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan. He and his wife, Allison, reside in Paradise Valley with their sons, Harrison and Jackson.

TOM HARRIS

Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer

As Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Tom Harris oversees all general accounting, finance, stadium operations, administrative activities and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives. He also supervises risk management for the team. He was promoted to his current position in October 2006 after serving as Senior Vice President, Finance since May 2005.

Harris originally joined the D-backs as Vice President, Finance in July 1995 after leaving the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years. Harris earned a B.A. in accounting from Arizona State University, where he also earned his Master's degree in taxation. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Harris serves on the Board of Directors for the Arizona Chamber of Commerce and Special Olympics Arizona, is a member of The Thunderbirds and was inducted into the ASU School of Business Hall of Fame in 2005. A native of Winslow, Ariz., Harris and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Phoenix with their children, Sean, Sarah, Kelly and Katie.

CULLEN MAXEY

Senior Vice President, Corporate Partnerships & Marketing

Cullen Maxey re-formulated the Arizona Diamondbacks corporate partnerships strategies during the 2007 season and has seen unprecedented growth with a 33 percent increase to the team's sponsorship revenues over the last two seasons (2007-08) after an organizational decision to reduce marketing clutter throughout the ballpark and dedicating his staff to developing rewarding relationships with the club's corporate partners.

As Senior Vice President, Corporate Partnerships and Marketing, Maxey leads the organization's corporate partnerships initiatives to further strengthen relationships with team sponsors as well as develop innovative ideas to bring additional business to the team. In addition, Maxey oversees the club's marketing, creative services, broadcasting, game operations, fan services, community affairs and spring training efforts. Under his direction in 2008, the marketing team launched new strategies for increasing weekend attendance with Fireworks Friday's, premium item giveaways each Saturday, and Kid's Sunday's. The club created a partnership with local media outlets to promote each promotional night and experienced measurable attendance growth during those games.

Maxey joined the D-backs in November 2006 after spending two years as the General Manager of Sun Devil Sports Marketing for CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder of Arizona State University Athletics. At ASU, Maxey managed all business operations, multi-media rights and sales while ASU Athletics saw unprecedented sponsorship revenue growth during his tenure.

Prior to joining ASU Athletics, Maxey served as Vice President, Corporate Sales with the Phoenix Coyotes from 2001-05. During his time with the Coyotes, he was responsible for corporate sponsorship sales and service and was involved in the opening of Glendale Arena as well as its corporate inventory. The Coyotes enjoyed double-digit growth in corporate sales each year under his management. Maxey began his sports career in 1997 with the Phoenix Suns, where he handled advertising sales for team publications prior to moving on to corporate sales and suite sales.

Maxey and his wife, Brenda, have two children, William and Elizabeth, and reside in Chandler.

RUSS AMARAL

Vice President, Facilities & Event Services

Russ Amaral has played an integral role in the many cosmetic changes at Chase Field over the last three years as the Arizona Diamondbacks' Vice President, Facilities and Event Services by overseeing construction projects to keep the 11-year-old ballpark up to date with many of the new ballparks and stadiums opening in the market and around the country.

After the 2006 season, Amaral made sure the project with Target Commercial Interiors, a subsidiary company of the retail store chain Target, to value engineer the rebranding of Chase Field was on budget and completed prior to the start of the 2007 season. Prior to the 2008 season, despite a full calendar of offseason events at Chase Field, he oversaw Daktronics' installation of the new 136-foot wide by 46-foot tall video scoreboard in centerfield, which is now one of the world's largest high definition video screens. Over the last three years, the organization also renovated 40 suites on the Insight Diamond Level, demolished three suites to create a social networking area on the Insight Diamond Level and another group of suites down the leftfield line to incorporate a new All-You-Can-Eat section, renovated the Strike Zone Lounge behind home plate and two lounge areas for premium seat holders, created the Miller Lite Diamond Club in right-centerfield and redeveloped numerous seating areas throughout the ballpark.

The 2009 season marks Amaral's 12th season with the D-backs and 10th as Vice President. He oversees all guest-related functions at the ballpark in addition to the engineering, security, operations and groundskeeping departments. Amaral began his career in facility management with the opening of America West Arena (now US Airways Center) in 1992, working in various capacities up to Director, Event Services. In 1997, he was given the opportunity to assist in the final planning and opening operations of Chase Field in 1998. Working for Major League Baseball at the 2000 World Series in New York proved to be valuable experience for the D-backs appearance in the Fall Classic the following season when they defeated the New York Yankees and were crowned World Series Champions.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, where he earned a degree in Business Administration. He and his wife, Beverly, reside in central Phoenix.

CRAIG BRADLEY

Vice President, Finance

After serving as the team's Controller from 2004-06, Craig Bradley enters his third season as the Arizona Diamondbacks' Vice President, Finance and works closely with all departments within the organization as well as overseeing the accounting, reporting and business operations functions. During 2008, Bradley directed the implementation of a new planning process that emphasizes a three-year projection of future operations that was prepared and analyzed in a manner to assist management in making effective and timely decisions on operations.

Bradley originally joined the D-backs in September 1997 as Business Manager, Baseball Operations and worked alongside former General Manager Joe Garagiola Jr. as well as other baseball department directors in setting up and managing the minor league system, Dominican Republic academy and scouting and Major League operations. In 2000, Bradley worked with medical staff and injury and claim management consultants in order to insure all injuries were managed in the most operationally and financially effective manner. Since then, MLB and a number of other clubs have adopted similar procedures and league-wide costs have been greatly reduced.

Prior to the D-backs taking the field, Bradley worked as the Assistant General Manager, Business Operations for the Phoenix Firebirds, the San Francisco Giants then-AAA affiliate, from 1994-97. With the Firebirds, he was responsible for game and stadium operations, season tickets, box office and merchandising.

After graduating from Arizona State University in 1988, Bradley began his career with Arthur Andersen & Co. before moving into the construction and manufacturing industries. He played baseball for the Sun Devils from 1983-85, earning a junior varsity letter.

A Certified Public Accountant, Bradley is also a board member of About Care, Inc., a non-profit organization that provides services to the homebound in the East Valley, and Arizona Autism United, a non-profit human service co-op providing services to children with autism spectrum disorders in Arizona. He and his wife, Dr. Jennifer Bradley, have two daughters, Cecilia and Olivia, and make their home in Chandler.

DEBBIE CASTALDO

Vice President, Corporate & Community Partnerships

Debbie Castaldo begins her first season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2009 as the organization's Vice President, Corporate and Community Partnerships. Castaldo oversees the organization's corporate partnerships initiatives with team sponsors and leads the team's industry-leading community relations efforts that gave back more than $2.5 million to non-profit agencies throughout Arizona in 2008 through the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and more than $14.5 million since 1997.

Castaldo, a tenured marketing, community relations and corporate partnerships executive, joined the D-backs after four years at St. Joseph's Hospital. As Director of Philanthropic Innovation at St. Joseph's, she was responsible for strategic corporate and community partnerships, ecommerce and innovation strategies for the foundations supporting Arizona's largest hospital. Prior to joining St. Joseph's, Castaldo was the Director of Strategic Partnerships for Westcor Shopping Centers, where she secured a record number of corporate partnerships for the portfolio of shopping centers. She began her career in Arizona with Alltel, heading up marketing operations for the wireless company's Southwest region. As General Manager, Marketing at Alltel, her responsibilities included marketing, advertising, public relations, community affairs, sports marketing and product development.

Castaldo earned a degree in Business Administration and Marketing from the University of Texas at El Paso in 1992. She is active in the community, serving on the board of the Ronald McDonald House, the Halo Foundation and extensive committee and advisory roles including the Celebrity Fight Night Foundation, Lou Grubb Friends Fore Golf, Save the Family, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation and many more. In 2008, Castaldo was named the YWCA's Woman of Distinction for her philanthropy work in the community.

Castaldo and her husband, Vince, live in Peoria with sons, Jake and Zack.

JERRY DIPOTO

Vice President, Player Personnel

Jerry DiPoto enters his first season as a team Vice President and fourth season overall overseeing all aspects of the Arizona Diamondbacks' pro scouting, including the evaluation of Major and Minor League talent.

DiPoto came to Arizona after serving as the Colorado Rockies' Director of Player Personnel during the 2005 season following two seasons (2003-04) in the scouting department for the Boston Red Sox.

DiPoto posted a 27-24 record with 49 saves and 4.05 ERA in 390 appearances as a reliever during his eight-year career (1993-2000) with the Cleveland Indians, New York Mets and Rockies. He was forced to retire during spring training in 2001 due to a bulging disc in his neck. DiPoto also earned a save after pitching a scoreless ninth inning in the Rockies' 6-4 win on April 2, 1998, the second game in D-backs' history.

DiPoto was originally selected in the third round of the 1989 amateur draft by the Indians out of Virginia Commonwealth University. He and his wife, Tamie, reside in Fountain Hills with their daughters, Taylor and Jordan, and son, Jonah.

BOB GEBHARD

Vice President, Special Assistant to the General Manager

As the Vice President, Special Assistant to the General Manager, Bob Gebhard has played an integral role within the Arizona Diamondbacks' baseball operations. Gebhard has offered input from his vast experience in the game as the D-backs have transitioned to younger, more sustainable roster.

Gebhard joined the D-backs prior to the 2005 season after a five-year stint in a similar role with the St. Louis Cardinals from 2000-04 under then-General Manager Walt Jocketty, who he assisted in the club's day-to-day Major League operations including player evaluation and contract negotiations.

None of those roles were new to Gebhard, who was on the ground floor of the Colorado Rockies' franchise, joining the club in the winter of 1991 and building the entire baseball operations department from scratch. His efforts were rewarded with the Rockies' first playoff appearance in only three years into their existence in 1995, winning the National League's first-ever Wild Card spot on the final day of the season. Among his early successes in Colorado included the signing of veteran Andrea Galarraga to a free-agent contract the day before the 1992 Expansion Draft, then engineering a trade for slugging outfielder Dante Bichette immediately following the draft, with the twosome eventually comprising half of the famed Blake Street Bombers. Gebhard and his staff were so thoroughly prepared for the Expansion Draft that six members of the 1995 Division Series playoff squad still remained when the Rockies played the Atlanta Braves.

Gebhard joined the Rockies after a successful stint the Minnesota Twins' front office, joining the team as the Director of Major League Personnel in 1987, then assuming the role of Vice President of Player Personnel the following year. His first and last years with Minnesota culminated in a pair of World Series rings, as the Twins knocked off the Cardinals in 1987 and Braves in 1991.

Gebhard had an 11-year playing career as a pitcher that included big league duty with both the Twins and Montreal Expos. He was a player/coach in the Montreal organization from 1974-75, then was promoted to Minor League Field Director and pitching coach in 1976, a role he held for six seasons. Gebhard was part of Montreal's big league coaching staff in 1982, then served as Director of Minor League Operations through 1986. He then joined the Twins, the organization that selected him in the 15th round of the first June draft in 1965.

A native of Lamberton, Minn., Gebhard earned 16 letters in four sports in high school. His athletic career then shifted to the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and also played basketball.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, who still reside in Littleton, Colo., have three children, daughters Angie and Jenny, and son, Casey. They also have five grandchildren.

SCOTT GEYER
Vice President, Broadcasting

After serving as the director for each of the Arizona Diamondbacks' self-produced game telecasts on KTVK (3TV) for the organization's first 10 years, Scott Geyer's role as Vice President, Broadcasting shifted entering the 2008 season to oversee the use of the club's new 136-foot wide by 46-foot tall video scoreboard in centerfield that is one of the world's largest high definition video screens as well as other updates with video technologies to enhance the fan experience at Chase Field and better communicate with D-backs fans.

In his current role with the D-backs, Geyer oversees the broadcasting and game operations departments while also keeping the club's broadcasters up to date about the organization. He played an integral role prior to the start of the 2008 season in the installation of the new Daktronics HD video scoreboard, a $14 million project that also included the build-out of video production rooms to service the new board, and the technology behind the digital media network throughout the ballpark's concourses.

Geyer, who has 26 years of experience in sports television, joined the D-backs in 1995 to prepare the organization for its live television productions and to provide design insight into the construction of Chase Field from the media point of view. Prior to his move to baseball, he spent 10 years as a producer and director for the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena (now US Airways Center) since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a Major League package for Fox Sports Net and a five-year stint directing AAA baseball in the Phoenix area in the 1980s.

Geyer is a native of the San Francisco bay area and graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in broadcast journalism, prior to making Phoenix his home in 1980. He and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Adam and Travis.

A.J. HINCH
Vice President, Player Development

A.J. Hinch enters his first season as a team Vice President and fourth season overall overseeing all aspects of the Arizona Diamondbacks' minor league system, including coordination of instruction, signing of free agents, staffing, budgets, player movement, affiliate relationships and Latin America field operations.

Under Hinch's direction, the D-backs' minor league system has produced key contributors such as Stephen Drew, Micah Owings, Tony Pena, Mark Reynolds, Justin Upton and Chris Young. Six affiliates have earned playoff berths in the last three seasons, including two teams (Tucson and Missoula) winning league championships in 2006.

Tucson also won the Triple-A Championship in 2006.

Hinch was drafted by the Oakland Athletics in June 1996 following a decorated career at Stanford University, which including four years as an All-American and participation in the 1996 Olympics. He made his Major League debut with the Athletics in 1998 and also played parts of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with the Kansas City Royals, Detroit Tigers and Philadelphia Phillies. Hinch appeared in a total of 350 big league games, compiling a batting average of .219 with 32 home runs, 112 RBI and a fielding percentage of .987 as a catcher.

Hinch and his wife, Erin, reside in Scottsdale with their daughters, Haley and Kaitlin.

NONA LEE

Vice President & General Counsel

Nona Lee begins her fifth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2009 as Vice President and General Counsel, overseeing all legal issues for the organization. Before dedicating her time solely to the D-backs, she served as Associate General Counsel (2000-04) and Vice President and Associate General Counsel (2004-05) for the Phoenix Suns, D-backs, Phoenix Mercury, Arizona Rattlers, Chase Field, US Airways Center and the Dodge Theater.

Prior to joining the sports industry, Lee had a brief stint as a corporate associate at Gallagher & Kennedy, specializing in corporate transactions and securities, after having worked as a litigator for Meyer Hendricks, specializing in commercial litigation, personal injury and medical malpractice, from 1995-99. Lee received her Juris Doctor in 1995 from the Oklahoma City University School of Law, where she graduated summa cum laude after spending time as a paralegal for a sole practitioner in Beverly Hills, Calif.

Before studying law, Lee worked in the entertainment industry in Southern California, holding a variety of business support positions at Blair Television, KHS FM and Radio & Records magazine.

Lee is also active in the community, serving as the founder and past president of the Phoenix Women's Sports Association, an Arizona non-profit organization whose mission is to help girls and women find their power through sports. In addition, she serves as a Vice President of the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation in New York, a non-profit organization founded by Billie Jean King that is dedicated to advancing the lives of girls and women through sports and physical activity. Lee also chairs the Women's Sports Foundation's diversity committee, and serves on the governance and executive committees. She received the YWCA of Maricopa County's Sports Leader Award in 2006, was recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of the Women in Business honorees in 2007 and was an Athena Award honoree in 2008.

Lee played college basketball at Pepperdine, where she played guard for the Waves and was part of a team that compiled a 103-33 record and made three appearances in the AIAW Championships from 1978-81. After earning her undergraduate degree in Broadcasting from Pepperdine, she was a graduate assistant for the women's basketball team from 1981-82 while working on her Master's degree in Broadcast Management.

SHAUN RACHAU

Vice President, Communications

Shaun Rachau enters his third season as Vice President, Communications in 2009 and has overall responsibility for the D-backs' internal and external communications strategies by overseeing the player and media relations, corporate communications and publications departments as well as enhancing the fan experience by directing the special events and baseball outreach and development departments.

Under Rachau's guidance, the communications staff has garnered national coverage about D-backs players and the organization in The Wall Street Journal, Fortune, GQ, SportsBusiness Journal, Sports Illustrated, ESPN The Magazine, USA Today and on NBC's "Today." He has also played an integral role in securing national recording artists, such as Trace Adkins, Jessica Simpson, Roger Clyne & The Peacemakers, Lonestar, Jo Dee Messina, SheDAISY and Smash Mouth, for the D-backs post-game concerts during the past three seasons as well as directing special events for the organization, including the D-backs Fan Fest and "Rally Monday" postseason celebration.

Rachau, who spent 10 years in Southern California in various sports and business public relations roles, returned to the Phoenix area when he joined the D-backs in February 2006 as Senior Director, Special Programs and Events. He was promoted to Senior Director, Corporate Communications in October 2006 and directed the organization's business communications during the off-season, including the D-backs new uniform launch in November 2006.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Rachau was the Director, Corporate Communications for KB Home, a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles. At KB Home, Rachau helped increase the brand awareness of the nation's fifth-largest homebuilder by overseeing public relations representatives throughout the nation as well as coordinating publicity for the company's collaboration announcement with Martha Stewart Living Omnimedia to have Martha Stewart design homes.

Overall, Rachau has 13 years of experience in Major League Baseball, including eight seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers as the Assistant Director, Publicity (1997-99) and Director, Team Travel (2000-04). With the Dodgers, he coordinated the organization's spring training camp in Vero Beach, Fla. and handled all transportation matters in getting the team around the country throughout the season. Rachau was also a Media Assistant with the San Diego Padres in 1996 and has served as a media relations consultant with the Fiesta Bowl for the past 13 years, including four BCS championship games.

Rachau received a bachelor's degree in journalism from Arizona State University in 1995. As an ASU student, he covered local prep sports around the Valley for the Phoenix Gazette and Arizona Republic. A 1991 graduate of Paradise Valley High School, Rachau was a co-captain on the school's region championship football and baseball teams. He also gives back to the community by participating in the City of Phoenix's "Principal For A Day" program and is an Advisory Board member of the Father's Day Council Father of the Year Award to raise money for the American Diabetes Association.

Rachau resides in Phoenix with his wife, Joely, and son, Brody.

MARIAN RHODES
Vice President, Human Resources

With more than 20 years of experience in Major League Baseball, Marian Rhodes has re-developed the Arizona Diamondbacks human resources functions while also reinforcing a workplace culture where the best and brightest in the sports industry want to work since joining the Arizona Diamondbacks organization as Vice President, Human Resources mid-way through the 2007 season.

After she joined the club in June 2007, Rhodes implemented new training and development strategies as well as created new employee programs with the executive management team, such as the D-backs' Employee of the Month program and President's Council, to invest in the employees throughout the organization. Rhodes' determination and the organization's investment into its employees resulted in the D-backs being named one of the "Best Places to Work" in Phoenix by the Phoenix Business Journal and BestCompaniesAZ in 2007 and 2008, becoming the first sports organization to win such an honor, as well as by PHOENIX magazine in 2008.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Rhodes was the Vice President of Public Affairs for the St. Louis Cardinals, where she oversaw all aspects of the organization's employment and workforce diversity initiatives, in addition to being responsible for office administration, customer service and public affairs. Rhodes directed recruitment, benefits, career counseling and performance planning for the Cardinals' 1,200-plus employees as the organization's senior employment executive. She also made sure the organization met its goals of attaining a diversified workforce at all levels throughout the organization. Rhodes also played a significant role in making sure the Cardinals organization met its goals with minority and women-owned businesses through Major League Baseball's Diverse Business Partners Program.

Rhodes contributed greatly to the Cardinals new Busch Stadium by building public and private support for the construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 2006. During negotiations to build the ballpark, Rhodes worked closely with Cardinals' President Mark Lamping in managing the day-to-day activities of the project while also communicating the team's platform to the public.

During her time in St. Louis, Rhodes received many honors, including the St. Louis Business Journal's Most Influential Women Award, the "Yes I Can" Achiever and Role Model Award, the Dollars and Sense America's Best and Brightest Business Women Award and the Missouri Lottery Leadership Award. She also served on numerous boards, including the Metropolitan Sewer District, the St. Louis Minority Business Council, the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis, Downtown St. Louis Presents, Life Skills Foundation and the Family Resource Center.

Rhodes received an Accounting degree from Florida A&M University and later earned an MBA in Marketing from Webster University.

BRENT STEHLIK

Vice President, Ticket Sales & Service

Although the Arizona Diamondbacks aim to put a competitive team on the field on a yearly basis while providing their fans with the finest experience in the safest, cleanest, most family-friendly environment possible, a large part of the attendance uptick the organization realized during the 2007 and 2008 seasons can be attributed to Brent Stehlik and his ticket sales and service team.

After joining the organization in July 2007 as Vice President, Ticket Sales and Service, Stehlik put programs in place for the organization's dedicated fan base to come out to the ballpark. In 2008, the D-backs increased their full-season equivalent numbers for only the second time in the organization's 11-year history and for the first time since 2002 after winning the World Series in 2001. The D-backs had a record season ticket renewal rate of 94 percent entering the 2008 season after implementing a dedicated service philosophy with all of the team's customers. Also in 2008, Stehlik's sales team set new organizational records in season ticket, group and nightly suite sales while the team's attendance total of more than 2.5 million was the highest since 2004. Overall, the D-backs' ticket sales and service staff has increased revenue 143 percent since 2006.

Stehlik, who oversees all groups, suites and season ticket sales and service as well as ticket operations for the D-backs, spent four years with Mandalay Sports Entertainment's Frisco RoughRiders baseball club in Frisco, Texas. He left the Frisco RoughRiders, the AA affiliate of the Texas Rangers, as Chief Operating Officer and oversaw all aspects of ticket sales, marketing, game entertainment, concessionaire relations and game operations for the organization that led all AA affiliates in attendance from 2005-06. The RoughRiders also ranked among the Top 10 in Minor League Baseball in attendance since the team's inception in 2003. Stehlik originally joined the RoughRiders in April 2003 as Director, Ticket Sales before being promoted to Vice President, Ticket Sales in August 2004 after developing creative programs to generate revenue and increase attendance for all aspects of the organization.

Prior to joining the RoughRiders, Stehlik quickly moved up through the ranks at Palace Sports & Entertainment, where he started as an Account Executive in 1999 before being promoted to Group Events Manager in 2000. He spent the last two years with Palace Sports and Entertainment as Director of Group Sales for the National Hockey League's Tampa Bay Lightning, Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm and the St. Pete Times Forum.

Stehlik is a 1999 graduate from Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, where he received his B.A. in Sports Management and was a double minor in Business Administration and Computer Information Systems. He and his wife, Molly, reside in Phoenix with their daughter, Sophie.

PETER WOODFORK

Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Peter Woodfork, who enters his first season as a Vice President for the club and fourth season overall as Assistant General Manager with the Arizona Diamondbacks, assists General Manager Josh Byrnes in all phases of the baseball operations department.

Woodfork primarily focuses on the D-backs' 40-man roster management as well as contract negotiations, scouting and Minor League player development. He came to Arizona by way of the Boston Red Sox, where he served for three seasons (2003-05) as Director of Baseball Operations and Assistant Director of Player Development. In those capacities, Woodfork played a key role in signing players, salary arbitration, monitoring league rules and working on player development issues. Before joining the Red Sox, he spent three years in the Commissioner's Office working with MLB's Labor Relations department. While there, he worked with the baseball operations departments of all teams, assisting them with the interpretation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, salary arbitration and advising them of upcoming deadlines. Woodfork also took part in the creation of the 2003-06 Basic Agreement between the Player's Union and Major League Baseball.

Woodfork is a 1999 graduate of Harvard University, where he earned a degree in psychology and started in the infield for the Crimson baseball team, who won three Ivy League Championships in his four seasons. He and his wife, Becca, reside in Phoenix.

BOB ZWEIG
Vice President & Chief Information Officer

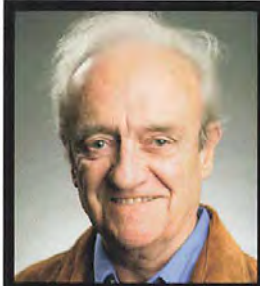

Bob Zweig enters his first full season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2009 after joining the organization in September 2008 as Vice President and Chief Information Officer. Zweig oversees all information technology functions for the club and will enable the D-backs to become a leader in cutting-edge technologies among all Major League Baseball teams and throughout the sports industry.

Zweig joins the D-backs after spending two years as the Vice President, Information Technology at Ask.com, a leading search engine company on the Web and a division of Interactive Corp. He spent time at the company's headquarters in Oakland, Calif. supporting IT technologies and infrastructures across multiple global ecommerce companies including Ask.com, Evite.com, LendingTree.com, Ticketmaster.com and Match.com. He also enabled business IT functions that supported user behavior tracking, traffic analysis, search relevance, advertising performance, fraud and suspect analysis and global enterprise reporting.

Prior to joining Ask.com, Zweig spent three years at eBay where he left as Director, Information Technology and Global Telecom and managed IT functions for the company's PayPal division and reported directly to the CIO. He also created and managed an all-hours support organization across several world-wide data centers and was responsible for scaling PayPal's customer support infrastructure from one U.S.-based contact center to nine global centers within two years.

Zweig's background also includes six years as a management and technology consultant at Accenture where he delivered large leading-edge technology projects for several global Fortune 500 companies. He earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1992 from the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago.

Zweig is single and resides in Phoenix.

ROLAND HEMOND
Special Assistant to the President & CEO

One of the most respected and experienced executives in baseball, Roland Hemond rejoined the Arizona Diamondbacks midway through the 2007 season as Special Assistant to the President and immediately got to work by strengthening the D-backs' relationships throughout Major League Baseball and enhancing the organization's initiatives in Mexico. In 2008, Hemond played an integral role in scheduling the D-backs spring training exhibition game against the Chicago White Sox in Hermosillo, Mexico and bringing the defending Mexican League Champion Monterrey Sultanes to Chase Field for an exhibition game against the D-backs. The D-backs will return to Hermosillo during spring training in 2009 to face Team Mexico prior to the start of the World Baseball Classic.

Hemond, a three-time winner of MLB's Executive of the Year award, has 58 years of professional baseball experience, including 23 seasons as a general manager with the White Sox (1971-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and five seasons as Senior Executive Vice President with the D-backs (1996-2000). He later served as Executive Advisor with the White Sox (2000-07) until rejoining the D-backs. Hemond, who is considered the architect of the highly successful Arizona Fall League that began in 1992, is a nationally recognized ambassador of the game and a highly sought-after speaker. His professionalism, friendliness and willingness to contribute ideas and advice are attributes unmatched in the industry.

He was inducted into the Boston Braves Historical Association Hall of Fame in 2007, was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum Award at the New York baseball writer's dinner in 2006 and the Honors Award from the Baseball Coaches of America. In 2003, Hemond was honored with the esteemed Branch Rickey Award, presented by the Rotary Club of Denver to individuals in baseball who contribute unselfishly to their community and who are strong role models for others. He was the first non-uniformed person to receive the award.

During his first stint with the White Sox, Hemond was named Executive of the Year in 1972 and 1983. The 1972 White Sox went 87-67 for the organization's first winning record in five seasons. The 1983 club went 99-63 and won the American League West Division title by 20 games, which was then a record for largest winning margin. While with Baltimore in 1989, Hemond was tabbed Executive of the Year for the third time after the Orioles improved 32.5 games from the previous season and made a 22-game improvement in the standings. During his tenure with the White Sox and Orioles, Hemond negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players.

Hemond was honored by Minor League Baseball for his longtime dedication and service to the game as the 2001 "King of Baseball." Hemond's baseball career began in 1951 as a front office member of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. He also worked with the Boston/Milwaukee Braves from 1952-60 before being hired as Scouting and Farm

Director of the Los Angeles Angels in 1961. Hemond remained in that role until joining the White Sox in 1970.

Hemond is president of the Association of Professional Ballplayers of America, non-profit organization that helps former and current players and baseball personnel in need. Along with White Sox executive and former agent Dennis Gilbert and scouts Dave Yoakum and Harry Minor, Hemond helped found the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation to provide assistance to longtime scouts who are in need of special support.

Three annual awards are named in Hemond's honor: the Roland Hemond Award, presented by the White Sox in honor of those who are dedicated to bettering the lives of others through extraordinary personal sacrifice; the Baseball America Award, presented to the person who has made major contributions to scouting and player development; and the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) Award, given to the executive who has displayed great respect for scouts. Hemond was the inaugural recipient of both the Baseball America and SABR awards. In July 2006, he received an honorary degree in Humane Letters from the University of Phoenix.

Hemond is a native of Central Falls, RI. He and his wife, Margo, reside in Phoenix and have five children: Susan, Tere, Robert, Jay and Ryan, and three grandchildren: Taylor, Natalie and Zane. Margo's father is John Quinn, a former Major League general manager for 28 years. Her brother, Bob, served as general manager for the New York Yankees, Cincinnati Reds and San Francisco Giants, and her brother, Jack, was president of the NHL's St. Louis Blues after serving as general manager for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties. Margo's grandfather, A.J. Bob Quinn, was a player, front office executive and owner of the Columbus, Ohio affiliate starting in 1886, giving the family continuity in professional baseball for three centuries. Hemond's son, Bob, is the founding partner of the PCL's Sacramento River Cats.

TOM ALLISON
Director, Scouting

Tom Allison enters his third season as Director, Scouting with the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he oversees all amateur scouting for the organization.

After emphasizing pitching in his first draft with the D-backs in 2007 when he selected six pitchers in the first seven rounds of the draft, including first-round pick and top-prospect Jarrod Parker, Allison's 2008 draft was again pitcher-heavy. He selected pitchers with seven of the club's first 10 selections, including first-round pick Daniel Schlereth out of the University of Arizona and supplemental pick Wade Miley out of Southeastern Louisiana University.

Allison came to the D-backs after spending the previous seven seasons (2000-06) as a scouting crosschecker for the Milwaukee Brewers. He was a member of the New York Mets organization for 10 years in capacities such as Area Scouting Supervisor (1996-99), Assistant Scouting Director (1995-96) and a player and coach in the minor league system from 1990-94.

Allison is a graduate of Chapman University in Orange, Calif., where he holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Legal Studies. He was also a member of the 1986 Loyola Marymount University College World Series team. Allison and his wife, Katie, reside in Phoenix with their daughters, Lyndi and Teagan.

SHIRAZ REHMAN
Director, Baseball Operations

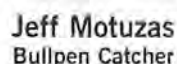

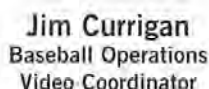

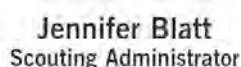

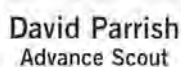

Shiraz Rehman enters his first season as Director, Baseball Operations, and his fourth season overall as a member of the Arizona Diamondbacks front office. He joined the club in December 2005 as a Baseball Operations Assistant and served for two years as the Manager, Baseball Operations after his promotion in January 2007. Rehman assists General Manager Josh Byrnes and Assistant General Manager Peter Woodfork in all phases of managing the baseball operations department.

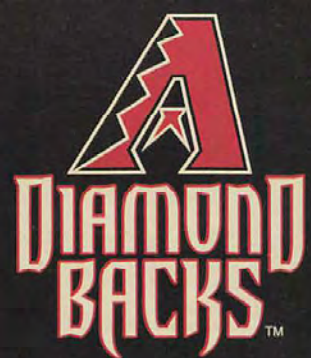

Rehman's primary responsibilities are with the Major League team, assisting in the maintenance of the club's 40-man roster, providing financial and statistical analysis to support trade and player evaluation, and overseeing all transactions and major league rules interpretation and compliance. He plays a key role in the arbitration process, contract structuring and negotiations, and oversees baseball analysis efforts for the team. Rehman also spearheads the D-backs' development of Baseball Operations technology and video solutions, and coordinates the department's internship program. In addition, he manages much of the financial planning and budgeting processes for all of baseball operations. Before joining the D-backs, Rehman interned for the Boston Red Sox during the 2005 season in Baseball Operations.

Rehman is a 1999 graduate of McGill University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Finance and Accounting and was a starting infielder on the baseball team for four years, captaining the squad in his junior and senior

MacDonald played baseball, football and basketball at Arlington-Lamar High School in Arlington, Texas before concentrating solely on baseball at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas and Winthrop University in Rock Hill, SC. He and his wife, Julie, reside in Chandler with their children, Caden and Cort.

IN THE CLUBHOUSE

KEN CRENSHAW
Head Athletic Trainer

Ken Crenshaw is in his fourth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks after a 10-year stint with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, the last three of which were as the Major League head athletic trainer. The 2005 Rays medical staff was voted Major League Training Staff of the Year by their peers, the Professional Athletic Trainers Association (PBATS). The previous year in 2004, Crenshaw's staff earned the distinction of Medical Staff of the Year by Baseball Prospectus.

Prior to his promotion as the head athletic trainer for the Rays, Ken spent five seasons as the assistant Major League trainer. Before the Devil Rays fielded a big league club in 1998, Crenshaw worked for two years as the organization's minor league medical/strength and conditioning coordinator.

Crenshaw's professional baseball training experience also featured a four-year stint as the strength and conditioning coordinator with the Atlanta Braves, and three seasons as an athletic trainer in the Pittsburgh Pirates' chain.

Crenshaw's arrival in Arizona is somewhat of a homecoming for the native of Carrizozo, N.M., graduating from nearby New Mexico State University with a degree in sports medicine. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

He and his wife, Robyn, have three sons, Wacy, Wyatt and Dustin.

DAVE EDWARDS
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Dave Edwards is in his 12th season as the assistant athletic trainer with the Major League club, though he's one of the organization originals, working a pair of minor league seasons. The 44-year old's baseball training career started in the Arizona chain in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then it was on to High Desert, working for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Spanish speaking players, as well as serving part-time as an interpreter.

A native of Deming, N.M., Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Edwards began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. He was also the assistant trainer for three seasons for the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League.

Edwards is single and makes his home in Scottsdale.

NATE SHAW
Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

This year will be Nate Shaw's fourth as the Major League strength and conditioning coordinator. He joined the D-backs before the 2006 season after a three-year stint in the Tampa Bay Devil Rays organization, the last two as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. He spent his first season in the Rays' chain as their New York Penn League athletic trainer and strength coach. While with the Devil Rays, Shaw was responsible for implementing data based research to further develop programs and procedures in accordance with injury prevention and performance enhancement.

Shaw started his work in professional sports by spending two years (2001-2002) with the Toronto Blue Jays during their spring training session in Dunedin, Fla. He also co-founded the GHFC Sports Performance Program, implementing all key facets of the operation including marketing, sales and program design.

Shaw, 34, graduated from the University of Florida in 2001 with a Bachelors Degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences.

He and his wife, Veronica, were married this past offseason. Nate, Veronica and her son Dakota make their home in Phoenix.

NEIL RAMPE
Manual Therapist

Neil Rampe enters his second season with the D-backs as Manual Therapist after a five-year stay at the University of Arizona, where he most recently served as the Associate Director of Performance Enhancement. He came to Arizona in July, 2003 from the Boulder (Colo.) Center for Sports Medicine, where he served as an athletic trainer.

Rampe was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Minnesota from 2001-02 after his first job at San Diego State University in 2000, where he was a graduate teaching associate in exercise and nutritional sciences.

A native of Kalida, Ohio, Rampe earned two bachelor's degrees in athletic training and physical education with a strength and conditioning emphasis from the University of Findlay (Ohio) in May 2000. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Findlay men's soccer program where he was a two-time NAIA All-American.

He earned his master's degree in applied kinesiology from the University of Minnesota in May 2002 and attended massage therapy school at the Providence Institute.

Rampe carries certifications from the National Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (NSCA), the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA), the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) and the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA).

Rampe is single and lives in Phoenix.

DR. MICHAEL LEE
Head Team Physician

Dr. Michael Lee is in his ninth full season as the Head Team Physician after assisting the organization with its orthopedic needs for five years. In his current role, Dr. Lee oversees a support team of orthopedic specialists, primary care physicians and other advisors to provide whole-spectrum medical care to the entire D-backs organization. He and his team are busy caring for the organization year-round.

Dr. Lee is board-certified in orthopedic surgery and sports medicine, as well as an active member of the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association. Previously, he assisted other Major League clubs with their orthopedic needs, as well as serving as orthopedic consultant to the Arizona State University sports teams. His private practice specializes in sports injuries and caring for professional and amateur athletes of all types, from Olympic swimmers to pro golfers. He has also served as an orthopedic consultant to the Arizona Cardinals for the past four years.

Dr. Lee grew up in Phoenix, then graduated from the University of California at San Diego and attended the University of Arizona to complete Master's coursework in Exercise Physiology, graduating from the College of Medicine with honors in 1988. He returned to Phoenix in 1994 with his wife, Martha, and their three children, Conor, Allison and Brendan. Dr. Lee continues to volunteer his time and expertise to his alma mater, Brophy College Prep's sports teams, as well as volunteering as a surgeon to medically underserved populations, most recently in El Salvador with Medical Hands for Healing in 2008.

DR. ROGER McCOY

Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the D-backs' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the 1998 Major League season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school. He was most recently honored by being voted one of Phoenix's "Top Docs" of 2006 by PHOENIX Magazine.

Aside from his responsibilities with the D-backs, he is also a team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

PETER MAINVILLE, JR.

Minor League Medical Coordinator

Peter (P.J.) Mainville, Jr. enters his third season as the club's minor league medical coordinator. Mainville joined the D-backs prior to the 2007 season after spending the previous nine seasons as a member of the Baltimore Orioles minor league athletic training staff. He spent his last three seasons in Baltimore's organization as the athletic trainer for the Ottawa Lynx (AAA).

Mainville is a 1997 graduate of East Carolina University and received a Masters of Science Degree from California University (Pa.) in performance enhancement in 2005. He is a member the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Mainville and his wife, Michele, have a daughter, Kylie, and a son, Caden, and make their home in Tucson, Ariz.

ROGER RILEY

Senior Director, Team Travel

Roger Riley is in his 12th season with the D-backs and 19th season in Major League Baseball. He began his D-backs career as the Director, Team Travel in the winter of 1997, then adding the duties of Clubhouse Manager prior to the World Series season of 2001. As if being a member of a World Championship team wasn't enough, he capped that year by earning the 2001 Traveling Secretary of the Year award, as voted by his peers in Major League Baseball. Aside from his regular duties on the road, he assists baseball operations when the needs arise regarding player transactions and computer work.

Riley doesn't have much of an "offseason" as evidenced by his departure for the MLB clubhouse manager meetings just 72 hours after the D-backs won the World Series title in 2001. He spends the majority of the winter signing hotel and charter aircraft contracts for the upcoming year. As the season commences he arranges for ground transportation in each city and makes sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Riley also handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the D-backs includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and spent 19 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series title game in the Sugar Bowl in 2000. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Riley was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the 1996 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager.

He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and three grandsons, and make their home in Chandler.

BOB DOTY

Visiting Clubhouse/Equipment Manager

Raised in San Diego, Bob Doty made a tough decision but made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, assuming the same role he held in the Padres' organization for a dozen seasons. Adept in all phases of the equipment operation, Doty is also in charge of ordering and stocking equipment for the major league and minor league clubs. He joined the D-backs after a 20-year stay in his hometown with the Padres.

The role of the visiting clubhouse attendant is an all-encompassing position including unpacking each team when their equipment arrives at Chase Field, regardless of the time of day, while also cleaning all of the uniforms and making sure the clubhouse is properly catered for the visiting players.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Doty and his wife Angie, have a pair of daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and make their home in Phoenix.

Head Groundskeeper

Grant Trenbeath has mastered growing and maintaining natural grass in a retractable roof environment as he enters his 12th season as the only Head Groundskeeper at Chase Field, the first MLB stadium built with that combination. Trenbeath has been a pioneer in handling grass in a retractable roof venue and has served as a consultant to other retractable roof venues in Major League Baseball, sharing his expertise on how to balance maintaining an aesthetically pleasing and safe playing surface with the need for fan comfort.

Trenbeath's continued dedication to his craft has not gone unnoticed. The Chase Field surface was ranked among players as the second best in the National League in a 2003 poll commissioned by Sports Illustrated. In 2006, he was also acknowledged for his efforts when he was selected by the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Committee to serve as the Director of Grounds for the 36th annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the first ever Tostitos BCS National Championship Game at the University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale.

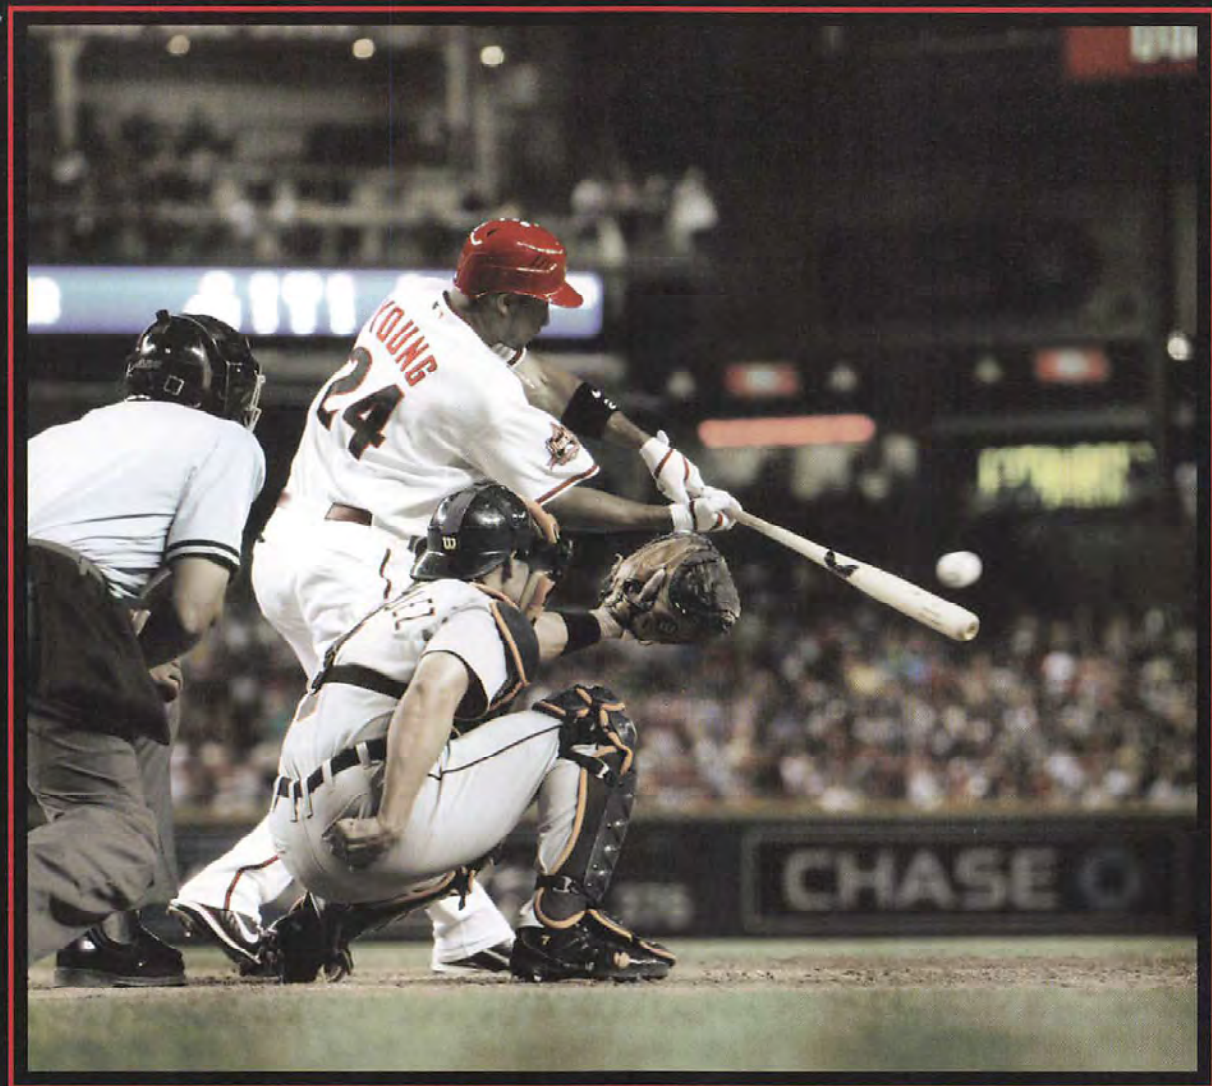

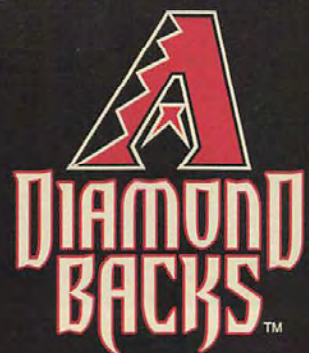

Trenbeath has worked in turf management for 15 years, spending three seasons with the Oakland Athletics' minor league affiliate in Medford, Ore., then joining the A's as head groundskeeper for their minor league complex and spring training for three seasons before joining the D-backs seven months prior to their inaugural season.

Trenbeath brings a player's perspective to turf management, having played baseball while attending Willamette University in Salem, Ore. Grant, and his wife, Trina, and daughters, Annika and Téa, make their home in Chandler, Ariz.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

After missing most of the 2008 season with hamstring injuries, Byrnes will enter his fourth season with the D-backs...he ranks second in D-backs history with 79 stolen bases entering the 2009 season...in 2007, he set career-highs in all but two offensive categories, ranking fourth in the National League with 50 stolen bases and was one of only 19 players in Major League history to put together a 20 home run, 50 stolen base season...he was also ranked as one of the top three defensive leftfielders in the Majors by John Dewan's The Fielding Bible...in 2006, he became the first D-back to record a 25 home run, 25 stolen base season.

- ◆ Played in only 52 games while nursing troublesome hamstring injuries in both legs throughout the season.
- ◆ Placed on the disabled list on May 27 with a right hamstring strain...missed 25 games on the DL until he was reinstated on June 23 and started in leftfield in the D-backs' 2-1 win at Boston that night.
- ◆ Started 5 of the team's next 6 games until suffering a left hamstring strain while attempting to steal third base on June 30 vs. Milwaukee...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on July 1 and later transferred to the 60-day DL on July 22, ending his season.
- ◆ Hit safely in 14 straight games from April 4-19, batting .362 (21-for-58) over that stretch...the 14-game hitting streak was the third-longest of his career.
- ◆ Slugged his first career grand slam on May 25 at Atlanta, a fifth-inning shot to put the D-backs up for good in a 9-3 win.

- ◆ Career year saw him hit 21 home runs and steal 50 bases, becoming the first D-back to collect a 20/50 season...was the fourth D-backs player to collect 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases in a season...it was the second time in his career he accomplished the feat after belting 26 home runs and stealing 25 bases in 2006.
- ◆ Stole 30 consecutive bases without getting caught from July 7-Sept. 17, the longest streak in the Majors in 2007.
- ◆ Set a career-high by reaching base safely in 31 consecutive games from May 5-June 8, the fourth-longest streak in franchise history (tied with Matt Williams; Sept. 5, 1999-June 5, 2000, overlapping seasons).
- ◆ During the consecutive game streak, had a season-high and team-high 15-game hit streak from May 23-June 8, batting .403 (25-for-62) with 2 doubles, 2 triples, 3 home runs and 11 RBI.
- ◆ Collected a hit in 7 consecutive at-bats on June 19 and 20, tying the franchise record last done by Alex Cintron on Sept. 27 and 28 in 2003.
- ◆ Had a 12-game hit streak from May 5-18, batting .348 (16-for-46) with 2 doubles, 1 triple, 3 home runs and 6 RBI.
- ◆ Hit safely in 18 of 19 games from June 15-July 4 (.329, 27-for-82), including two 9-game hit streaks.
- ◆ Led off game with a home run 3 times, something he has now done 7 times in his career.
- ◆ Entered the All-Star break with 110 hits, the highest first half total of his career and tied for fifth in the National League.
- ◆ His home run on July 27 was a 3-run walk-off home run in the ninth inning, the second of his career, and the first in a string of 3 consecutive walk-off victories for the D-backs.
- ◆ Recorded a .987 fielding percentage, committing a career-high 5 errors over a career-high 1390.0 innings...spent the majority of the season patrolling left field (970.0 innings).
- ◆ Ranked fourth in the National League with 12 outfield assists.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Appeared in all 3 of D-backs NLDS games against Chicago, batting .250 (3-for-12) with a triple, home run and 3 RBI...also saw action in all 4 NLCS contests vs. Colorado, batting .176 (3-for-17) with a double and 2 RBI.

- ◆ Became the first-ever D-backs player to reach 25-theft, 25-home run status in his first season with Arizona...was 1 of just 3 National Leaguers to achieve the 25-25 mark, joining Washington's Alfonso Soriano and Philadelphia's Jimmy Rollins...the only other 20-20 player in D-backs history was Devon White during the inaugural campaign of 1998...25 stolen bases was the sixth highest total in franchise history.
- ◆ Made 117 starts in center, 10 in right and 3 in left...made his first start away from center on Aug. 23, when he started in right at San Francisco.
- ◆ Recorded a team-best 15-game hitting streak from May 14-June 1, in which he batted .364 (24-for-66) with 7 homers and 12 RBI.
- ◆ Homered in 3 straight games twice - May 16-20 and July 30-Aug. 1.
- ◆ Posted a team-high 21 multi-RBI games and twice had a season-high 4 RBI (Aug. 28 vs. San Diego and Sept. 8 vs. St. Louis).
- ◆ Blasted a 440-foot solo blast off the Astros' Andy Pettitte on Aug. 6.
- ◆ Recorded a .997 fielding percentage, going the final 112 game without a miscue.

2005

- ◆ Of the 7 home runs he hit with Oakland, 5 either tied a game or put the A's ahead.
- ◆ Hit safely in 12 of 13 games from May 3-20, batting .388 (19-for-49).
- ◆ Hit safely in his first 11 games with the Orioles, batting .320 (16-for-50).

- ◆ Established then-career-highs in virtually every category, with his 20 home runs being 2 more than his career total of 18 entering the season.
- ◆ Hit .344 vs. left-handed pitching, the third highest average in the American League, and the fourth best average against southpaws by an Athletic since 1974 (minimum 150 plate appearances).
- ◆ Led the A's in stolen bases, runs, doubles and hit by pitches (12)...his 11 assists tied for fourth among AL outfielders.
- ◆ Hit his first career game-winning home run on May 7 against Minnesota, a 2-run shot in the bottom of the 13th inning off Terry Mulholland.
- ◆ Had his first career 2-homer game on June 12 against Pittsburgh...his second was on July 4 at San Francisco, with a career high 6 RBI.
- ◆ Named AL Player of the Week for July 26-Aug. 1.

- ◆ Replaced the injured Jermaine Dye on April 24 and hit .352 (83-for-236) over a 59-game stretch that culminated on June 29 when he hit for the cycle at San Francisco, his first career 5-hit game...it was the 16th cycle in A's history and fifth since the franchise moved to Oakland.
- ◆ Tied for fourth in the AL in triples.
- ◆ Had 7 consecutive games with an extra-base hit from May 8-15 (4 doubles, 3 triples, a homer)...that stretch began a career-high 22-game hitting streak (May 8-June 1) during which he hit .376 (32-for-85), the fourth longest in Oakland history and the third longest in the A.L. in 2003.
- ◆ Homered in all 3 games vs. Montreal (June 13-15), the first time he had homered in 3 straight games in his career.
- ◆ Played for Licey in the Dominican Republic during the winter.

2003 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Byrnes hit a team-leading .462 in 5 games in the Division Series against Boston, making 3 starts in centerfield.

2002

- ◆ Began the season at Sacramento (AAA) before being recalled by Oakland on May 8 and spending the remainder of the season with the A's.
- ◆ Played winter ball for Licey in the Dominican Republic.

2002 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Appeared in 2 games of the Division Series against Minnesota, going 0-for-1.

- ◆ Led Sacramento (AAA) in runs scored and stolen bases and ranked second in home runs...tied for second in the Pacific Coast League in steals.
- ◆ Returned to Oakland on May 20 for an 8-game stay, hitting his first Major League home run on June 9 off of San Francisco's Shawn Estes.
- ◆ Went 8-for-20 (.400) in the PCL playoffs.
- ◆ Named MVP of the Dominican Winter League after hitting .345 with 11 home runs and 37 RBI while playing for Licey.

2001 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Saw action in the ALDS against the Yankees and was 0-for-2, both as a pinch-hitter.

- ◆ Made his Major League debut on Aug. 22 at Cleveland with a start at designated hitter, singling off Chuck Finley in the second inning for his first Major League hit.
- ◆ Named Texas League Player of the Week for Midland (AA) from June 5-11.
- ◆ Hit .364 with a home run, 3 RBI and 5 runs scored in 5 games in the PCL playoffs.
- ◆ Batted .265 with 5 home runs and 14 RBI in 34 games for Phoenix in the Arizona Fall League.

1999

- ◆ Named to the California League postseason All-Star team after leading the league in batting average and ranking third with a .433 on-base percentage...finished second at Modesto in stolen bases and third in walks despite playing in just 96 games.

1998

- ◆ Led the A's farm system in batting in his first pro season as he combined to hit .357 in 71 games at Class A affiliates Southern Oregon and Visalia.
- ◆ Named California League Player of the Week for Aug. 24-30.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Eric James Byrnes.
- ◆ Married to Tarah, who won Ms. California USA in 2002...the couple celebrated birth of daughter, Chloe Laine, this past offseason.
- ◆ Graduated from St. Francis High School in Mountain View, Calif., in 1994, then attended UCLA, teaming with former D-backs player Troy Glaus.
- ◆ Was initially a 38th-round pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers after his senior year of high school, but chose not to sign...then he was Houston's fourth-round pick in the 1997 First Year Player Draft, and again did not sign...inked a pro contract as Oakland's eighth-round choice in the 1998 draft.
- ◆ During the 2007-08 seasons, was a weekly correspondent for FSN's "Best Damn Sports Show" and taped segments for the FOX Saturday Baseball Pregame Show...also was interviewed live from San Francisco's McCovey Cove during the 2007 All-Star Game at AT&T Park on FOX and served as a pre-game show analyst during FOX's 2007 World Series broadcasts...also had his own show ("The Eric Byrnes Show") on Fox Sports Arizona during 2007-08...worked as a studio analyst for ESPN during the 2006 National League Division Series and for FOX during the World Series during the network's World Series coverage...also hosts a radio show on XM Radio during the offseason.

ALL-STAR:

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

One of the more clutch hitters in Major League baseball, Clark enters the 2009 season tied for 11th place in big league annals with 11 pinch-hit home runs...he also ranked ranks 13th in Major League history with 247 home runs as a switch-hitter, only 1 behind Ted Simmons and 2 behind Jose Valentin...the 2001 All-Star has homered from both sides of the plate in a game 9 times...he has hit at least 30 home runs in a season 4 times (1997-99, 2005).

- ◆ Played in 38 games for the D-backs during the second-half of the season after being acquired from the San Diego Padres on July 17 for minor league pitcher Evan Scribner.
- ◆ Saw action in 17 of the D-backs' 23 games, including 6 starts at first base, from July 18-Aug. 10 prior to the team trading for Adam Dunn on Aug. 11...appeared in only 21 of the club's final 44 games, including 6 starts at first base, after Aug. 12.
- ◆ Hit a 2-run homer on July 23 vs. Chicago Cubs, his first hit after returning to Arizona.
- ◆ Went a season-best 3-for-3 and reached base in all 5 plate appearances on Aug. 15 at Houston, equalling the most hits since he had 3 on Sept. 21, 2007 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers.
- ◆ Made his only start at first base with San Diego on April 17 vs. Colorado...played all 22 innings of the game, going 1-for-8 with a walk.
- ◆ With the Padres, hit a pinch-hit, go-ahead, 3-run home run off the Mets' Billy Wagner in the eighth inning on June 8 vs. New York...it was his 11th career pinch-hit homer and first since June 19, 2007 vs. Tampa Bay for Arizona.

- ◆ Connected for his ninth career pinch-hit home run on May 19 at Pittsburgh, a grand slam off Marty McLeary to tie the game...it was the third pinch-hit grand slam in franchise history (Tony Womack, 1999 and David Dellucci, 2001)...it was also the third grand slam of his career.
- ◆ Hit his 10th career pinch-hit home run on June 19 vs. Tampa Bay, a 2-run shot to tie the game with 1 out in the ninth inning.
- ◆ Tied his career-high with 5 RBI on Sept. 1 against Colorado, connecting for his 12th home run of the season, a 3-run shot off Ramon Ortiz.
- ◆ Was 2-for-3 with 2 home runs and 3 RBI vs. Colorado on April 15...it was the 22nd time he has collected 2 or more home runs in a game.
- ◆ Collected 8 RBI in 4 games between May 19-24
- ◆ Hit his 11th career triple on Sept. 2 vs. Colorado...it was his first since Sept. 4, 2005.
- ◆ Hit 3 home runs and collected 9 RBI from Sept. 1-7, a span of 5 games.

- ◆ Played in 53 games, making 23 starts at first.
- ◆ Recorded his 4,000th career at bat when he pinch hit against the Dodgers on May 2.

- ♦ Went 4-for-5 with a pair of home runs on June 4 at Turner Field...it was his 21st multi-homer game of his career and second in Atlanta (also on Aug. 12, 2005)...the 4 hits equaled his career high, the eighth of his career and first time since July 3, 2004.
- ♦ Placed on the disabled on July 18 with right shoulder inflammation...had season ending right shoulder surgery on Sept. 20.
- ♦ Was the club's 2006 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, given annually to the Major League player who combines skills on the field with devoted work in the community.

2005

- ♦ Named the club's Player of the Year and won the Good Guy Award as voted by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA.
- ♦ Finished second on the team in batting (.304), home runs (30) and RBI (87).
- ♦ Homered once every 11.63 at-bats, second only to Atlanta's Andruw Jones (1 home run/11.49 at-bats) among players with at least 15 home runs.
- ♦ Led all big league pinch hitters with 15 RBI, 1 shy of David Dellucci's club record in 2001.
- ♦ Had a season-best 11-game hitting streak from May 25-June 7, hitting .563 (18-for-32)...included was a club-record 5 straight pinch hits from May 27-June 7, with the final hit of that stretch a pinch home run.
- ♦ Had three 2-homer games in Sept., going deep twice on Sept. 8 in Pittsburgh, and in back-to-back games on Sept. 16 & 17 vs. Colorado...in the Sept. 17 contest, he became the second player in team history (Alex Cintron in 2004) to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game, taking Aaron Cook deep in the fifth inning and Randy Williams in the seventh...it was the ninth time Clark has accomplished the feat in his career.
- ♦ Matched his career best with 5 RBI at Pittsburgh on Sept. 8.

- ♦ Appeared in 106 games for the Yankees, including 64 starts at first base.
- ♦ Clubbed a 2-run homer, his first as a Yankee, in a 12-1 win over the Devil Rays on March 31 at the Tokyo Dome.
- ♦ His mammoth 2-run homer on June 29 against Boston was the 23rd blast all-time to land in the "Black" section of remodeled Yankee Stadium, making him the first player to do it as a Yankee and as a visitor (also on June 30, 1999, with Detroit) and the third player to accomplish the feat at least twice (Danny Tartabull and Bernie Williams have each done it 3 times).
- ♦ Victimized the Blue Jays on Aug. 28 with his first career 3-homer game while matching a career-best with 5 RBI...the affair included roundtrippers from both sides of the plate for the eighth time in his career.

2004 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Started the final 4 ALCS games at first base, going 3-for-19 (.158).

- ♦ Saw action at first base in 80 contests (50 starts).
- ♦ Started season with St. Lucie (A) where he went 1-for-4 in his lone outing...the Mets purchased his contract on April 6.
- ♦ Clubbed his first career pinch homer on April 18, a go-ahead, 3-run blast off of Florida's Vladimir Nunez.
- ♦ Posted his 13th career multi-homer affair and matched his career-best with 5 RBI on Aug. 3 against St. Louis, hitting home runs from both sides of the plate.
- ♦ Saw his first career action in the outfield as a defensive replacement in leftfield on Aug. 27 at Atlanta.

- ♦ Saw action in 85 games at first base for the Red Sox, including 70 starts.
- ♦ Made his Red Sox debut as the starting first baseman on Opening Day on April 1 and hit his first career Opening Day homer off of Toronto's Chris Carpenter.

- ♦ Earned his first career All-Star appearance, going 0-for-1 for the American League at Safeco Field in Seattle.
- ♦ Had a career-high tying 4 hits on April 5 against Minnesota.
- ♦ Hit his second career grand slam on April 6 off of the White Sox Antonio Osuna.
- ♦ Homered in 4 straight games from June 13-16...hit his 150th career homer on July 16 off Troy Brohawn at Arizona.
- ♦ His season ended on Sept. 23 when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list due to an inflamed right wrist.

2000

- ♦ Went on the shelf on May 13 with a strained left rib cage and made a trio of rehabilitation outings with Toledo (AAA) prior to being activated on June 12.
- ♦ Earned AL Player of the Week honors for June 19-25.
- ♦ Was on the disabled from July 15-Sept. 1 with a lumbar spine strain...the injury forced him back on the shelf on Sept. 19 (retroactive to Sept. 17) and on Sept. 22, he was transferred to the 60-day disabled list.

- ◆ Became only the fifth player in franchise history to hit 30-plus home runs in 3 straight years.
- ◆ Hit his 100th career home run on May 15 off of Cleveland's Jaret Wright.
- ◆ Homered from both sides of the plate on July 18 at Cincinnati and July 25 against Boston, the fifth and sixth times he had accomplished the feat.
- ◆ Had a career-best 19-game hitting streak from July 10-Aug. 1.

- ◆ Established a franchise-record for switch-hitters with 34 home runs and became the first Tiger since Rudy York in 1938 to hit at least 30 homers and 100 RBI in his first 2 full big league campaigns.
- ◆ Established an American League single-season record with home runs from both sides of the plate in 3 contests (June 17 vs. Minnesota, July 26 at Cleveland and Aug. 1 at Tampa Bay), 1 game shy of the Major League mark.

1997

- ◆ Finished tied for sixth in the American League RBI, seventh with 93 walks and tied for 10th with 105 runs.
- ◆ Became the 13th switch-hitter in big league history to hit at least 30 home runs in a season.
- ◆ He was the fifth-fastest player in Major League history to amass 50 career roundtrippers, collecting it in his 202nd game on June 28 at Boston, trailing only Mark McGwire (151 games), Rudy York (153 games), Chuck Klein (195 games) and Bob Horner (196 games).
- ◆ Named AL Player of the Week for April 14-20.
- ◆ Set a career-best with 5 RBI on June 21 against the Red Sox.
- ◆ Established a career-high with 4 hits on April 5 at Chicago (AL).

- ◆ Finished third in the American League Rookie of the Year voting (behind the Yankees' Derek Jeter and the White Sox' James Baldwin) and garnered TOPPS Rookie All-Star honors after leading all rookies and his team with 27 homers.
- ◆ Opened the season at Toledo (AAA), then was recalled to Detroit on June 7.
- ◆ Blasted his first career grand slam on Aug. 1 off of California's Greg Gohr.
- ◆ Had a pair of multi-homer outings (Sept. 15 vs. Baltimore and Sept. 29 vs. Milwaukee)...snagged AL Player of the Week honors for Sept. 23-29.

1995

- ◆ Named the Tigers' best prospect by Baseball America.
- ◆ Recalled on Sept. 2, he appeared in his first Major League game the next day and collected a pair of hits off of Cleveland's Jose Mesa.
- ◆ Belted his first big league homer on Sept. 8 off of Toronto's Jeff Ware at SkyDome.

- ◆ Amassed an organization-high 99 RBI in 152 combined games with Trenton (AA) and Toledo (AAA).
- ◆ Selected to the Eastern League (AA) All-Star squad.

- ◆ Hampered by a partially torn right wrist ligament, Clark appeared in only 36 games for Lakeland (A).

1992

- ◆ Batted .306 (26-for-85) with 5 home runs and 17 RBI for Niagara Falls (A).

1991

- ◆ Out for the entire season after having surgery to repair a back injury he suffered while playing college basketball.

1990

- ◆ Batted .164 (12-for-73) in 25 games with Bristol (A).

PERSONAL

- ◆ Anthony (Tony) Christopher Clark.
- ◆ Married to Frances with 2 daughters, Kiara and Jazzin, and son, Aeneas.
- ◆ Was a 1990 graduate of Christian High School in El Cajon, Calif., where he earned All-American and Academic All-American honors in baseball and basketball...he amassed a San Diego-area high school basketball record with 2,549 career points while averaging 43.7 points per game his senior year en route to a state scoring title...broke Bill Walton's San Diego high school single-season scoring record with 1,337 points as a senior...previously attended Valhalla High School in El Cajon, Calif.

PGA GOLFER BACKS D-BACKS

Starting in 2008, the Arizona Diamondbacks and former Arizona State University golfer Chez Reavie entered into a unique partnership for the MLB club to sponsor the Scottsdale, Ariz. resident during his rookie season on the PGA Tour. Reavie wore the D-backs "A" logo on his Quagmire Golf shirts and featured the team's "D" snake logo on his Titleist golf bag in most of the PGA Tour events in 2008 and will continue to do so in 2009.

After winning his first PGA Tour event when shooting a final-round 70 to win the RBC Canadian Open at Glen Abbey Golf Club in Oakville, Ontario in July 2008, the national golf press dubbed him the "Small Unit." At 5-foot-9, the "Small Unit" moniker was a joking reference to former D-backs pitcher Randy Johnson, who is 6-foot-10. He led the RBC Canadian Open wire to wire and finished 17-under to beat Billy Mayfair by three strokes. For earning his first career PGA Tour victory, Reavie threw out the first pitch prior to a D-backs game at Chase Field in September 2008.

Reavie became one of 12 first-time winners on the PGA Tour in 2008, including four rookie winners. He made the cut in 21 of his 30 tournaments and also ranked 71st on the PGA Tour money list with $1,444,102 in earnings in 2008.

"We hope that attaching our brand to one of the up-and-coming golfers on tour will be beneficial again after Chez was one of the few rookies to win a PGA Tour event in 2008," said D-backs' President and CEO Derrick Hall. "It makes it even more special to know that Chez is an enthusiastic D-backs fan."

Reavie won the 2001 U.S. Public Links during his three-time All-America career at ASU. He joined the Nationwide Tour in 2006, made the cut in his first 15 starts and finished in the Top 25 on eight occasions. After five placements of 13th or better in his first 12 events in 2007, Reavie won the Knoxville Open and assured himself of joining the PGA Tour in 2008.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Davis made an inspiring comeback from thyroid cancer surgery last season and continued to be one of the National League's most consistent starters...since the 2004 season among NL pitchers, he ranks fourth with 162 starts, fifth with 96 quality starts, sixth with 972.0 innings pitched and seventh with 789 strikeouts...since becoming a full-time starter in 2004, he also ranks highly among active left-handed pitchers in starts and strikeouts (fifth), innings pitched (sixth) and ERA (eighth, 4.12).

- ◆ Compiled a 6-8 record and 4.32 ERA in 26 starts, including 14 quality starts, despite missing 39 games on the disabled list from April 9-May 22 while undergoing treatment after having a cancerous thyroid removed.
- ◆ Was diagnosed with thyroid cancer on March 28 and then made his scheduled start that night in an exhibition game against Colorado at Chase Field...went 1-1 in his first 2 starts of the regular season, a 3-2 loss at Cincinnati on April 3 and a 10-5 win against the Dodgers at Chase Field on April 8...was placed on the disabled list on April 9 and underwent surgery on April 10 to remove his cancerous thyroid.
- ◆ Made 2 rehab starts in Tucson (AAA) before returning to the mound on May 23 at Atlanta and earning the win in the D-backs' 11-1 victory after allowing 1 run and 5 hits over 7.0 innings.
- ◆ Tossed a season-high 8.0 innings on July 5 against San Diego, allowing 3 runs and 7 hits with 7 strikeouts...recorded his 1,000th career strikeout after fanning the Padres' Edgar Gonzalez in the third inning.
- ◆ Tossed 6.2 perfect innings before allowing a single to Brian Giles on July 29 at San Diego...he allowed only 2 hits and 2 walks and struck out 8 in 7.2 scoreless innings in the D-backs' 3-0 win.
- ◆ Earned 5 consecutive no-decisions to end the season despite posting a 3.18 ERA (10 ER in 28.1 IP) in his last 5 starts from Sept. 3-25...went 2-1 with a 3.51 ERA (20 ER in 51.1 IP) in his final 9 starts from Aug. 13-Sept. 25, not allowing more than 3 earned runs in a start.
- ◆ Held opponents to a .282 average (160-for-568), with right-handers hitting .269 (116-for-431).

- ◆ Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 19 of his 33 starts, going 11-4 with a 2.30 ERA (33 ER in 129.1 IP) in those contests.
- ◆ From July 13-Sept. 1, he went 7-1 with a 3.79 ERA (26 ER in 61.2 IP) with 45 strikeouts over 10 starts, with 8 of those being quality starts.
- ◆ Won a career-high-tying 5 straight games from July 13-Aug. 15...compiled a 3.13 ERA (16 ER in 46.0 IP) during the stretch, holding opponents to a .200 batting average (33-for-165).
- ◆ On Aug. 3 at the Dodgers, tossed a season-high 8.0 shutout innings, allowing only 3 hits and bettering his career record against the Dodgers to 3-2 with a 1.04 ERA (4 ER in 34.2 IP) in 5 career starts.
- ◆ Picked up a win in his first start after the All-Star break and would go on to win 5 of his next 7 starts, including 3 consecutive from Aug. 3-15, allowing 6 earned runs over 20.1 innings pitched.
- ◆ Broke a 51-at-bat hitless streak on June 19 vs. Tampa Bay after singling off J.P. Howell.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Won his only start in the NLDS against the Cubs with a 6.35 ERA in 5.2 innings pitched, allowing 4 runs off 5 hits with 4 walks and 8 strikeouts...tossed 5.0 innings in his NLCS start against Colorado, taking the loss in allowing 2 runs (1 earned) off 5 hits with 4 walks and 5 strikeouts for a 1.80 ERA.

- ◆ Finished at the .500 mark for the third straight season, going 11-11 with a 4.91 ERA over 34 starts (12-12 in 2004, 11-11 in 2005)...pitched more than 200.0 innings for the third straight season (207.1 in 2004, 222.2 in 2005, 203.1 in 2006)...produced 16 quality starts...the Brewers were 19-15 in his 34 starts, best among the starting staff...was the victim of a team-leading 6 blown saves.
- ◆ Ranked second in the National League in walks (102).
- ◆ Made his first career Opening Day start on April 3 vs. Pittsburgh and recorded a 5-2 win.
- ◆ Tied his career-high with 11 strikeouts over 8.0 innings on June 3 vs. Washington but received no decision in the Brewers' 4-3 loss.
- ◆ Tossed the third shutout of his career in a 9-0 victory on Sept. 5 against the Angels (9.0 IP, 4 H, 1 BB, 8 K)...retired the last 16 batters in a row.

- ◆ Finished the season tied for third in the National League with 208 strikeouts...the 208 strikeouts led NL left-handers and ranked third in the Majors behind Minnesota's Johan Santana (238) and the Yankees' Randy Johnson (211).
- ◆ Equaled the Brewers' NL record for consecutive scoreless innings streak, also held by Jeff D'Amico (July 6-25, 2000), when he did not allow a run in 20.2 consecutive innings from May 16-June 1.
- ◆ Struck out a career-high 11 batters in his July 24 outing at Cincinnati.
- ◆ Recorded his first career extra-base hit on June 22 against the Cubs with a 2-run double...the RBI were also the first of his career.
- ◆ Collected multiple hits for the first time in his career on July 3 vs. Pittsburgh going 2-3 with a double and RBI.

- ◆ Tied for first among Brewers pitchers and ranked in a tie for third in the National League with teammate Ben Sheets with 24 quality starts.
- ◆ Won his career-best 12th decision in his last start of the season on Sept. 30 at St. Louis with a 7-6 victory.
- ◆ Went 2-1 with a 2.49 ERA in his last 2 months of the season (11 starts).
- ◆ Left-handed opponents batted .259 against Davis, while right-handers hit .244.

- ◆ Began the season with Oklahoma (AAA), where he went 3-0 with a 3.25 ERA in 4 starts before being promoted to Texas.
- ◆ Made 1 start with the Rangers on April 26 against the Yankees before being claimed by Toronto on April 30.
- ◆ Went 4-6 with a 5.00 ERA in 12 games (11 starts) for the Blue Jays before being released and granted free agency on July 11.
- ◆ Signed with Milwaukee on July 14 and won his first decision with the Brewers with a complete game over the Reds on Aug. 26 at Cincinnati.
- ◆ Followed with a win in his next start on Aug. 31 at the Cubs, nearly going the distance and tossing 8.1 innings.

- ◆ Opened the season in the Rangers' rotation, going 2-0 with a 1.88 ERA in his first 3 starts.
- ◆ Pitched his first Major League complete game shutout, a 2-hitter on April 11 vs. Oakland...it was the first complete game shutout by a Rangers left-hander since Darren Oliver on July 16, 1997 vs. Toronto.
- ◆ Pitched 7.0 shutout innings of 1-hit ball to defeat Nashville in first start with RedHawks on June 1.
- ◆ Made final start on July 18 before missing rest of season with a strained left shoulder.
- ◆ Pitched in relief for Azucareros in the Dominican Winter League, posting a 1-2 mark and a 4.76 ERA in 9 starts.

2001

- ◆ Ranked second on the Rangers staff in starts (30), innings (186) and strikeouts (115), and tied for second in wins (11).
- ◆ Lone complete game was an 8.0 inning 1-0 loss in season's final start on October 6 in Seattle.
- ◆ Ranked second among AL pitchers with 11 pickoffs.

- ◆ Ranked third on the staff in wins, tied for fourth-best among AL rookies.
- ◆ Recorded his first big league victory on May 12 at Anaheim.
- ◆ Worked 15 consecutive scoreless innings over 3 starts, Aug. 20-30.
- ◆ Had the Rangers' only 9.0 inning complete game of the season, pitching a 9-hit, 6-2 victory at Boston on Aug. 20.

- ◆ Named the Rangers' Nolan Ryan Minor League Pitcher of the Year.
- ◆ Led the organization in strikeouts (153) and posted the second-lowest ERA.
- ◆ Promoted to Oklahoma (AAA) on June 22...started 2 games in the playoffs for the RedHawks, going 1-0 and posting a 3.14 ERA.

- ♦ Led the Pacific Coast League in playoff strikeouts (13).
- ♦ Was recalled by the Rangers on Aug. 1 and made Major League debut on Aug. 9 vs. Toronto.
- ♦ Played with the Arizona Fall League champion Mesa Solar Sox...tied for first in the AFL in wins (5) and was second in innings pitched (36.0).
- ♦ Was the AFL's Pitcher of the Week, Oct. 19-25.
- ♦ Was the winning pitcher in the championship-clinching game for Mesa.

- ♦ Led the Florida State League in strikeouts (173) and had the circuit's seventh lowest ERA (3.24) at Charlotte.
- ♦ Led the Rangers in strikeouts and starts (27), ranked second in innings (155.1) and was third in wins (11).
- ♦ Selected as the left-handed pitcher on the Florida State League postseason All-Star team.
- ♦ Was Texas' Minor League pitcher of the month in June (4-1).

1997

- ♦ Split the season between Gulf Coast and Charlotte, posting a combined 8-4 record alongside a 2.69 ERA.
- ♦ Was promoted to Charlotte on July 8 and went on to be Texas' minor league pitcher of the month at 2-1 with a 2.05 ERA.
- ♦ Fanned 14 in 7.2 innings in July 21 win against St. Lucie.

- ♦ Started pro career with Hudson Valley going 3-0 with a 0.99 ERA in first 7 outings before losing final start on Aug. 25.

PERSONAL

- ♦ Douglas Davis.
- ♦ Has two children: daughter, Drew, and son, Jordan.
- ♦ Graduated from Northgate High School in Northgate, Calif., where he played baseball and football.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Already in second place in D-backs' history in games played for a shortstop (354) entering the 2009 season, Drew posted career-highs in every offensive category in 2008 to place him among the league's top shortstops in only his second full Major League season...the former first-round selection was named the D-backs' Player of the Year by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA last season after becoming the third shortstop in Major League history to notch 40 doubles, 10 triples and 20 home runs in a season, joining Milwaukee's Robin Yount (1980, 1982) and Boston's Nomar Garciaparra (1997)...Drew also hit for the third cycle in franchise history and first-ever at Chase Field on Sept. 1, 2008 vs. St. Louis, going 5-for-5 and tying the franchise-mark for hits in a game...he was named the organization's top prospect in 2006, according to Baseball America.

- ◆ Established himself as one of the top shortstops in the National League after posting career-bests with a .291 batting average, 91 runs, 178 hits, 44 doubles, 11 triples, 21 home runs and 67 RBI in 152 games.
- ◆ Became the third shortstop in Major League history to collect at least 40 doubles, 10 triples and 20 home runs in a season...Milwaukee's Robin Yount did so in 1980 and 1982 followed by Boston's Nomar Garciaparra in 1997.
- ◆ Among NL batters, ranked tied for second in triples, tied for fourth in doubles, fifth with 53 multi-hit games, eighth in hits and extra-base hits (76)...was also third among NL shortstops in homers and fifth in batting average.
- ◆ Was tops among NL shortstops after the All-Star break with 88 hits and 23 doubles, tied for first with 34 RBI, second with a .326 batting average (88-for-270) and 6 triples, and third with 9 home runs and 43 runs scored.
- ◆ Joined Steve Finley as the only other player in D-backs history to record double-digits in doubles, triples and home runs in the same season, as Finley did it in 1999 (32/10/34) and 2003 (24/10/22).
- ◆ Honored by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as the D-backs' Player of Year.
- ◆ Tied a team-record and established a career-best after going 5-for-5 (single, 2 doubles, triple, home run, 3 runs) to become the third D-backs player to hit for the cycle on Sept. 1 vs. St. Louis, joining Greg Colbrunn (Sept. 18, 2002 at Houston) and Luis Gonzalez (July 5, 2000 at San Diego)...it was the first cycle at Chase Field and the fourth of the season in the Majors (Washington's Cristian Guzman vs. Los Angeles Dodgers on Aug. 28; Minnesota's Carlos Gomez vs. Chicago White Sox on May 7; Atlanta's Mark Kotsay vs. Chicago Cubs on Aug. 14)...Seattle's Adrian Beltre became the fifth player in MLB to hit for the cycle later that night at Texas...it was the 12th time in franchise history (ninth in a 9.0-inning game) that a player collected 5 hits, which was last accomplished by Mark Reynolds on May 25, 2007 vs. Houston.
- ◆ Hit a game-winning solo home run in the 10th inning on April 6 at Colorado after entering the game to play shortstop in the ninth inning.
- ◆ Collected 4 hits on 3 occasions; May 15 vs. Colorado, July 20 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers and Sept. 17 vs. San Francisco.
- ◆ Homered on June 9 at Pittsburgh and June 10 at New York Mets, the second consecutive-game homer stretch of his career (also on July 31 and Aug. 3, 2006 at Wrigley Field).
- ◆ Batted .325 (27-for-83) during a career-high 17-game hitting streak from July 29-Aug. 15...it was the longest streak by a D-back since Danny Bautista hit in 21 straight from April 7-30, 2004...also had an 11-game hitting streak from July 10-25 (.373, 19-for-51).
- ◆ Fielding percentage of .976 ranked fifth among NL shortstops.

- ◆ Broke camp as the opening day shortstop for the first time in his career.
- ◆ Hit his first career walk-off home run, a 2-run shot off San Diego's Trevor Hoffman on April 25.
- ◆ From June 27-July 5, he collected 7 doubles and batted .345 (10-for-29) with 2 RBI.
- ◆ Strung together a season-high 7-game hit streak from Aug. 29-Sept. 4, batting .320 (8-for-25) with 2 doubles, a home run and 4 RBI.
- ◆ From Sept. 12 through the remainder of the season, he hit .333 (18-for-54) with 2 doubles, 1 triple, 1 home run and 10 RBI...collected 4 consecutive multi-hit games over that stretch, including back-to-back 3-hit performances on Sept. 27 and 28.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Led D-backs with a .500 average (7-for-14) and had 4 runs scored, a double, triple, 2 home runs and 4 RBI in 3-game NLDS sweep over Chicago...batted .294 (5-for-17) with 2 runs scored and a walk in all 4 NLCS games against Colorado.

- ◆ Recalled from Tucson (AAA) on July 15 and made his Major League debut that evening.
- ◆ Collected his first Major League hit on July 17, a single off the Dodgers' Aaron Sele.
- ◆ Recorded a 9-game hitting streak (.361, 13-for-36 with 5 doubles and 2 triples) from July 17-26.
- ◆ Smacked his first Major League home run, a solo shot off Glendon Rusch, on July 31 at Wrigley Field.
- ◆ Posted a then-career-best 4 RBI during the first game of a doubleheader at Wrigley on Aug. 3.
- ◆ Hit safely in 13 straight games from July 31-Aug. 16 (.377, 20-for-53).
- ◆ Hit .345 (30-for-87) with 6 doubles, 2 triples, 2 home runs and 14 RBI in August.
- ◆ Hit .284 (97-for-342) with 13 home runs and 51 RBI in 83 games with Tucson prior to his call to the big leagues.

- ◆ Signed with the D-backs on May 31, 2005 after he was the organization's first-round pick (15th overall selection) in the 2004 First-Year Player Draft.
- ◆ Prior to joining the D-backs' organization, he signed with the Camden Riversharks of the independent Atlantic League on April 20, 2005, and hit .427 in 19 games (35-for-82) with 8 walks, 8 doubles, 3 triples, 4 home runs and 18 RBI.
- ◆ Led the Atlantic League in batting, slugging (.744) and on-base percentage (.484).
- ◆ After inking a contract with Arizona, he was assigned to Lancaster (A) and led the Jet Hawks in slugging (.738) and on-base (.486) percentages.
- ◆ Had a 16-game hitting streak beginning on June 30, during which he batted .385 (25-for-65) with 9 doubles, 6 home runs and 20 RBI.
- ◆ Homered in 4 consecutive contests (5 homers total) from July 5-8.
- ◆ Was selected the farm system's Player of the Month for July, batting .393 with 7 homers and 28 RBI.
- ◆ Closed his time with Lancaster with a 12-game hitting streak, going 22-for-43 (.512) before his promotion to Tennessee (AA) after July 31 game.
- ◆ Participated in the Arizona Fall League, batting .337 (30-for-89) with 6 home runs and 17 RBI in 23 games for the league champion Phoenix Desert Dogs.
- ◆ Tied for the league lead with 4 triples, finished third in the loop with a .738 slugging percentage, tied for third with 25 runs and fourth with both a .439 on-base percentage and 17 extra-base hits.
- ◆ Selected as a shortstop on the Arizona Fall League All-Star Team.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Stephen O. Drew.
- ◆ Married to Laura.
- ◆ Graduated in 2001 from Lowndes County High School in Valdosta, Ga.
- ◆ Attended Florida State University, where as a junior he batted .353 with 71 hits, 14 doubles, 6 triples, 14 home runs and 52 RBI in 51 games.
- ◆ Named 2002 ACC Rookie of the Year as well as Freshman of the Year by Baseball America, and second team All-America by Collegiate Baseball in 2004...selected to the All-ACC Team and the All-Tournament Team at the 2004 ACC Tournament.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Garland joins the 2009 D-backs rotation after spending his entire career to date playing in the American League...his 60 wins since the start of the 2005 season tie him for eighth-most in the Majors...he has also logged 1,625.1 innings in his career, including 7 straight seasons with at least 190.0 innings pitched...joins an Arizona rotation that now has 4 of the 20 pitchers in the Majors to have started at least 128 games since 2005: Dan Haren, second, 135; Brandon Webb, sixth, 134; Doug Davis and Garland, 18th, 128.

- ◆ Posted 18 quality starts, third on Angels...pitched at least 6.0 innings on 23 occasions and at least 7.0 innings 11 times.
- ◆ Allowed 1 run in 8.0 innings in Angels debut on April 1 win at Minnesota, making him only the second pitcher in the last 70 seasons to throw at least 8.0 innings, allowing no more than 1 run without striking out a batter in his first game with a team (Doc Ellis pitched a 1-run complete game without a strikeout in his debut with the Yankees in 1976).
- ◆ Made his 250th career appearance on April 17 vs. Kansas City, tossing 6.0 innings in the victory.
- ◆ Tossed 15.0 straight scoreless innings from May 4-15, tying an Angels' season-high.
- ◆ Norched a season-high 8 strikeouts on June 7 at Oakland, tossing 7.0 innings, allowing 2 runs off 5 hits with 1 walk to earn the victory.
- ◆ Recorded his 100th career win and ninth complete game on July 6 vs. Toronto, allowing 1 run off 1 hit with no walks and 3 strikeouts.

- ◆ Recorded 10 wins, 30 starts and 200 innings pitched for fourth consecutive year, first right-handed pitcher in White Sox history to register at least 10 wins and 30 starts for six straight seasons.
- ◆ Posted a team-high 21 quality starts...pitched at least 6.0 innings on 26 occasions and at least 7.0 innings 21 times.
- ◆ Was 1 of 5 pitchers to pitch at least 200.0 innings with just 1 wild pitch, including teammate Mark Buehrle.
- ◆ Posted an AL-best 1.38 ERA in September (6 ER in 39.0 IP).
- ◆ Tossed back-to-back complete games Sept. 20 at Kansas City and Sept. 26 vs. the Royals...needed just 78 pitches on Sept. 20, the fewest by Sox pitcher in complete game since Jerry Reuss on June 27, 1988 at Kansas City (76 pitches).

- ◆ Became first White Sox pitcher to win at least 18 games in consecutive campaigns (also 18 in 2005) since Jack McDowell won 20 in 1992 and 22 in 1993...was part of first Sox starting rotation since 1983 to feature five 10-game winners (LaMarr Hoyt, Rich Dotson, Floyd Bannister, Jerry Koosman and Britt Burns).
- ◆ Reached 200 IP-mark for third straight season and recorded 10 wins and 30 starts for fifth consecutive year.
- ◆ Ranked among American League leaders in wins (third), winning percentage (fifth, .720), fewest walks per 9.0 IP (fifth, 1.7) and IP (tied for 10th)...received 6.39 runs of support per 9.0 IP, the ninth-highest average in the AL...led the Majors with 12 road wins.
- ◆ Went 14-4 with a 3.49 ERA (52 ER in 134.0 IP) over his last 20 starts.
- ◆ Won season-high 8 straight games from May 13-Aug. 9, going 8-0 with a 3.26 ERA (21 ER in 58.0 IP), the fourth-longest in the AL in 2006.
- ◆ Carried 2-hit shutout into the ninth inning before giving up back-to-back singles leading off frame on June 18 at Cincinnati...also hit 2-run home run in that start off Esteban Yan, becoming first Sox pitcher to homer since Steve Kealey on Sept. 6, 1971 vs. Minnesota.

- ◆ Recorded fifth career shutout (third vs. Detroit) and sixth complete game on Aug. 24 at Detroit.
- ◆ Saw 10-game road winning streak, dating to 2005, end on Sept. 15 at Cleveland.

2005

- ◆ Received one third-place vote in AL Cy Young Award balloting.
- ◆ Named to first career AL All-Star Team after going 13-4 with a 3.38 ERA (45 ER in 120.0 IP) in first half...tossed a scoreless inning in the Midsummer Classic, walking 2 batters.
- ◆ Ranked among AL leaders in shutouts (first), wins (tied for second), quality starts (tied for second, 22), complete games (tied for fourth), IP (eighth), ERA (ninth) and walks per 9.0 IP (10th, 1.91).
- ◆ Was first White Sox pitcher since James Baldwin (2000) to open season 7-0 and Wilson Alvarez (1994) to start 8-0...also became first Sox pitcher to open season by winning 8 straight starts since John Whitehead (1935) and 1 of 8 in Major Leagues since 1969 to accomplish feat (last was Montreal's Pedro Martinez in 1997).
- ◆ Also won 10 straight starts from Sept. 26, 2004-May 17, 2005, tied for fifth-longest streak by a White Sox pitcher since 1970 and longest since Richard Dotson also won 10 in a row from Aug. 19-Oct. 2, 1983.
- ◆ Was fourth pitcher since 1998 to win 10 or more consecutive starts, joining Johan Santana (12, July 27-Sept. 24, 2004), Roger Clemens (11, Sept. 11, 2003-May 11, 2004) and Roy Halladay (11, May 1-June 22, 2003), and first Sox pitcher to accomplish the feat since LaMarr Hoyt won 11 in a row from Aug. 22, 1983-April 10, 1984.
- ◆ Named AL Pitcher of the Month for April, going 4-0 with a 1.80 ERA (6 ER in 30.0 IP).
- ◆ Compiled career-high scoreless streak of 23.0 innings from April 20-May 7.
- ◆ Became the first Sox pitcher since Jack McDowell (1993) to win 13 games before All-Star Break...became 1 of 4 Sox pitchers in club history to record 10 or more wins in first 12 starts with victory June 10 at San Diego, joining Billy Pierce (10-2 in 1957), Ted Lyons (10-2 in 1927 and 1935) and Ed Cicotte (12-0 in 1919).
- ◆ Threw consecutive shutouts April 25 at Oakland and May 1 vs. Detroit, the first Sox pitcher to accomplish feat since McDowell on Sept. 13-18, 1991.
- ◆ Tossed third four-hit shutout Sept. 4 vs. Detroit.

2005 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Posted no-decision in Game 3 of World Series, allowing 4 runs (2 earned) in 7.0 IP while departing with a 5-4 lead...recorded complete-game victory in first career playoff start in Game 3 of ALCS at Angels...pitching for first time since Oct. 1 at Cleveland, held Angels to 2 runs on 6 hits as Sox gained a 2-1 lead in series...threw first of Sox 4 consecutive complete-game victories vs. Angels, the first time the feat was accomplished in postseason since 1928 Yankees (Waite Hoyt - 2, George Pipgras and Tom Zachary)...did not pitch in the ALDS vs. Boston.

- ◆ Ranked among the AL leaders in earned runs allowed (second), home runs allowed (fourth), innings pitched (tied for sixth), pitches per start (ninth, 102.85) and walks (tied for 10th, 76).
- ◆ Earned first career victory against the Yankees on April 9 at Yankee Stadium, allowing 1 unearned run over 8.0 IP, walking a career-high 7 batters.
- ◆ Recorded second career complete game June 20 at Montreal (4 ER in 8.1 IP).
- ◆ Error June 15 at Florida was first since Sept. 28, 2001 at Kansas City, a span of 78 games and 101 total chances.
- ◆ Went 1-4 at the plate, collecting first career hit June 20 at Montreal (single off Zach Day).

- ◆ Finished sixth in AL in run support, averaging 6.06 runs per 9.0 innings, also tying for 10th in losses and ranking sixth in walks.
- ◆ Received first career ejection on April 26 vs. Minnesota after hitting a batter.

- ◆ Tied for seventh in AL in starts, finishing second in the league in pitches per start (94.1), third in walks, tied for eighth in losses and tied for ninth in runs allowed.
- ◆ Made first career Opening Day roster.
- ◆ Recorded first career complete game shutout Aug. 28 vs. Toronto.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Established himself as one of the premier closers in the Major Leagues when he became a full-time reliever in 1998 and led the American League with 46 saves for Boston...was a part of three All-Star teams (1998, 2004, 2006) and was named the Rolands Relief Man of the Year in 1998...since 1998, he has compiled a 3.21 ERA and a .215 opponent's batting average in 537 relief appearances, including a 7.12 hits per 9 innings ratio that is the eighth-lowest among relievers with a minimum of 500 innings pitched during that span...converted a then-MLB record 54 consecutive saves for the Red Sox from 1998-99, which was broken by the Dodgers' Eric Gagne when he converted 84 consecutive saves from 2002-04...is the only pitcher in MLB history with 100 career wins, holds and saves.

- ◆ Despite allowing 5 runs and 4 hits in 0.1 inning and earning the loss in his season debut on March 31 vs. Washington and giving up 4 runs and 2 hits in 0.1 inning and earning the defeat on June 11 at Florida, posted a 5-2 record and 2.48 ERA (8 ER in 29.0 IP) in his other 32 appearances of the season.
- ◆ Went 5-1 with a 2.13 ERA (6 ER in 25.1 IP), 12 holds and a .216 opponents batting average in 27 games from April 3-June 7.
- ◆ Had 12 strikeouts in his first 8.2 innings pitched of the season (12.5 K/9.0 IP) and was not scored upon in 12 consecutive appearances (11.2 innings overall) from April 17-May 13.
- ◆ Was 0-2 with a 13.50 ERA (6 ER in 4.0 IP) in his final 6 appearances of the season from June 11-July 5 before being placed on the 15-day disabled list on July 6 with right elbow inflammation.
- ◆ Made 2 rehab appearances with Clearwater (A) before being shut down for the remainder of the season.
- ◆ Did not allow a run in 24 of his 34 appearances...24 of his appearances came in the eighth or ninth inning with the game tied or having a lead of 3 runs or less.

- ◆ Began the season as the Phillies' closer and was 1-1 with a 4.82 ERA and 5 saves in his first 9 appearances before being placed on the 15-day disabled list with a strained right rotator cuff on May 4.
- ◆ Used in a set-up role for the remainder of the season after being reinstated from the DL on July 16...was 2-1 with a 4.70 ERA and 14 holds in 35 appearances as the set-up man for closer Brett Myers.
- ◆ Appeared in 18 of the team's 28 games in September and posted a 1-0 mark, 1.32 ERA (2 ER in 13.2 IP) and .196 opponents average with 7 holds in his final 15 outings as the Phillies battled the Mets down the stretch to win the NL East Championship.
- ◆ Appeared in 2 games of the NLDS vs. Colorado.

- ◆ Signed by the Phillies prior to the start of the season to replace Billy Wagner as the team's closer and earned his third trip to the All-Star Game while finishing the season with 34 saves, fourth-best among NL relievers.
- ◆ His 34 saves were the 10th-highest total by a reliever 38 or older...also was the seventh Phillies player to collect 30 or more saves in a season.
- ◆ Selected to the All-Star Game in Pittsburgh after receiving the most player votes among NL relievers...allowed a hit in 1.0 inning in the game.
- ◆ Retired the side in order in 16 of his 34 saves, finishing tied for second in the NL in "perfect" saves behind Trevor Hoffman with 18.

- ◆ Suffered the loss in his first appearance as a Phillie on April 5 vs. St. Louis, prior to converting 10 straight save opportunities from April 12-May 6...threw 13.2 scoreless innings in 14 appearances to give him a 0.61 ERA through his first 15 games of the season.
- ◆ Held opponents to a 0-for-23 streak from April 23-May 6.
- ◆ Placed on the 15-day disabled list on Aug. 21 (retroactive to Aug. 13) with a strained right shoulder...was reinstated on Sept. 3 after 2 rehab appearances at Clearwater (A).
- ◆ The Phillies won 20 consecutive games that he appeared in from April 9-May 25...overall, they went 51-8 (.864) in his 59 appearances, including 15-1 (.938) in his final 16 outings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Haren further established himself as one of the elite pitchers in the Majors in 2008, setting career-highs in wins (16) and strikeouts (206) en route to his second straight All-Star selection...since 2005, Haren ranks third in the Majors with 92 quality starts, fifth with 878.2 innings pitched, tied for fifth with only 193 walks allowed, seventh with 737 strikeouts and is 10th with 59 wins...has been unbeaten in interleague play for the last two seasons (2007-08) and has 10 career interleague victories, leading the Majors since 2005...he was the 2007 All-Star Game starting pitcher for the American League.

- ◆ Posted career-highs with 16 wins and 206 strikeouts in his first season with the D-backs...led the National League in strikeout to walk ratio (5.15), was second in strikeouts and walks per 9 innings (1.67), sixth in innings pitched and tied for seventh in wins...since 2005, ranks fifth in innings pitched (878.2), tied for fifth in fewest walks allowed (193), seventh in strikeouts (737) and 10th in wins (59) among all Major League pitchers.
- ◆ His 23 quality starts ranked fourth among NL pitchers...with teammate Brandon Webb, their combined total of 47 quality starts tied for most among teammates in the Major Leagues with San Francisco's Tim Lincecum and Matt Cain...his 92 quality starts since 2005 rank third in the big leagues.
- ◆ Was selected to his second consecutive All-Star Game...allowed 2 hits, a walk and struck out 2 in 2.0 innings (fifth and sixth innings) in the game at Yankee Stadium in New York.
- ◆ Earned NL Pitcher of the Month honors in June...was 3-0 with a league-best 1.32 ERA (6 ER in 41.0 IP) and 36 strikeouts in 6 starts to boost his career mark to 13-3 with a 2.86 ERA (51 ER in 160.1 IP) in 24 career games during the month of June.
- ◆ Earned his first win as a D-back after he allowed 3 runs (1 earned) on 6 hits with 5 strikeouts in 6.0 innings in the club's home opener against the Dodgers on April 7...went on to win his next 2 starts to give him a 3-0 record in his first 4 games with the D-backs.
- ◆ Allowed only 4 hits and 3 walks while striking out 5 in 7.0 scoreless to earn the win in the D-backs' 5-0 victory vs. Washington on June 1...the victory started a run in which he went 9-2 with a 2.70 ERA (31 ER in 103.1 IP) while striking out 100 and allowing only 18 walks during 15 starts to give him a 14-6 season record on Aug. 20.
- ◆ Was unbeaten in interleague play for the second consecutive season after going 3-0 with a 1.71 ERA (4 ER in 21.0 IP)...was 4-0 with a 2.25 ERA (7 ER in 28.0 IP) against NL opponents with the A's in 2007...is 10-2 with a 2.68 ERA (31 ER in 104.0 IP) in 14 interleague starts in his career...his 10 interleague wins lead the Majors since 2005.
- ◆ Tied a career-best with 12 strikeouts and allowed only 4 hits and 2 walks to earn his first career shutout on Sept. 16 against San Francisco...it was his sixth career complete game and first since July 31, 2006 at Los Angeles Angels...joined Randy Johnson (6 times) and Curt Schilling (twice) as the only Arizona pitchers to strike out at least a dozen batters in a shutout.
- ◆ Struck out the Rockies' Seth Smith in the second inning on Sept. 26 at Chase Field to reach the 200-strikeout plateau for the first time in his career and become only the third D-backs player to accomplish the feat...Johnson struck out 200-plus batters from 1999-2002 and 2004 while Schilling did it from 2001-02.
- ◆ Hit .211 at the plate (16-for-76) with 8 runs scored, 7 doubles and 6 RBI, including a game-winning RBI...had 3 multi-hit games, including a career-best 3-hits with a run scored and RBI on Sept. 21 at Colorado.

- ◆ Tied for the AL-lead in games started, ranked third in ERA, fifth in innings pitched, eighth in strikeouts and had the eighth-best strikeout to walk ratio (3.49).

- ◆ Allowed a .181 average with runners in scoring position, which was the lowest mark in the AL and second-lowest in the Majors (Atlanta's John Smoltz, .178).
- ◆ Was 10-3 with a 2.30 ERA (33 ER in 129.1 IP) and .205 opponents batting average in 19 starts before the All-Star Break and 5-6 with a 4.15 ERA (43 IP in 93.1 IP) and .298 opponents batting average in 15 starts after the break...led the AL in ERA at the break and tied for fourth in wins.
- ◆ Named to his first All-Star team and started for the AL to become the sixth Oakland pitcher to start an All-Star game (Vida Blue 1971 and 1975, Catfish Hunter 1973, Dave Stewart 1989, Bob Welch 1990, Mark Mulder 2004)...received a no-decision, tossing 2.0 innings, allowing 1 run off 2 hits with a walk and 2 strikeouts in the AL's 5-4 win at AT&T Park in San Francisco.
- ◆ Went 3-2 with a 1.60 ERA (7 ER in 39.1 IP) in 6 starts in April and 3-0 with a 1.67 ERA (8 ER in 43.0 IP) in 6 starts in May...led the AL in ERA in both April and May and was named AL Pitcher of the Month in May, his first such award.
- ◆ Was 4-0 with a 2.25 ERA (7 ER in 28 IP) and .200 opponents batting average in 4 interleague starts and tied for the interleague lead in wins with Detroit's Justin Verlander.
- ◆ Made his first career Opening Day start on April 2 at Seattle, taking the loss, 4-0.
- ◆ Career-high 10-game winning streak over a 15-start stretch from April 18-July 1...had a 2.23 ERA and .199 opponents batting average during the streak, which was the longest in the Majors in 2007.
- ◆ Streak of 5 consecutive starts from May 14-June 4 where he tossed 7.0 or more innings and allowed 4 or fewer hits...was the first pitcher in Athletics history to do that.
- ◆ Made his 100th career start and had a no-decision in a 5-4, 11-inning win over Boston on June 4.

- ◆ Tied for the American League lead in games started, ranked second in innings pitched and tied for sixth in strikeouts, complete games, losses and hit batters.
- ◆ Had a .301 opponents on-base percentage, which was fifth-lowest in the AL.
- ◆ With his 176 strikeouts, he had a strikeout to walk ratio of 3.91, which was fourth-best in the AL...it also set an Athletics franchise record, breaking the 102-year old mark of 3.84 set by Rube Waddell in 1904 (349 strikeouts, 91 walks).
- ◆ Went 6 consecutive starts from May 19-June 14 without allowing a home run...it was the first time in his career he went more than 3 consecutive starts without allowing a home run and the 46.1-inning, 187-batter homerless streak was the longest of his career.
- ◆ Had a career-high 19.0 inning scoreless streak from May 14-24.
- ◆ Allowed 9 runs in 5.2 innings on Aug. 21 at Toronto and picked up the win in the A's 12-10 victory...the 9 runs set an Oakland record for most runs allowed by a pitcher in a game in which he won...8 of the runs came in the first 2 innings and, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first pitcher in AL history to win a game in which he allowed 8 runs over the first 2 innings...he was the first Major League pitcher to do that since Rube Marquard of the New York Giants did it on May 14, 1913 against the Chicago Cubs.
- ◆ Struck out a career-high 12 batters in just 7.0 innings in a 3-0 loss at Texas on Aug. 27...it was the first 10-strikeout game of his career.

2006 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Made 2 postseason starts and was 1-0 with a 4.09 ERA...tossed 6.0 innings, allowing 2 runs off 9 hits with a walk and 2 strikeouts to earn the victory in the ALDS clincher in Game 3 vs. Minnesota...received a no-decision in the final game of the ALCS, tossing 5.0 innings, allowing 3 runs off 7 hits with 2 walks and 7 strikeouts in the A's 6-3 loss in Game 4 at Detroit.

- ◆ Tied for the A's team lead in wins...his 34 starts tied for third-most in the American League and he led the A's and tied for fourth in the AL in complete games (3)...also ranked sixth in the AL in strikeouts (163) and ninth in innings pitched (217.0).
- ◆ The A's were 21-13 (.618) in his starting assignments.
- ◆ Put together a 9-game winning streak from May 31-Aug. 7 which tied for the second-longest winning streak in the AL in 2005...posted a 3.60 ERA and .259 opponents batting average during the winning streak which spanned 14 starts...the A's won all 5 of his no decisions during the streak and he tied an Oakland record with 14 consecutive starts in an A's victory.
- ◆ Doubled in the fifth inning on May 21 at San Francisco to snap a 0-for-29 streak dating back to July 30, 2003 at Montreal.
- ◆ Had a streak of 26.1 consecutive innings (97 batters faced) without a walk from May 21-June 10 which was the third-longest such streak by a starter in Oakland history.
- ◆ Had 2 RBI on June 10 at Atlanta to become the first A's pitcher to drive in more than 1 run in a game since Rollie Fingers had 2 on June 27, 1972 at Texas.
- ◆ Tossed his second career complete game, a 7-hitter, in the A's 6-3 win over San Francisco on June 25.
- ◆ Was 5-0 with a 3.09 ERA in 6 starts in June...the wins tied Joe Blanton for the most in the AL and marked the first time he won more than 2 games in a month.
- ◆ Had his winning streak snapped when tossed his third career complete game, a 3-hitter in the A's 1-0 loss to Minnesota on Aug. 12...it was the low-hit game of his career.

- ◆ Led the Pacific Coast League with 150 strikeouts and finished 10th in ERA for Memphis (AAA).
- ◆ Named the starter for the PCL in the AAA All-Star Game on July 14...retired 6 of the 7 batters he faced with only 1 batter reaching on a 2-base error...was named the PCL All-Star Player of the Game.
- ◆ As a hitter, he batted .385 with 4 doubles, 4 home runs and 8 RBI.
- ◆ With St. Louis, he was used mainly in relief and made 9 appearances out of the pen...also made 5 starts and was 2-2 with a 6.04 ERA in his starts and 1-1 with a 2.61 ERA in relief.
- ◆ His first appearance in St. Louis was a start on June 10 at Chicago...suffered the loss, allowing 10 runs on 10 hits in 3.2 innings while walking 3.

2004 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Appeared in 5 postseason games for St. Louis, all in relief, and compiled a 2.16 ERA...had 1 decision, a win in Game 2 of the NLDS against Los Angeles, an 8-3 Cardinals win (2.0 innings, 1 hit, 1 walk, 3 strikeouts)...tossed 4.2 scoreless innings in 4 World Series outings against Boston.

- ◆ Made his big league debut on June 30 vs. San Francisco and suffered a 5-1 loss after allowing 4 runs, 2 earned, on 7 hits through 6.0 innings.
- ◆ Prior to his big league promotion, he was selected to play for Team USA in the All-Star Futures Game.
- ◆ Notched his first Major League win on July 19 at Los Angeles, tossing 6.0 innings, allowing a run off 6 hits to defeat Kevin Brown and the Dodgers, 3-1.
- ◆ Began the season at Tennessee (AA) and was named the organization's Pitcher of the Month for April, after going 4-0 with 1.09 ERA.
- ◆ Fanned a season-high 11 batters in his final AA start on May 13 at Huntsville.

- ◆ Struck out a season-high 10 batters in 6.0 innings with Potomac (A) in a loss at Kinston on July 24.
- ◆ Tossed a season-high 8.0 innings in back-to-back starts on June 26 vs. Frederick Keyes and July 1 at Kinston.
- ◆ Went 5-0 with a 1.24 ERA on the road.
- ◆ Allowed just a .171 batting average to lefties.

2001

- ◆ Earned first and only minor league save on July 15 vs. Lowell (4.0 IP, 1 R, 3 K).
- ◆ Picked up his first minor league win in relief on July 25 at Williamsport, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings.
- ◆ Allowed just 3 earned runs (4 total) over final 4 starts of the season (1.23 ERA).
- ◆ Allowed opponents just a .186 batting average as a reliever.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Jackson had a breakout season in his third full Major League season, establishing career-highs in nearly every offensive category and was the ninth-hardest player to strikeout in the league, fanning once every 10.03 plate appearances...was honored by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA with the D-backs' Good Guy Award in a 2008 season that saw him split time between first base and leftfield...the D-backs' first-round pick in 2003, Jackson was named National League Player of the Week twice in 2008.

- ◆ Established career-bests in nearly every offensive category including batting average (.300), games played (144), at-bats (540), runs (87), hits (162), doubles (31) and triples (6)...among National League hitters, tied for 11th in triples and ranked 14th in batting average...was the ninth-hardest player to strikeout in the league, fanning once every 10.03 plate appearances.
- ◆ Honored by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America with the D-backs' Good Guy Award...was also the D-backs nominee for the Hank Aaron Award, given annually to the overall offensive performer in each league.
- ◆ Started at first base in 53 of the team's first 65 games before making his first start of the season in leftfield on June 11 at New York Mets...went back-and-forth between making starts in leftfield and at first base (14 starts at first, 10 in left) during a 25-game span from June 11-July 8 before settling in as the starting leftfielder at Washington on July 9...started 64 of the final 72 games in leftfield after Eric Byrnes missed the remainder of the season because of injury.
- ◆ Among all NL outfielders who played more than 75 games in left, ranked seventh with a .981 fielding percentage after committing only 3 errors in 154 total chances...his 5 assists in only 77 games played in leftfield tied for seventh with Adam Dunn, who played in a total of 119 combined games in left with the D-backs and Reds.
- ◆ Committed only 4 errors in 567 total chances for a .993 fielding percentage in 68 games (65 starts) at first base, tying him with teammate Chad Tracy for seventh place among NL first basemen who played in more than 65 games.
- ◆ Earned National League Player of the Week honors twice; from April 14-20 after batting .480 (12-for-25) with 10 runs scored, 2 doubles, 2 triples, 3 home runs and 10 RBI and won the award again after hitting .542 (13-for-24) with 9 runs scored, 2 doubles, 1 triple, 3 home runs and 7 RBI in 6 games from July 21-27.
- ◆ Got off to a hot start by batting .331 (43-for-130) with 27 runs scored, 6 doubles, 4 triples, 5 home runs and 32 RBI in his first 37 games through May 14.
- ◆ Almost hit for the cycle on April 18 vs. San Diego and tied a career-best with 4 hits, 4 RBI and 3 runs scored...collected a triple, home run and a single prior to connecting on a smash to center field in the sixth inning that eluded the Padres' Jim Edmonds...instead of stopping at second for a double to complete the cycle, he raced to third base for his second triple of the game...one batter later he scored on Mark Reynolds' sacrifice fly...was also the fourth time in D-backs history a player collected 2 triples and first since Robby Hammock on June 8, 2003 vs. Cleveland.
- ◆ His 25 RBI in the first month of the season tied for second in D-backs history with Matt Williams (1999)...also tied for second with 24 runs scored in the first month, matching Steve Finley (2000).
- ◆ Homered in back-to-back games on April 14 and 15 at San Francisco and April 29 and 30 vs. Houston, marking the second and third time he homered in consecutive games (Sept. 5 and 8, 2007 vs. San Diego and St. Louis).
- ◆ Had his second career walk-off hit on July 3 vs. Milwaukee, driving in 2 runs with a single to cap the D-backs 6-run comeback victory in the ninth inning...also had a walk-off single in the 10th inning on July 28, 2007 vs. Atlanta.

- ◆ His season average peaked at .324 on July 27 after hitting .448 (26-for-58) during a 13-game stretch from July 10-27.
- ◆ Hit in a season-high 11 straight games from July 22-Aug. 2, batting .422 (19-for-45) with 5 doubles, a triple, 3 home runs and 8 RBI during that stretch...also collected multiple hits in a career-high 5 straight from July 22-27 during the hitting streak.
- ◆ Hit safely in 15 of his last 19 games of the season, batting .352 (25-for-71) with 5 multi-hit games to raise his average 6 points and finish with a .300 average.

- ◆ Was the D-backs' Opening Day first baseman for the second straight year.
- ◆ Hit a team-leading .308 after the All-Star break, collecting 15 doubles, 10 home runs and 34 RBI...his .555 slugging percentage and .371 on-base percentage ranked second on the team.
- ◆ Strung together a season-high 9-game hit streak from May 24-June 5, batting .417 (15-for-36) with 8 doubles, a home run and 9 RBI.
- ◆ Hit his second career pinch-hit home run on July 26 vs. Florida, a game-tying 2-run shot in the seventh inning.
- ◆ On July 28 vs. Atlanta, he lined a 10th-inning single to score Chris Young and cap the D-backs third consecutive walk-off victory.
- ◆ Hit home runs in back-to-back games for the first time in his career, connecting for a 2-run shot on Sept. 5 against San Diego and a 3-run shot on Sept. 8 against St. Louis.
- ◆ Was 2-for-4 with a home run, 3 RBI and his first career triple on June 7 vs. San Francisco.
- ◆ Put together a 7-game hit streak from July 25-Aug. 1, batting .385 (10-for-26) with 4 doubles, 1 home run and 6 RBI.
- ◆ Made his first career appearance at third base on Aug. 14 at Florida.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Hit .125 (1-for-8) with a RBI in 3 NLDS games vs. Chicago...batted .333 (3-for-9) with a run scored and RBI in 3 NLCS games against Colorado.

2006

- ◆ Hit .310 (26-for-84) during August and .341 (31-for-91) with 7 doubles, 3 home runs and 17 RBI in September.
- ◆ Had 38 multi-hit games, including 9 in September.
- ◆ Set a career-high with 4 RBI on April 25 at San Diego and again on Sept. 8 vs. St. Louis.
- ◆ Had a 13-game hitting streak from April 2-May 13, hitting .345 (19-for-55) with 11 RBI during that stretch.
- ◆ Hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer in the ninth on July 30 at Houston...the homer was his first hit as a pinch hitter, having gone 0-for-17 to begin his career.
- ◆ Hit .404 (19-for-47) over his last 12 starts.

- ◆ Had a banner year with Tucson (AAA) as he was selected the starting first baseman for the PCL at the AAA All-Star Game (2-for-2, run, RBI, walk) and the USA Team at the All-Star Futures Game (0-for-2) in Detroit.
- ◆ Chosen as the first baseman for the 2005 All-Pacific Coast League Team at the end of the season.
- ◆ Finished second in the PCL with a .457 on-base percentage and fourth with a .354 batting average.
- ◆ Named organizational Player of the Month for April after batting .385 (30-for-78).
- ◆ Reached base via a hit or walk in 86 of 93 games with Tucson, collecting at least 1 hit in 74 games.
- ◆ Had 35 multi-hit affairs and 15 multi-RBI games.
- ◆ Excelled with runners in scoring position, batting .398 (45-for-113) with 63 RBI.
- ◆ Contract purchased by D-backs on July 28 and Jackson made his Major League debut that day in Chicago, popping out as a pinch-hitter.
- ◆ Went 2-for-4 as the starting first baseman in his first big league start on July 30 at Wrigley Field, collecting his first hit with a second-inning single off of Rich Hill then propelling D-backs to a 3-2 win with a go-ahead, RBI double in the eighth.
- ◆ Clubbed his first career home run in his first career multi-homer affair on Aug. 6 against Colorado, taking Jeff Francis deep twice.
- ◆ Reached base safely via a hit or walk in 10 consecutive starts from Aug. 19-Sept. 15, batting .273 (9-for-33).

- ◆ Posted a composite .324 batting average with 87 runs, 157 hits, 32 doubles, 4 triples, 7 home runs, 91 RBI, 69 walks, a .406 on-base and .512 slugging percentages in 127 games...led D-backs' farmhands in hits, RBI and walks.
- ◆ Recognized by Baseball America as a midseason High Class A All-Star (Lancaster) and the California League's Best Batting Prospect.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

The former first-round pick (8th overall) joins the D-backs as their starting second baseman for 2009....his .385 batting average from Aug. 1 through the end of the 2008 season was second in the National League to only Manny Ramirez's .396 average...in 2005, was named to The Sporting News' All-Star team and won Louisville Slugger's Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive shortstop in the National League...was selected to the 2005 All-Star game.

2008

- ◆ Despite batting only .234 with 2 homers and 25 RBI in his first 100 games of the season with Washington, regrouped after signing with St. Louis on Aug. 6 and batted .385 with 8 doubles, 2 triples, 4 home runs and 21 RBI in 43 games with the Cardinals during the final 2 months of the season...overall, his .283 batting average and 28 doubles for the season were the second-best totals in those categories in his career.
- ◆ His .385 batting average from Aug. 1 through the end of the season was second in the National League to Manny Ramirez's .396 average.
- ◆ Played 6 different positions with the Nationals and Cardinals but saw most action at second base (101 games)...also played leftfield (16 games), shortstop (13 games), third base (13 games), first base (1 game) and rightfield (1 game).
- ◆ Among NL second basemen, his .283 batting average ranked fourth and his .343 on-base percentage ranked fifth.
- ◆ Hit his fourth career grand slam on April 24 vs. New York Mets, going 2-for-4 with a career-high-tying 6 RBI.
- ◆ Hit safely in 37 of his 43 games for St. Louis, including an 11-game hitting streak from Aug. 17-Sept. 3, batting .421 (16-for-38) with 7 runs scored and 4 multi-hit outings.
- ◆ Had a season-high 4 hits in the Cardinals' season finale on Sept. 28 vs. Cincinnati.

- ◆ Led Nationals with 24 stolen bases after batting .245 with 25 doubles, 6 triples, 9 home runs and 50 RBI in his first complete season in Washington.
- ◆ Began season as Washington's regular second baseman, but due to a series of injuries to Cristian Guzman and the emergence of Ronnie Belliard, made majority of starts at shortstop (104 at SS, 42 at 2B).
- ◆ His 2,693 pitches seen ranked 10th in the NL (18th in MLB) and his career-best 4.01 pitches per plate appearance ranked 11th in the league...was one of 32 qualified big leaguers to see at least 4.00 pitches per plate appearance.
- ◆ Hit safely in 9 of 10 games from April 14-25, batting .356 (16-for-45) with 6 multi-hit games over that stretch.
- ◆ Hit his third career grand slam on May 22 at Cincinnati, racking up a career-high-tying 6 RBI, going 3-for-5 with 2 doubles.
- ◆ Had a 9-game hitting streak from Aug. 27-Sept. 5, batting .333 (12-for-36) over that span.

- ◆ Turned in another solid offensive season after setting career bests in games played (156), at-bats (617), runs (98), hits (169), walks (81), on-base percentage (.358) and stolen bases (44) for Cincinnati and Washington...he ranked fifth in the National League in stolen bases.
- ◆ Was the integral part of an 8-player trade that sent him from Cincinnati to Washington on July 13.
- ◆ Led all MLB shortstops in walks and represented the fifth-highest single-season walk total posted by a shortstop since 2000...only Alex Rodriguez (100, 2000; 87, 2002; 85, 2003) and Omar Vizquel (87, 2000) posted more walks in a single season in the same 7-year span.

- ◆ Stole a career-high 4 bases on May 10 vs. Washington.
- ◆ Drove in the game-winning RBI for Washington on 3 occasions (July 23 vs. Chicago Cubs, Aug. 4 at San Diego and Sept. 22 at New York Mets).

- ◆ Earned his first All-Star selection and was named to The Sporting News' All-Star team, winning Louisville Slugger's Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive shortstop in the NL.
- ◆ Led all NL shortstops in home runs and RBI, and tied Milwaukee's Bill Hall for the lead in extra-base hits (62)...ranked second among NL shortstops in slugging percentage (.486; Hall .495) and total bases (282; Philadelphia's Jimmy Rollins 292).
- ◆ Led Cincinnati batters in at-bats, hits, triples, multi-hit games (48), 3-hit games (13) and infield hits (20)...ranked among NL leaders in grand slams (2, tied for second), batting average at night (.311, eighth) and batting vs. right-handed pitchers (.312, tied for ninth).
- ◆ Earned NL Player of the Week honors for week of Aug. 14-21, batting .400 (12-for-30) with 3 home runs and 7 RBI.
- ◆ Batted .365 with 19 RBI in final 26 contests to raise batting average from .277 to .291.
- ◆ Posted a career-high 6 RBI on June 11 vs. Baltimore with his second career grand slam.
- ◆ From May 18-June 1, strung together a career-high 14-game hitting streak, hitting .300 (18-for-60) with 4 home runs and 8 RBI.
- ◆ Hit first career lead-off homer in the nightcap of a July 2 doubleheader vs. Houston off Ezequiel Astacio.
- ◆ Tied career-high with 5 hits on Sept. 16 at Pittsburgh.

2004

- ◆ Led Louisville (AAA) in hits (56), HR (7) and RBI (34) upon being promoted to Cincinnati on June 1.
- ◆ Recalled a second time from the Bats on July 26.
- ◆ In 61 games during second stint in Cincinnati, hit .261 with 7 home runs and 26 RBI.
- ◆ Started 65 games for the Reds (41 at shortstop, 24 at third baseman).
- ◆ Hit .371 during a 10-game hitting streak from Aug. 4-15.

2003

- ◆ Hit .213 in 59 games for Cincinnati before being optioned to Louisville (AAA) on June 16.
- ◆ Had season-ending surgery on July 25 to repair a dislocated left ankle...sustained injury, July 24 at Rochester, via home-plate collision.
- ◆ Puerto Rican native hit first homer of 2003 on April 20 vs. Montreal at San Juan's Hiram Bithorn Stadium, a solo shot off Luis Ayala.

2002

- ◆ Began season with Toronto and hit .226 in 79 games (.303 in April).
- ◆ Optioned to Syracuse (AAA) on July 18 before returning to Toronto as a September callup.

- ◆ Combined to hit .270 with 17 stolen bases in 108 games for Syracuse (AAA) and Tennessee (AA).
- ◆ Went 4-for-5 with a double, run scored and RBI on June 18 vs. Louisville.
- ◆ Made big league debut Aug. 3 as Toronto's starting third baseman vs. Baltimore, going 2-for-5 with double and RBI...first hit was a RBI-double off Jose Mercedes.
- ◆ Hit his first career home run on Aug. 23 at Minnesota, a 2-run shot off Travis Miller.

- ◆ Named to Howe Sportsdata's All-Teen Team for Tennessee (AA).
- ◆ Rated the Toronto organization's second-best prospect by Baseball America.
- ◆ Had a season-high 4 hits on May 19 at Jacksonville, scoring 3 runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Despite being used in limited duty, Montero's 15 home runs from 2007-08 are tied for 11th among all National League catchers and tied for second among left-handed hitting backstops...he entered the 2007 season rated as the organization's fifth-best prospect and as the organization's best defensive catcher, according to Baseball America...led all rookies in 2007 with 3 pinch-hit home runs, 7 pinch-hit RBI and a pinch-hit average of .350 (7-for-20).

2008

- ◆ Appeared in 53 games at catcher, including 45 starts, in serving as the backup catcher for the second consecutive season.
- ◆ Began the season on the disabled list with a fractured right finger...saw action in 11 games for Tucson (AAA) during a rehab assignment prior to making season debut with the D-backs on April 23 at Los Angeles Dodgers.
- ◆ Tied a career-high by collecting 3 hits in a game on 3 occasions: April 30 vs. Houston, July 11 at Philadelphia and Aug. 16 at Houston.
- ◆ Hit game-winning sacrifice fly in 10th inning on June 12 at New York Mets.
- ◆ Hit safely in 7 of 8 games from July 28-Aug. 23, batting .481 (13-for-27) over that stretch with 9 runs scored, 4 doubles, 4 home runs and 8 RBI.
- ◆ Hit his first career grand slam off of Astros' pitcher Brandon Backe on Aug. 16 at Houston...also hit a solo homer to set a career-best with 5 RBI...marked his second career game with 2 homers, also accomplished on Sept. 5, 2007 vs. San Diego...Backe also gave up a grand slam to Chris Young, marking the first time 2 D-backs hit grand slams in the same game.
- ◆ Hit his first career triple on Aug. 27 at San Diego.

- ◆ Broke camp on the 25-man roster for the first time in his professional career.
- ◆ His 3 pinch-hit home runs tied for third place on the D-backs' all-time single season list with Tony Clark in 2005 and 2007, Greg Colbrunn in 2001 and Alex Cintron in 2005...it took 9 at-bats as a pinch-hitter to reach 3 home runs, the fastest of any player in D-backs history (16 at-bats for Tony Clark in 2007, 32 at-bats for Colbrunn in 2001, 44 at-bats for Clark in 2005 and 46 at-bats for Cintron in 2005).
- ◆ 8 of his 10 home runs were hit in the sixth inning or later (1 in the 10th, 3 in the eighth, 2 in the seventh and 2 in the sixth).
- ◆ Hit 2 home runs on Sept. 5 against San Diego, his first career multi-homer run game, going deep off Jake Peavy in the fourth inning and then blasted a solo shot off Brett Tomko in the seventh.

- ♦ Hit a home run every 21.40 at-bats (10 home runs in 230 at-bats), ranking fourth on the team (Tony Clark, 13.00, Micah Owings, 15.00, and Chris Young, 17.78).

- ♦ Was 7-for-20 with 1 double, 3 home runs 7 RBI and 5 runs scored as a pinch-hitter.

- ♦ Collected his first Major League hit on Sept. 25 at San Francisco in the fifth inning, ending the day 3-for-4 with a double and 2 RBI.
- ♦ Had a .976 fielding percentage with the Sidewinders and threw out 4 of 13 stolen base attempts.
- ♦ Named the farm system's Player of the Month for April after batting .297 (22-for-74) with 5 home runs and 20 RBI.

- ♦ Began the year with Lancaster (A) and scorched California League pitchers for a circuit-best .349 average with 24 home runs and 82 RBI in 85 games.
- ♦ Ranked third in the league with a .625 slugging percentage.
- ♦ Was the Cal League starting catcher in the mid-season matchup against Carolina League stars.
- ♦ Was selected as the farm system's Player of the Month for May after batting .392 with 8 homers and 32 RBI.
- ♦ Put together a 19-game hit streak from May 4-23, during which he hit .425 (34-for-80) with 3 home runs and 19 RBI.
- ♦ Homered twice in a game on 5 occasions (May 11 vs. Inland Empire, May 27 vs. Rancho Cucamonga, June 5 at Rancho Cucamonga, June 16 vs. Bakersfield and June 21 at San Jose).
- ♦ Played for the World Team at the Futures Game on July 10 in Detroit, going 0-for-1 with a pair of walks as the starting catcher.
- ♦ The next day in his first AA contest, went 3-for-3 with a homer and 2 RBI.
- ♦ After the season, played briefly for the Phoenix Desert Dogs in the Arizona Fall League and batted .421 with 2 homers and 9 RBI in 6 games.
- ♦ He then returned to his native Venezuela and suited up for Occidente in the Venezuelan Winter League, appearing in 49 games and hit .284 with 10 doubles, 6 homers and 22 RBI.

2004

- ♦ His 11 home runs tied for second on South Bend (A) and his 59 RBI ranked third.
- ♦ Played winter ball for Occidente in the Venezuelan League.

- ♦ Spent his second straight year with Missoula (Rookie) and ranked second among Pioneer League backstops with a .984 fielding percentage.
- ♦ After the season, he had a brief stint with Occidente in the Venezuelan Winter League.

- ♦ He evenly split the catching duties with Phil Avlas and appeared in 40 games during first year with Missoula.
- ♦ Homered in each of his first 2 games, then went homerless until going deep in the season finale.

PERSONAL

- ♦ Miguel Angel Montero Fernandez.
- ♦ Married to Vanessa.
- ♦ Attended Nuestra Senora la Esperanza High School in Caracas, Venezuela.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Pena has recorded 55 career holds for the D-backs, second only to Brandon Lyon's 62 in team history...his 53 holds over the past 2 seasons ranks third in the Majors...prior to the 2007 season, he was tabbed as the organization's ninth-best prospect, bolstering the best fastball, according to Baseball America.

2008

- ◆ His 23 holds led the team and tied for fourth in the National League...has recorded 55 career holds with the D-backs, second only to Brandon Lyon's 62 in team history...recorded 5 consecutive holds for the second time in his career from April 21-30...also accomplished the feat May 20-June 3, 2007.
- ◆ Among NL relievers with 60.0 more innings pitched, his 17 walks were the seventh fewest and his 2 stolen bases allowed tied for the 10th fewest.
- ◆ From May 2-June 30, went 1-1 with a save and 8 holds while recording a 2.10 ERA (6 ER in 25.2 IP) over 25 games, holding opponents to a .213 average (20-for-94).
- ◆ Earned his first save of the season on May 16 vs. Detroit...converted 3 of 8 save opportunities to give him 6 saves in 14 chances during his career.
- ◆ Strung together an 11.0-inning scoreless streak from Aug. 13-Sept. 7 while recording a save and 4 holds with 3 walks and 13 strikeouts over 11 games...during that stretch, held hitters hitless and allowed only a walk during a 17-at-bat span in 6 games from Aug. 13-23.

- ◆ Broke camp with the Major League club for the first time in his career.
- ◆ Pitched 12.0 scoreless innings of relief from June 5-28, the longest streak of the season by a D-backs reliever.
- ◆ Was 1-0 with a 0.57 ERA (1 ER in 15.2 IP) during 14 games in June.
- ◆ Held right-handed batters to a .176 average...overall, he held opponents to a .207 average, ranking 16th in the National League.
- ◆ Picked up his first Major League hit on May 25 against Houston, a RBI single to right field.
- ◆ Inherited a team-high 38 base runners, allowing 10 of them to score.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Tossed 2.0 innings in 2 games of the NLDS vs. Chicago, allowing 2 hits...saw action in 3 games in the NLCS against Colorado, tossing 3.1 innings, allowing 1 hit and striking out 7

- ◆ While with Arizona, limited right-handed batters to a team-low .179 average (10-for-56) while lefties batted .382 off him (26-for-68).
- ◆ Combined minor league totals were 5-1 with 13 saves and a 1.35 ERA (7 ER in 46.2 IP) over 41 appearances while limiting foes to a .205 average (35-for-171) with 38 strikeouts, 7 walks and 1 home run.
- ◆ Called up from Tucson (AAA) on July 18 and made his Major League debut that evening vs. the Dodgers, allowing a run on 2 hits over 1.2 innings.
- ◆ Earned victories in 3 straight outings from July 25-30, joining Brandon Webb (4 wins in 4 starts from June 28-July 13, 2003) as the only rookie pitchers in team history to win as many as 3 consecutive appearances...first 2 of those wins were 2.0 innings in length and came in extra innings, 6-5 in 11 innings at Philadelphia on July 25 and 8-7 in 11 innings at Houston on July 28.
- ◆ Recorded his first big league save on Aug. 19 in San Diego.

- Was stellar in July, going 4-1 with a 3.27 ERA, including 4 straight wins from July 8-27...included was a complete game shutout on July 21 at West Tennessee, allowing only 2 hits while fanning 5.
- Recorded a season-high 7 strikeouts on May 16 and again on July 16.
- Hit a solo home run on July 27 at Jacksonville.

- Worked 8.0 innings in a 15-2 triumph at Arkansas on May 12, which would be his final start of the year as an investigation of birth records revealed that he was playing under the identity of his nephew, Adriano Rosario...according to the documents, he was more than 3 years older than previously assumed.
- During the investigation, he returned to his homeland where he worked out at the organization's facility in Boca Chica and appeared in 3 games, going 1-0 with a 0.64 ERA with 17 strikeouts and no walks in 14.0 frames.

- Enjoyed a solid season in South Bend (A) as his 2.86 ERA ranked 14th in the Midwest League.
- Selected but did not pitch in the Midwest League All-Star Game on June 17.

- With Boca Chica, he ranked second in starts (10), innings pitched (57.0), strikeouts (57), and complete games (1) while posting a 2.05 ERA, good for third among pitchers with at least 10 appearances.
- Finished fifth on the team with a .193 opponents average (41-for-212) and fanned 57 batters while walking only 7.

PERSONAL

- Ramon Antonio (Tony) Peña.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

The versatile Petit has been effective as a spot starter for the D-backs for the past 2 seasons by compiling a 5-8 record and 4.68 ERA in 18 starts...he was tabbed by Baseball America as the New York Mets' second-best prospect prior to the 2005 season...in 2004, he received the Sterling Organizational Pitcher of the Year Award as the top pitcher in the Mets organization.

2008

- ◆ Filled in effectively as a spot starter in the D-backs rotation again and went 3-5 with a 4.31 ERA in 19 games (8 starts).
- ◆ Started the season in the Major Leagues for the first time in his career and posted a 0-1 mark with a 4.70 ERA (4 ER in 7.2 IP) in 6 relief appearances before being optioned to Tucson (AAA) on April 27.
- ◆ Made 11 starts for the Sidewinders, going 3-3 with a 4.80 ERA (32 ER in 60.0 IP) while carrying an 8.38 strikeout/walk ratio (67 strikeouts, 8 walks)...had his best outing for Tucson on June 18 at Portland, allowing a run on 6 hits with 2 walks and 10 strikeouts over 7.0 innings.
- ◆ Recalled on June 27 and remained in the Majors for the remainder of the season...made his first start of the season for the D-backs on July 2 and earned a no-decision in a 4-3 loss vs. Milwaukee after allowing only 1 run on 2 hits with 4 strikeouts in 6.0 innings.
- ◆ Earned his first win of the season on July 22 vs. Chicago Cubs after allowing 1 run on 3 hits in 5.0 innings despite walking a season-high 4 batters.
- ◆ Made a relief appearance on July 28 at San Diego and then was inserted into the starting rotation for 6 games from Aug. 2-Sept. 8 after Micah Owings was optioned to Tucson...was 2-4 with a 5.34 ERA (18 ER in 30.1 IP) in the 6 starts.
- ◆ Won back-to-back starts for the first time in his career after allowing 2 runs on 4 hits in a career-high-tying 7.0 innings at Houston on Aug. 16 and gave up a run on 2 hits in 6.0 innings on Aug. 23 vs. Florida.
- ◆ Made 2 appearances out of the bullpen after Max Scherzer took his spot in the starting rotation on Sept. 14.
- ◆ Went 3-4 with a 4.35 ERA (20 ER in 41.1 IP) with 12 walks and 30 strikeouts in 8 games as a starting pitcher.
- ◆ Held opposing batters to a .216 average (45-for-208) for the season, including a .213 average (32-for-150) as a starter.

- ◆ Recalled on April 22 and made his D-backs debut that night at San Francisco, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings in the loss.
- ◆ Earned wins in 5 of his next 6 starts, going 5-0 with a 2.21 ERA (9 ER in 36.2 IP).
- ◆ Recalled from Tucson on Aug. 19...made the start that evening at Atlanta and allowed 6 earned runs in 3.2 innings.
- ◆ Appeared in 4 games as a reliever for the D-backs, going 1-0 with a 1.50 ERA (1 ER in 6.0 IP).
- ◆ Took a no-decision on Sept. 30 despite allowing 4 hits while striking out 4 in 5.0 scoreless innings.

2006

- ◆ Made his Major League debut on May 14 at Pittsburgh, recording 2 strikeouts in 1.0 inning of work.
- ◆ Held Atlanta scoreless over 3.0 innings during his second appearance on May 17 at Turner Field.
- ◆ Notched his first Major League hit and RBI on July 5 at Washington.

- ◆ Named to the Eastern League's midseason All-Star team for Binghamton (AA).
- ◆ Finished second in EL in ERA.
- ◆ Was 4-0 with a 2.43 ERA in 11 home starts, tossing 59.1 innings, striking out 69.
- ◆ Struck out 10 in 7.0 innings in a victory over New Hampshire on July 6.
- ◆ In 8 games in July and Aug. at Binghamton, he was 7-1 with a 2.79 ERA, tossing 58.0 innings, allowing 18 earned runs off 37 hits with 65 strikeouts.
- ◆ Earned win in playoff start against Toledo, allowing 3 earned runs on 6 hits over 8.0 innings, recording 14 strikeouts.
- ◆ Pitched for the Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League, going 5-1 with 1 save and a 2.01 ERA in 9 games (8 starts).

2004

- ◆ Finished second among all minor league pitchers with 200 strikeouts and first in strikeouts per inning (12.92).
- ◆ Received the Sterling Organizational Pitcher of the Year Award as top pitcher in the Mets organization.
- ◆ Selected to the South Atlantic League midseason All-Star game.
- ◆ Was first in the SAL in wins and strikeouts before he was promoted to St. Lucie of the Florida State League on July 26.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Entering the 2009 season, Rauch leads all Major League relievers with 247 appearances since 2006...he also ranks seventh among National League relievers with a 3.70 strikeout-to-walk ratio from 2007-08...at 6-foot-11, Rauch is the tallest pitcher in Major League history...was a member of the Team USA club that won the gold medal at the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games...named Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America and The Sporting News in 2000.

- ◆ Went 4-8 with a 4.14 ERA and a career-best 18 saves in 74 games with the D-backs and Washington Nationals...posted an 0-6 record with a 6.56 ERA and a save in 26 games for the D-backs after he was acquired on July 22 in a trade from the Nationals, where he was 4-2 with a 2.98 ERA and 17 saves in 48 games as the team's closer.
- ◆ Among NL relievers with 60.0 more innings pitched, finished tied for sixth-fewest walks allowed (16), ninth with a 4.13 strikeout-to-walk ratio and tied for 10th in appearances.
- ◆ Posted a 1.93 ERA (2 ER in 9.1 IP) and had 5 holds in his first 10 relief outings with the D-backs from July 22-Aug. 12...after that, he allowed runs in 11 of his 16 appearances to end the season and compiled an 0-6 record with a 9.64 ERA (15 ER in 14.0 IP) and a save.
- ◆ With the Nationals, blew 2 of his first 4 save opportunities before settling in as the closer and converting 10 straight save opportunities from April 18-May 30.
- ◆ Strung together a 12.0-inning scoreless streak from April 25-May 18, going 1-0 with 7 saves, 10 strikeouts and only 1 walk in 12 games.
- ◆ Allowed a home run in 3 consecutive outings from Aug. 20-25, the second time in his career he has accomplished the feat (Aug. 13-18, 2006).
- ◆ Allowed only 4 of the 14 runners (29%) he inherited to score.

- ◆ Led the Majors with 88 appearances for Washington...8 relief wins led the Nationals and tied St. Louis' Russ Springer and the Yankees' Luis Vizcaino for the big league-lead...33 holds tied for third in the Majors.
- ◆ Walked just 21 batters in his 87.1 innings for an average of 2.2 walks per 9 innings...didn't walk a batter until his 13th appearance of the season.
- ◆ Tossed team bullpen season-best 12.1 consecutive scoreless innings from June 9-29.
- ◆ Was 6-1 with 2 saves and a 1.93 ERA (7 ER in 32.2 IP) when pitching on zero days' rest...worked 3 days in a row 8 times, registering a 0.78 ERA (2 ER in 23.0 IP) in those 24 appearances.
- ◆ In 11 interleague appearances, posted a .100 batting average against (4-for-40) en route to a 0.73 ERA (1 ER in 12.1 IP).
- ◆ Limited first batters faced to a .183 average (15-for-82).
- ◆ Closed strong, posting 12 holds from Aug. 22-Sept. 3 with a .149 batting average against and a 1.37 ERA in final 20 appearances.
- ◆ Struck out the side to record his 25th hold and break the franchise's all-time single-season mark held by Gary Majewski (24 in 2005) on Sept. 5 at Florida.

- ◆ Led the Nationals with 18 holds after never having recorded a hold prior to the 2006 season.
- ◆ Ranked among MLB and NL leaders with 85 games (tied for second in both MLB and NL) and 91.1 innings (tied for third in MLB, tied for second in NL)...86 strikeouts ranked sixth among NL relievers...tied the Yankees' Scott Proctor for the Major League-lead among relievers having thrown 1594 pitches.

- ◆ Picked up first 2 saves of big league career (Sept. 3 vs. Arizona and Sept. 28 vs. Philadelphia)...needed just 8 pitches to record perfect 1-2-3 ninth inning and first career save vs. Arizona on Sept. 3.
- ◆ Successfully retired 56 of 83 first batters faced (67%).
- ◆ Closed strong, posting a 0.96 ERA (1 ER/9.1 IP) in final 9 appearances of 2006.

- ◆ Began the season in the minors and was recalled from New Orleans (AAA) on April 25...made his season debut that night with 2.0 scoreless innings vs. Philadelphia.
- ◆ Pitched on May 25 at Cincinnati, but was placed on the DL that night with a torn right labrum...had arthroscopic surgery performed by Dr. Wiemi Douguilh on May 31 to repair labrum tear (labrum/rotator cuff debridement) in right shoulder...began throwing 6 weeks later...returned to action on Sept. 8 at Florida after missing 102 games.
- ◆ Made first big league start of the season on Sept. 28 at Florida, working 3.0 scoreless innings and tallying the game-winning RBI in the victory, despite not learning of assignment until 4:10 p.m.

2004

- ◆ Began season with Charlotte (AAA) and made 2 starts for the White Sox before being acquired by the Expos in 3-player deal.
- ◆ Recalled by the Expos on Aug. 6.
- ◆ Earned the win in his Expos debut on, Aug. 7 at Houston.
- ◆ Pitched just twice for the Expos before missing 29 games with a strained left oblique...placed on the 15-day DL on Aug. 15 (retroactive to Aug. 14)...reinstated from DL on September 14.
- ◆ Allowed only 1 homer in 32.0 big league innings (Jeff Conine, Sept. 28 vs. Florida).
- ◆ Worked 4.2 no-hit, shutout innings and collected his first big league hit, a 2-run opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens on Aug. 13 vs. Houston making him the tallest man to ever hit a home run in a Major League game...left the game early, however, and was placed on the 15-day DL 2 days later, due to a left oblique strain...not only had a no-hitter intact at the time of his exit, finished 1 out shy of recording the win in first start at Olympic Stadium.
- ◆ Fanned a season-high 9 in 7.0 shutout innings for Charlotte (AAA) on June 9 at Buffalo.

- ◆ Averaged 6.8 strikeouts per 9.0 innings for Charlotte (AAA).
- ◆ Was on the DL from June 30-July 17 with right shoulder inflammation.
- ◆ Threw only complete game in nightcap of Aug. 15 twinbill at Indianapolis.
- ◆ Tabbed by Baseball America as the fifth-best prospect in the White Sox organization entering the 2003 season.

2002

- ◆ Made his first Opening Day roster for the White Sox.
- ◆ Tossed 1.1 scoreless innings in Major League debut on April 2 at Seattle, retiring all 4 batters he faced.
- ◆ Made first career start on April 16 vs. Cleveland lasting only 4.0 innings, allowing 3 runs, not factoring in the decision.
- ◆ Went 2-0 with a 3.21 ERA in September with the Sox after being recalled on Sept. 2.
- ◆ Earned his first career win, in relief, on Sept. 3 at Toronto.

2001

- ◆ Ranked fourth among International League starters in opponents average (.226) and fifth in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (8.0).
- ◆ Rated by Baseball America as the second-best prospect in the White Sox organization.
- ◆ Underwent season-ending shoulder surgery, May 24...the procedure was performed by Dr. James Andrews...surgery involved repairing a Type 2 achromium, a rotator cuff debridement and a labral repair...began rehab on May 28 in Tucson.

- ◆ Named Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America and The Sporting News after going 16-4 with a 2.66 ERA and 187 strikeouts for Winston-Salem (A) and Birmingham (AA)...became the second White Sox player (Frank Thomas, 1990) and first Sox pitcher to earn the award.
- ◆ Ranked by Baseball America as the best prospect in the organization and the Best Pitching Prospect in the Carolina League...was tabbed a First-Team Minor League All-Star by the same publication.
- ◆ Was leading the Carolina League in strikeouts (124) and wins (11) at time of his promotion to Birmingham...selected to the Carolina League mid-season All-Star Team.
- ◆ Won 10 straight decisions from April 16-June 16, posting a 1.98 ERA.
- ◆ Promoted to Birmingham on July 21.
- ◆ Recorded a career-high 14 strikeouts in a 2-hit, complete-game victory on Aug. 29 vs. Huntsville.

1999

- ◆ Averaged 10.4 strikeouts and just 2.5 walks per 9 innings pitched.
- ◆ Struck out 7 batters in only start at Winston-Salem.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Jon Erich Rauch.
- ◆ Married to Erica with daughters, Aubree and Haylee.
- ◆ Attended Morehead (Ky.) State where he was a preseason third-team All-America selection by Baseball America...led team with 6 complete games and 103 strikeouts in 88.0 innings in 1999.
- ◆ Graduated from Oldham County (Ky.) High, where he played baseball and basketball...earned all-region and all-district honors in baseball as a senior...earned first-team all-state academic honors all 4 years.
- ◆ At 6-foot-11, is the tallest pitcher in Major League history, trumping former D-backs pitcher Randy Johnson (6-10)...both Rauch and Johnson wore No. 51 with the Expos.
- ◆ Was a member of Team USA club that claimed the gold medal at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney...during Olympic tournament, went 1-0 with a 0.82 ERA (1 ER in 11.0 IP) with 21 strikeouts in 2 appearances (1 start)...his 21 strikeouts was 1 shy of the Olympic record (Ben Wallace, 22 in 1992)...threw a complete-game, 3-hitter with no walks and 13 strikeouts in a victory vs. South Africa on Sept. 18...allowed 1 run on 3 hits in 4.0 innings in loss on Sept. 23 vs. Cuba, striking out 8.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Reynolds collected a team-high 28 home runs and 97 RBI in his first full season in the Major Leagues in 2008 to become the 36th player in MLB history to hit at least 25 homers and drive in 95 runs during their rookie or sophomore season at the age of 24 and younger...along with 87 runs scored in 2008, he became only the 21st National League third baseman to collect at least 25 homers, 95 RBI and 85 runs in a season.

- ♦ Collected a team-high 28 home runs and 97 RBI in his first full season in the big leagues...among National League third basemen, ranked fourth in runs (87) and home runs and fifth in RBI.
- ♦ Became the 36th player in Major League history to hit at least 25 home runs and drive in 95 runs during their rookie or sophomore season at the age of 24 and younger...current players to also accomplish the feat include Ryan Braun (2007-08), Miguel Cabrera (2004), Jorge Cantu (2005), Jeff Francoeur (2006), Nomar Garciaparra (1997), Todd Helton (1998), Albert Pujols (2001-02), Mark Teixeira (2004), Frank Thomas (1991) and David Wright (2005).
- ♦ His 28 homers, 97 RBI and 87 runs scored marked only the 21st time in Major League history that a NL third baseman collected at least 25 home runs, 95 RBI and 85 runs scored in a season at age 24 or younger.
- ♦ Set a Major League record with 204 strikeouts...also led the Majors with 35 errors to become the first player since Minnesota's Zoilo Versalles in 1965 to lead his league in errors and strikeouts...among National League third basemen, ranked fourth in runs (87) and home runs and fifth in RBI.
- ♦ Got off to a fast start in the first 8 games of the season by batting .344 (11-for-32) with 5 home runs and 12 RBI...according to Elias Sports Bureau, became one of 9 players in Major League history to hit 5 homers by the eighth game of the season during the player's rookie or sophomore year...Florida's Miguel Cabrera was the last to accomplish the feat in 2004 and others include Carlton Fisk, Orlando Cepeda and Eddie Mathews.
- ♦ His 24 RBI in the first month of the season ranked fourth in D-backs history.
- ♦ Reached base safely in a season-high 12 consecutive games from April 11-23.
- ♦ After batting only .182 with 2 doubles during a career-high 79 at-bat homerless streak from April 26-May 21, posted a .333 average (21-for-63) with 8 homers, 4 doubles and 15 RBI in an 18-game stretch from May 23-June 11.
- ♦ Hit a career-best 2 home runs in a game on 3 occasions; April 7 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers, May 31 vs. Washington and June 8 at Pittsburgh.
- ♦ Batted .296 (8-for-27) with 6 runs, 4 doubles and 5 RBI during a career-best-tying 7-game hitting from Aug. 9-16.

- ♦ Had his contract purchased from Mobile (AA) on May 16 and made his Major League debut that night at Colorado...went 2-for-3 with a 2-run double and a walk.
- ♦ Had 3 hits on May 19 at Pittsburgh, including a solo shot off Tom Gorzelanny for his first Major League home run.
- ♦ Had a career game on May 25 against Houston, going 5-for-5 with 4 RBI, 4 runs scored, a triple, and 2 home runs, including a 447-foot shot off Dave Borkowski in the sixth inning...5 hits tied the franchise record.
- ♦ Led the team with a .342 average (26-for-76) and 18 RBI in August.
- ♦ Was 3-for-5 with a double, home run and 5 RBI on Aug. 30 at San Diego...hit a 451 foot home run off Chris Young, the longest home run to leftfield in PETCO Park history.
- ♦ Led the team with a .426 average (23-for-54) in May, adding 5 doubles, 2 triples, 4 home runs and 15 RBI.

- ♦ Had 5 consecutive multi-hit games from Sept. 17-22, batting .524 (11-for-21) with 2 doubles, 3 home runs and 8 RBI over that stretch...also collected at least 1 RBI in each of those games.
- ♦ Batted .465 (20-for-43) from Aug. 4-17, picking up a hit in 9 of 11 games, including 8 multi-hit games, and 3 consecutive 3-hit games (Aug. 12, 14 and 15) with a triple, 3 homers and 13 RBI.
- ♦ With a strikeout in the fourth inning on Aug. 21 against Milwaukee, he tied the all-time record for strikeouts in consecutive plate appearances by a non-pitcher with 9...it had been done 5 previous times.

- ♦ Had an outstanding season between Lancaster (A) and Tennessee (A/A), batting .318 (123-for-387) with 25 doubles, 2 triples, 31 home runs and 98 RBI in 106 combined games.
- ♦ Following the season, selected as a California League postseason All-Star and Baseball America High Class A All-Star.
- ♦ Led D-backs farmhands with 31 roundtrippers and a .633 slugging percentage...among all minor leaguers, ranked fifth in homers and second in slugging percentage...his 23 homers for the JetHawks ranked third in the California League...ranked second in RBI and sixth in average in the D-backs' farm system.
- ♦ Saw action at first base, second base, third base, shortstop, leftfield and as a designated hitter.
- ♦ Batted .326 (15-for-46) with 5 homers and 11 RBI during a 12-game hit streak from May 19-June 1.
- ♦ Fashioned career-best 18-game hit streak from June 10-July 4 during which he hit .397 (27-for-68) with 5 doubles, 7 homers and 27 RBI.
- ♦ Honored as the Topps California League Player of the Month for June after hitting safely in 21-of-23 games at a .356 clip (32-for-90) with 6 doubles, 8 home runs and 30 RBI.
- ♦ Placed on temporarily inactive list on Aug. 16 to play for Team USA in the 2006 Americas Olympic Qualifying Event.
- ♦ Helped Team USA win the gold medal and a berth in the 2008 Olympics by hitting safely in 5 of 6 games (5 starts) at a .320 clip (8-for-25) with a team-leading 4 homers, 8 RBI and an .800 slugging percentage.
- ♦ Hit a 2-run homer in his first at-bat of the tournament on Aug. 28 in a 15-3 rout of Mexico.
- ♦ Had 2 home runs and 4 RBI in a 5-2 win over Puerto Rico on Aug. 29.
- ♦ Hit his team-best fourth homer in a 12-2 victory over the Dominican Republic on Sept. 1.
- ♦ Played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League and named to the AFL All-Prospect Team as the designated hitter after ranking second with 26 RBI, third with 57 total bases, tied for fourth with 5 home runs, fifth with a .564 slugging percentage, tied for seventh with 33 hits, tied for eighth with 27 games and 7 doubles and tenth with a .327 batting average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Scherzer made a memorable Major League debut vs. Houston on April 29, 2008, striking out 7 in 4.1 innings of hitless relief to set a D-backs' record for most strikeouts by a pitcher in his debut...it was also the longest debut in modern Major League history by a pitcher who retired every batter he faced...he was awarded the D-backs' Rookie of the Year Award by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA for 2008...the D-backs' top draft choice in 2006 entered the 2008 season as the D-backs' fourth-best prospect according to Baseball America, also earning Best Fastball in the organization honors by the same publication.

- ♦ Went winless with an 0-4 record despite compiling a 3.05 ERA in 16 games, including 7 starts, during his rookie Major League campaign...honored by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as the D-backs' Rookie of the Year.
- ♦ Went 0-4 with a 3.41 ERA (14 ER in 37.0 IP) with 14 walks and 48 strikeouts in his 7 starts...Arizona's offense produced just 2.43 runs in his starts (10 runs over 37.0 IP), the lowest among D-backs starters...had a 2.37 ERA (5 ER in 19.0 IP) and held opposing batters to a .172 average (11-for-64) with 18 strikeouts and 7 walks in 9 relief appearances.
- ♦ Opened the season with Tucson (AAA) and did not allow an earned run in his first 3 starts for the Sidewinders...posted a 1.17 ERA (3 ER in 23.0 IP) with 38 strikeouts and only 3 walks in his first 4 starts.
- ♦ Recalled on April 27 and made his Major League debut on April 29 vs. Houston, striking out 7 in 4.1 innings of hitless relief to set a D-backs' record for most strikeouts by a pitcher in his debut...it was the longest debut outing in modern Major League history (dating back to 1900) by a pitcher who retired every batter he faced...his 7 strikeouts fell 1 short of the modern record by a relief pitcher making his MLB debut (Barry Jones struck out 8 on April 20, 1986 with Pittsburgh at Wrigley Field)...the 7 strikeouts were the most for a pitcher making his big league debut for the D-backs, eclipsing the 6 that Micah Owings fanned on April 6, 2007 in a starting role at Washington.
- ♦ Moved into the starting rotation and suffered the loss vs. Philadelphia on May 5 in his first career start after allowing 5 runs on 8 hits over 4.0 innings.
- ♦ Posted a 3.86 ERA (5 ER in 11.2 IP) in 6 relief appearances from May 23-June 11 before he was optioned back to Tucson on June 13... made an appearance for the Sidewinders before landing on the disabled list with right shoulder inflammation from June 20-July 19.
- ♦ Earned his first win for Tucson on Aug. 11 vs. Tacoma...overall, was 1-1 with a 2.72 ERA (16 ER in 53.0 IP) with 22 walks and 79 strikeouts in 13 games (10 starts) for the Sidewinders...held opposing batters to a .182 average (35-for-192).
- ♦ Recalled on Aug. 29 and threw 3.0 scoreless innings in 2 relief outings before being inserted back into the starting rotation for the remainder of the season.
- ♦ Struck out a career-high 11 batters on Sept. 7 at Los Angeles Dodgers, tying him with the Dodgers' Hiroki Kuroda, Washington's John Lannan and Toronto's David Purcey for the most strikeouts by a rookie in 2008...it also tied him with Brandon Webb for most single game strikeouts by a D-backs rookie in franchise history (Aug. 19, 2003 vs. Cincinnati and Aug. 31, 2003 vs. San Francisco).
- ♦ With the D-backs, held opposing batters to a .234 average (48-for-205) and opposing right-handed hitters to a .167 mark (19-for-114)...did not allow any of his 5 inherited runners to score.
- ♦ Went 1-0 with a 3.38 ERA (9 ER in 24.0 IP) in 4 games for Phoenix in the Arizona Fall League, walking 5 and striking out 24.

- ◆ Made his professional debut on June 7 with Visalia (A), allowing a run and 2 hits with 8 strikeouts over 5.0 innings in the start against Bakersfield.
- ◆ Won back-to-back starts on June 12 and 17, combining for 12.0 shutout innings with 22 strikeouts.
- ◆ Struck out a season-high 13 on June 12 in the win at San Jose, tossing 7.0 hitless innings.
- ◆ Promoted to Mobile (AA) on June 22 and made his debut for the BayBears that evening, allowing 3 earned runs off 5 hits over 5.0 innings in the loss to Montgomery.
- ◆ Hit .357 (5-for-14) with 2 doubles and a RBI for Mobile.
- ◆ Struck out 10.5 batters per 9-innings between Visalia and Mobile (106 K in 90.2 IP).
- ◆ Started 3 games for Fort Worth in the Independent League from May 12-23 before signing with the D-backs on May 30.
- ◆ Appeared in 8 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, going 1-1 with a 2.13 ERA (3 ER in 12.2 IP) with 18 strikeouts.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Maxwell M. Scherzer.
- ◆ Attended Parkway Central High School in Chesterfield, Mo., where he went 11-8 with a 2.32 ERA as a senior in 2002.
- ◆ Named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year in 2005 for Missouri...also named Baseball America All-America Second Team, Collegiate Baseball All-America and Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week (April 5, 2005).
- ◆ Pitched in 4 games for the USA Baseball National team during the summer of 2005, going 2-1 with a 2.70 ERA.
- ◆ Led Missouri to Super Regional in 2006, going 7-3 with a 2.25 ERA (20 ER in 80.0 IP) after being named to the Baseball America Preseason All-America First Team.
- ◆ Originally drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2003 First Year Player Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Snyder has led the National League in fielding percentage for the past two seasons, making only 1 error in 1,629 total chances for a .999 fielding percentage...enters the 2009 season having appeared in 420 games behind the plate during his D-backs career, second to only Damian Miller's 450 games in club history...he set career-highs in most offensive categories in 2008, while his 16 home runs tied for fourth-most among National League catchers and set a new single-season high for catchers in D-backs history...has started behind the plate in 111 of Brandon Webb's 197 career starts, including 69 of his last 73 with Webb posting a record of 41-18.

- ◆ Set career highs in most offensive categories, including games played (115), at-bats (334), runs (47), doubles (22), triples (1), home runs (16), RBI (64), walks (56) and strikeouts (101).
- ◆ His 16 homers tied for fourth-most among National League catchers and set a new single-season high for catchers in D-backs history, surpassing Kelly Stinnett's 14 homers in 1999...his 56 walks surpassed his own franchise-record for catchers, set in 2005 and 2007.
- ◆ Got off to a slow start after batting only .206 (13-for-63) in his first 22 games...then went on a stretch and batted .351 (20-for-57) with 3 home runs, 6 doubles, a triple and 13 RBI in 19 games from May 3-26 to see his season-average peak at .275...stretch also included a career-best 9-game hitting streak from May 3-15 (.438, 14-for-32).
- ◆ Spent time on the disabled list for the first time in his career from July 1-20 with a left testicular contusion after being struck by a foul ball off the bat of the Brewers' Corey Hart on June 30 vs. Milwaukee...collected hits in 17 of his 24 starts after being reinstated from the disabled list (.264, 19-for-72, 6 homers).
- ◆ Had a season-high 3 hits on 2 occasions (April 13 vs. Colorado and Sept. 9 at San Francisco)...also had season-best 4 RBI on Aug. 15 at Houston...tied a career-high with 3 walks on Aug. 4 vs. Pittsburgh.
- ◆ Homered in back-to-back games Aug. 14 at Colorado and Aug. 15 at Houston...was third time in his career that he accomplished the feat and first since June 15 & 17, 2007 at Baltimore.
- ◆ Led all NL catchers with a 1.000 fielding percentage, not committing an error in 847 total chances...has led the NL in fielding percentage the past 2 seasons (1 error in 1,629 total chances, .999 %)...also threw out 22 of 71 runners (31%) attempting to steal and has now thrown out 91 of 272 runners (34%) in his career.

- ◆ Hit home runs in back-to-back games for the first time in his career with blasts on June 15 and 17 at Baltimore.
- ◆ Collected a RBI in 6 straight games from Aug. 1-9, with 10 total RBI over that stretch...career-high 4 RBI on Aug. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, going 2-for-3 with a double and a home run.
- ◆ Committed an error Aug. 20 vs. Milwaukee, his first error since Sept. 5, 2006 at Florida, a span of 92 games.
- ◆ Strung together a career high 8-game hit streak from Sept. 11-22, batting .478 (11-for-23) with 3 doubles, 2 home runs and 10 RBI over that stretch...also had a 7-game hit streak from Aug. 18-28.
- ◆ Was batting .206 on June 14, going on to hit .310 (40-for-129) from June 15-Aug. 28 and raise his average to .258.
- ◆ After the All-Star break, he hit .292 with 16 doubles, 6 home runs and 31 RBI, the highest second-half totals of his career.

- ◆ Threw out 18 of 60 baserunners (30%).
- ◆ Staff posted a 3.73 ERA (369 ER in 891.1 IP) when he was behind the plate, the fourth-lowest catcher ERA in the Majors...the team was 65-41 when he was behind the plate.
- ◆ Held a .998 fielding percentage over 106 games behind the plate this season...also appeared at first base and left field for the first time in his career.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Hit .143 in all 3 NLDS games vs. Chicago (1-for-7) with 2 runs scored...saw action in 3 NLCS games against Colorado, batting .333 (4-for-12) with a run scored, 2 doubles, a home run and 3 RBI.

- ◆ Broke camp on the Major League roster for the second straight year.
- ◆ His first start of the season came on April 6 and tied his career-high with 5 RBI, including a 2-run homer in the fifth and 2-run double in the sixth.
- ◆ Drew a career-best 3 walks on May 2 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers.
- ◆ Had a .995 fielding percentage in 55 games behind the plate and threw out 17 of 48 baserunners (35%).

- ◆ Made the Opening Day roster for first time in his career, though the opportunity was in jeopardy only a week before the season started...suffered a dislocation of the tip of his left thumb in an exhibition game against San Diego on March 26 but the dislocation was immediately popped back into place and he was cleared to return to action.
- ◆ Had a .997 fielding percentage in 113 games (105 starts), committing only 2 errors in 725 total chances...threw out 11-of-57 attempted basestealers (19%).
- ◆ Finished with 12 multi-hit games and 7 multi-RBI games.
- ◆ Had a huge day on July 31 at Wrigley Field with a career-best 5 RBI and his second career 2-homer game, highlighted by his first grand slam, a fifth inning blast off of Mike Remlinger, followed later by a seventh inning solo homer off of Sergio Mitre.
- ◆ Clubbed first career pinch-hit homer on Aug. 14 at Atlanta, a 2-run clout off of Horacio Ramirez in the ninth inning, his then-career-high sixth home run.

2004

- ◆ Had a .388 average in June after hitting safely in 15 of 20 games with 9 multi-hit outings, earning the organization's Player of the Month award for El Paso (AA).
- ◆ Earned a spot on the West Squad at the Texas League All-Star Game on June 21.
- ◆ Was honored as the Texas League Player of the Week for July 12-18 after batting .500 (10-for-20).
- ◆ Had his contract purchased on Aug. 18 after newly-acquired catcher Koyie Hill suffered a disabling injury.
- ◆ Went 2-for-3 in his Major League debut on Aug. 21 vs. Cincinnati, lacing a single in his first at-bat off Aaron Harang, then adding a double in his next at bat.
- ◆ Clubbed a 2-run homer, his first big league blast, off of the Pirates' John Van Benschoten on Aug. 23 in Pittsburgh.
- ◆ Led El Paso and ranked among Texas Leaguers with a .520 slugging percentage (second), a .389 on-base percentage (fifth), 31 doubles (tied for sixth), a .301 batting average (seventh), 15 homers, 57 RBI and 46 walks.
- ◆ Capped a stellar season in El Paso by being selected as the catcher on the Texas League postseason All-Star Team.

2003

- ◆ Split his year between Lancaster (A) and El Paso (AA), appearing in a combined 122 games, including 105 behind the plate.
- ◆ A .331 hitter (41-for-124) with 50 RBI with runners on base, he also batted .338 (27-for-80) with 40 RBI with runners in scoring position.
- ◆ Played 16 games for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League.

- ◆ Hit safely in 11 of his first 15 pro games at a .340 clip (18-for-53).
- ◆ Was the California League's sixth-toughest catcher to run against, nabbing 22 of 56 (39%) would-be basestealers.

- ◆ Christopher Ryan (Chris) Snyder.
- ◆ Has a son, Chase Andrew, and daughter, Thalia Brienne, with his wife, Carla.
- ◆ Graduated from Spring Woods High School in 1999 in his native Houston.
- ◆ Attended the University of Houston, batting .343 with a school record 71 RBI during his junior season in 2002, and received third-team All-America honors from the NCBWA, All Conference-USA First team honors and Baseball America second team All-America honors.
- ◆ Selected as 1 of 3 finalists for the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, bestowed upon the nation's top collegiate backstop...was the starting catcher on Team USA during 2001.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Tracy's .285 career batting average ranks second in D-backs history...among infielders in club history, he ranks first in doubles (138), third in home runs (70) and RBI (279), fourth in games played (606) and runs scored (593) and fifth in at-bats (2,081)...was the D-backs' Minor League Player of the Year in 2003 after being rated the eighth-best prospect in the organization by Baseball America.

2008

- ◆ Missed the first 50 games of the season rehabilitating from microfracture surgery performed on his right knee on Sept. 20, 2007.
- ◆ Saw action in the team's first 11 games after being reinstated from the disabled list on May 26, including 6 starts at first base and 2 starts at third base, and collected 7 hits in 32 at-bats (.219) with 2 solo homers.
- ◆ His solo home run in the 10th inning on June 13 vs. Kansas City broke a scoreless tie and was the first walk-off homer of his career.
- ◆ Returned to form starting with a 2-for-3 effort, including a home run and a career-best-tying 4 RBI, as the designated hitter on June 24 at Boston and started a run which he batted .387 (24-for-62) with 7 extra-base hits and 17 RBI during an 18-game stretch to see his season batting average peak at .310 on July 18...stretch also included a season-high 7-game hitting streak (.450, 9-for-20) from June 30-July 6.
- ◆ His pinch-hit, 3-run double sparked the D-backs' 6-run, ninth-inning comeback victory on July 3 vs. Milwaukee.
- ◆ Ended the season by hitting safely in 7 of his last 8 games from Sept. 16-26 (.421, 8-for-19).
- ◆ Batted .400 (6-for-15) with 4 doubles and 6 RBI when used as a pinch hitter.
- ◆ Committed only 4 errors in 558 total chances for a .993 fielding percentage in 65 games (62 starts) at first base, tying him with teammate Conor Jackson for seventh place among NL first basemen who played in more than 65 games.

- ◆ Broke camp as the Opening Day third baseman for the second consecutive season...opened the 2005 season as the starting first baseman.
- ◆ Strung together a season-high 8-game hit streak from April 6-15, batting .323 (10-for-31) with 5 doubles, 1 triple, 1 home run and 8 RBI.
- ◆ Had a season-high 3 hits on May 11, going 3-for-4 with 3 doubles...it was his third career 3-double game (June 28, 2005 vs. San Francisco and April 22, 2006 at the Dodgers), tying the franchise record.
- ◆ Reinstated from the disabled list on June 11 and got into the game that night at Yankee Stadium, going 1-for-3 with walk and solo home run.
- ◆ Had season ending knee surgery on Sept. 20.
- ◆ Held a .979 fielding percentage over 48 games at third base and 18 games at first base.

2006

- ◆ Started 143 games at third base, while making 2 starts at first and making 2 appearances as the designated hitter.
- ◆ Posted a team-best 49 multi-hit games.
- ◆ Hit .313 (91-for-291) at Chase Field, with 14 home runs and 44 RBI.
- ◆ Tied the club-record for doubles in a game (3) during a 4-hit night in Los Angeles on April 22.
- ◆ Homered in 3 straight games from May 2-4, including a grand slam off the Dodgers' Odalis Perez on May 2.
- ◆ Belted a pair of home runs on Oct. 1 vs. San Diego, the second 2-homer game of his career (also: July 17, 2005 at San Diego).
- ◆ Recorded a .935 fielding percentage in 147 games (143 starts) at third.

- ◆ Led the team with a career-high .308 batting average and a .553 slugging percentage during his second full season in the Major Leagues.
- ◆ Led the Majors with a .372 average (48-for-129) in 36 day games...among NL leaders, ranked sixth in hitting (12th in the Majors) and a .324 average vs. right-handers (tied for 10th in the Majors) and 10th in slugging (16th in the Majors).
- ◆ Had 43 multi-hit games during the season including a pair of 4-hit games, while recording 16 multi-RBI games.
- ◆ Made his first career Opening Day start on April 4 and went 3-for-4 with a sacrifice fly vs. the Cubs.
- ◆ Recorded a career-high tying 4 hits on June 28 vs. San Francisco and Sept. 17 against Colorado...his 4 hit-game on June 28 included a club record-tying 3 doubles.
- ◆ Hit .420 (20-for-69) during June, the third-best mark in the Majors (min. 50 at bats).
- ◆ Came out of the All-Star break with 4 consecutive 2-hit games in San Diego from July 14-17, hitting .444 (8-for-18) with 3 home runs and 6 RBI...that stretch was capped with his first career 2-homer game on July 17 at PETCO Park, hitting a solo homer off Tim Stauffer then adding a 2-run blast off southpaw Chris Hammond.
- ◆ On Sept. 24 against San Diego, he hit go-ahead, 3-run double in the eighth inning of 8-5 triumph...the next day, he laced game-winning RBI single in the 10th for a 4-3 win over the Padres.
- ◆ Closed the season with a .378 batting average (37-for-98), 7 doubles, 2 triples, 7 home runs and 21 RBI in his final 25 games, reaching base safely via a hit or walk in 23 of those outings.

2004

- ◆ Earned the D-backs' Rookie of the Year award as voted by the local chapter of the BBWAA.
- ◆ Began season at Tucson (AAA), but received his first and only call to the Majors on April 21, replacing a disabled Roberto Alomar...made his big league debut that night in Milwaukee and fanned as a pinch-hitter.
- ◆ Started at third base the following day and had 4 hits, with a double in an 11-9, 15-inning Arizona win...his first Major League hit was a second inning single off the Brewers' Wes Obermueller.
- ◆ Hit his first Major League home run on April 27, a 2-run blast off of the Cubs' Sergio Mitre.
- ◆ Reached base safely via a hit or walk in 21 of his first 24 games, compiling a .348 average (32-for-92) with 9 multi-hit games.
- ◆ Hit a game-tying RBI single in the ninth inning on July 5 halted Dodger reliever Eric Gagne's Major League record streak of 84 consecutive saves.
- ◆ Hit his first career pinch-homer on Sept. 11 off of San Francisco's Noah Lowry.
- ◆ Launched a leadoff homer in a 3-1 win over Milwaukee on Sept. 27, the first leadoff home run of his career.
- ◆ Among all Major League rookies, ranked second with 137 hits, third with 45 walks, fourth with 196 total bases and tied for fourth with 34 multi-hit games.

- ◆ Continued his rapid climb through the farm system, enjoying an All-Star season in his first taste of AAA action...entered the year ranked by Baseball America as the eighth-best prospect in the organization and hit over .320 for a third straight season while securing honors as the D-backs' Minor League Player of the Year.
- ◆ His .324 batting average was second in the chain and fourth in the Pacific Coast League, while leading all minor league third basemen...paced the PCL in hits (169) and ranked second in runs scored (91).
- ◆ Starting third baseman in the Futures Game at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field for the second straight season...participated in the AAA All-Star game at Memphis.
- ◆ Selected by league managers and media as the third baseman on the All-PCL Team at the end of the season.
- ◆ Played winter ball for Azucareros in the Dominican Winter League.

- ◆ Received numerous accolades as he led the Texas League in batting (.344), hits (177) and doubles (39) while playing for El Paso (AA).
- ◆ Chosen by Baseball America as the best batting prospect in the TL, and was selected league's Player of the Year by Topps and the managers and media...was named the third baseman on Topps' Class AA All-Star team and was selected by SportsTicker as one of the top prospects in the Texas League.
- ◆ Played in the 2002 Futures Game in Milwaukee on July 7...was chosen as both a mid-season and post-season All-Star...played in the Texas League All-Star Game and the AA All-Star Game in Norwich, Conn.
- ◆ Was the organization's minor league Player of the Month for April and shared honors for May...twice received Texas League Player of the Week honors (April 4-14 and April 22-28).
- ◆ Was the league's toughest batter to strikeout, fanning once every 11.06 plate appearances...among league leaders he also ranked second in total bases (250) and fifth in slugging (.486), while tying for fifth in extra-base hits (52).
- ◆ Played for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League following the season...appeared in only 5 games before tendonitis in his right shoulder brought his year to an end.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Upton enters the 2009 season with a career .816 OPS (on-base + slugging percentage), joining an elite group of sluggers in Major League history to have at least an .815 OPS by the age of 20...the list includes 9 Hall of Famers (Mel Ott, Ted Williams, Al Kaline, Jimmie Foxx, Frank Robinson, Mickey Mantle, Orlando Cepeda, Ty Cobb, Willie Mays), 2 future Hall of Famers (Alex Rodriguez, Ken Griffey Jr.) 2 career All-Stars (Bob Horner, Vada Pinson) and a player whose career was cut short by injury (Tony Conigliaro)...was the second-youngest player in the Major Leagues at the age of 20 in 2008 behind the Los Angeles Dodgers' Clayton Kershaw (205 days younger)...was the 2007 USA Today Minor League Player of the Year.

- ♦ Started the season by collecting a hit in 23 of the club's first 33 games to see his season batting average peak at .347 (41-for-118) on May 6...the stretch also included a career-best 7-game hitting streak from April 29-May 6 (.440, 11-for-25)...had another 7-game hitting streak July 1-Aug. 29 (.333, 8-for-26).
- ♦ Homered in each game from April 3-5, becoming only the fourth player in Major League history to homer in 3 straight games at the age of 20 or younger...others to do so were Jimmy Sheppard (Brooklyn, 1898), Mel Ott (New York Giants, twice in 1929) and Willie Mays (New York Giants, 1951).
- ♦ Hit 5 home runs through the club's first 11 games, becoming the third player in Major League history under 21 years old to hit 5 home runs or more in his club's first 11 games of the season...others to do so were Detroit's Al Kaline in 1955 (5) and Florida's Miguel Cabrera in 2004 (6).
- ♦ Hit a home run as the clean-up hitter on May 8 vs. Philadelphia, becoming only the fifth player in the last 25 years to bat fourth and hit a homer prior to their 21st birthday...other players to do so were Washington's Ryan Zimmerman (twice in 2005), Florida's Miguel Cabrera (2003), Atlanta's Andruw Jones (1997) and Seattle's Ken Griffey, Jr. (1990).
- ♦ Was hitless in 28 consecutive at-bats, including 18 strikeouts, from May 20-28 until snapping the skid with a 2-run double in the seventh inning on May 28 vs. San Francisco.
- ♦ His 484-foot homer off the Padres' Josh Banks on July 6 vs. San Diego was the second-longest home run in Chase Field history and 16th (8th D-backs player) to land in Friday's Front Row, located in the ballpark's second level in left field.
- ♦ Missed 43 games while on the disabled list from July 18-Aug. 29 with a left oblique strain suffered during batting practice on July 9 at Washington.
- ♦ Batted .261 (6-for-23) with only 1 extra-base hit in his first 10 games after being reinstated from the disabled until catching fire again during a 13-game stretch from Sept. 13-26, when he batted .333 (16-for-48) with 4 home runs, 6 doubles, 2 triples and 9 RBI.
- ♦ Had a career-high 4 hits, including a double and homer, on Sept. 14 vs. Cincinnati.
- ♦ Started 100 games in right field and tied Conor Jackson for the team lead with 6 outfield assists.

- ♦ Was named the USA Today Minor League Player of the Year after batting .319 with 23 doubles, 6 triples, 18 home runs and 70 RBI in 103 combined games at Visalia (A) and Mobile (AA) before spending the final two months of the season with the D-backs.
- ♦ Had his contract purchased from Mobile on Aug. 2, making his Major League debut that night at San Diego as a defensive replacement in the eighth inning...fouled out to first base in the ninth inning in his first Major League at-bat.
- ♦ Became the youngest player to ever appear in a game for the D-backs at 19 years, 342 days old...previous youngest was Edgar Gonzalez at 20 years, 98 days on June 1, 2003 at San Diego.

- ♦ Was a single away from becoming the youngest player in Major League history to hit for the cycle on Aug. 7 against Pittsburgh, going 3-for-4 with his first Major League home run.
- ♦ Broke camp with Visalia (A), appearing in 32 games for the Oaks, batting .341 with 6 doubles, 2 triples, 5 home runs and 17 RBI.
- ♦ Hit home runs in 5 consecutive games from April 25-29, collecting 9 RBI over that stretch.
- ♦ Promoted to Mobile (AA) on May 14, making his BayBear debut that evening against Jacksonville, going 1-for-3 with a 2-run home run.
- ♦ Hit 4 home runs in his first 3 games at Mobile, including a 2-home run performance on May 15, going 3-for-6 with 6 RBI.
- ♦ Strung together a 9-game hit streak from May 26-June 3, batting .486 (17-for-35) with 4 doubles, 2 triples, 2 home runs, 10 RBI and 2 stolen bases over that stretch.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Hit .600 (3-for-5) in 2 NLDS games vs. Chicago, scoring 2 runs with a RBI and 3 walks...batted .222 (2-for-9) in all 4 NLCS games against Colorado with a double and triple.

- ♦ Reached base via hit or walk in 90 of 113 games with at least 1 hit in 75 contests and 31 multi-hit games for South Bend (A)
- ♦ Picked up first career hit and RBI on April 22 vs. Wisconsin.
- ♦ Hit first career home run on April 30 at Cedar Rapids.
- ♦ Compiled a 10-game hit streak from April 30-May 13 during which he hit .341 (15-for-44) with a homer and 7 RBI.
- ♦ Reached base via hit or walk in 20 consecutive affairs from April 30-May 23 with a .338 mark (26-for-77) with 4 doubles, 2 homers and 16 RBI.
- ♦ Clubbed first career grand slam and established career-best with 5 RBI on May 18 at Southwest Michigan.
- ♦ Selected as starting centerfielder and had a double, a walk and 2 runs scored as the leadoff hitter for East All-Star squad at the Midwest League All-Star Game.
- ♦ Had first 2-homer game on July 9 at Clinton.
- ♦ Served as designated hitter in Silver Hawks' postseason series against Lansing...went 2-5 with a triple and a 2-run homer in Game 1 on Sept. 6.

PERSONAL

- ♦ Justin Irvin Upton.
- ♦ Graduated in 2005 from Great Bridge High School in Chesapeake, Va.
- ♦ As a senior in 2005, received national accolades as the Gatorade High School Player of the Year, a USA Today First-Team selection and a Baseball America High School All-American while also earning Virginia Player of the Year honors...hit .519 with 11 home runs and 32 RBI with 29 runs scored and 7 stolen bases in 54 official plate appearances.
- ♦ Baseball America's "Rating the Best Tools" for the 2005 Draft preview issue tabbed him as the Best Athlete, Best Five-Tool Talent, Best Pure Hitter, Fastest Baserunner, Best Defensive Player and the Closest to the Majors among high school players.
- ♦ Following his junior campaign, awarded the inaugural Jackie Robinson Award as the 2004 AFLAC National High School Player of the Year and named the Gatorade Virginia Player of the Year.
- ♦ Played for Team USA's IBAF World Junior Championship Team in Taiwan and hit .417 in 6 games with 4 triples, a home run and 5 RBI.
- ♦ Identified by Baseball America as the best 14-year old and 15-year old prospect in the nation in 2002 and 2003, respectively.
- ♦ His older brother, B.J., was drafted by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays as the second pick in the 2002 draft, making them the only brother combination to be selected as the No. 1 and No. 2 draft choices in different drafts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Webb enters 2009 ranked second in D-backs' history with 87 wins, .584 winning percentage, 197 starts, 1,315.2 innings pitched and 1,063 strikeouts and third with 15 complete games...he has garnered the most points among all National League pitchers over the last 3 seasons (2006-08) with 270 points in the BBWAA's 5-3-1 voting system for the Cy Young Award...earned his third career All-Star berth in 2008 and is now tied for second in D-backs' history with his 3 straight All-Star appearances with Luis Gonzalez (2001-03), behind Johnson's four straight (1999-2002).

- ♦ His career-best 22 wins tied Cleveland's Cliff Lee for the Major League lead and tied for the third-most wins in franchise history with Curt Schilling's 22 wins in 2001...also led the big leagues with a 3.22 ground ball to fly ball ratio and a 76.3 ground ball percentage...among National League pitchers, was fourth in innings pitched (226.2) and 10th in ERA (3.30)...since 2005, his 70 wins and 927.0 innings pitched lead all pitchers in MLB.
- ♦ Finished second in the NL Young Award balloting for the second straight season...has garnered the most points among all NL pitchers over the last three seasons (2006-08) with 270 points in the Baseball Writers' Association of America's 5-3-1 voting system.
- ♦ Honored by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as the D-backs' Pitcher of the Year.
- ♦ Continued his climb up the franchise's all-time leaderboard...ranks second with 65 wins, 1,089.0 innings pitched, 163 starts and 880 strikeouts...also is third with 4 shutouts.
- ♦ His 24 quality starts ranked third among NL pitchers...with teammate Dan Haren, their combined total of 47 quality starts tied for most among teammates in the Major Leagues with San Francisco's Tim Lincecum and Matt Cain...his 91 quality starts since 2005 rank fourth in the big leagues.

- ◆ Was named the NL Pitcher of the Month in April for the first time in his career after leading the league with 6 wins and ranking fourth with a 1.98 ERA (9 ER in 41.0 IP)...became the first pitcher in the Majors to finish April with a 6-0 record since Randy Johnson did so in 2002.
- ◆ Won his first 9 starts of the season before losing on May 21 at Florida, the best such streak for a D-backs pitcher to begin a season and only the sixth Major Leaguer since World War I to win his first 9 starts in a season...tied with Sal Maglie (New York Giants, 1952), Arley Donald (New York Yankees, 1939) and George Uhle (Detroit Tigers, 1929) behind Eddie Cicotte's 12 (Chicago White Sox, 1919) and Andy Hawkins' 10 (San Diego Padres, 1985).
- ◆ After winning his first 8 decisions in 2006, is only the second pitcher in Major League history to win his first 8 decisions of a season as a starting pitcher more than once, joining Roger Clemens (14-0 in 1986, 11-0 in 1997, 9-0 in 2004).
- ◆ His season-opening 9-game winning streak was the longest in the NL...recorded a 2.56 ERA (18 ER in 63.1 IP) during the streak and held opponents to a .198 batting average...also recorded an 8-game winning streak over 11 starts from June 28-Aug. 21...recorded a 2.08 ERA (18 ER in 78.0 IP) and held opponents to a .228 batting average during that stretch...he suffered some tough luck in two of the no decisions, leaving the game on July 13 at Philadelphia tied at 2-2 after 7.0 innings and leaving his next start on July 20 after 8.0 innings with a 4-1 lead vs. Los Angeles Dodgers....no other NL pitcher had 2 streaks of at least 7 wins in 2008.
- ◆ Led the Majors with 13 wins at the All-Star break and was selected to his third consecutive NL All-Star team...struck out 2 batters during a scoreless 14th inning in the game at Yankee Stadium...is now tied for second in D-backs' history with Luis Gonzalez (2001-03) in consecutive All-Star appearances behind Randy Johnson's 4 straight (1999-2002).
- ◆ Struck out the Giants' Dave Roberts in the third inning on July 26 at San Francisco to record his 1,000th career strikeout, joining Randy Johnson as the only other D-backs pitcher to reach that mark...he did it in his 186th career game, becoming the sixth-fastest among pitchers with less than 10 seasons of Major League experience behind Milwaukee's C.C. Sabathia (182 games), St. Louis' Matt Clement (180), Milwaukee's Ben Sheets (179), Boston's Josh Beckett (175) and San Diego's Jake Peavy (159).
- ◆ Threw his eighth-career shutout on May 31 vs. Washington in a game that lasted only 1:52 and was the shortest game in Chase Field history...also tossed 6.0 shutout innings at Washington on July 8 to give him 24.0 scoreless frames against the Nationals dating back to Aug. 11, 2007, when he threw a shutout at Chase Field...has allowed 17 hits and only 3 walks while striking out 24 batters against the Nationals during that span.
- ◆ Earned his 20th win on Sept. 12 vs. Cincinnati to become the first NL pitcher since St. Louis' Chris Carpenter, Houston's Roy Oswalt and Florida's Dontrelle Willis each won 20 or more games in 2005...his 20th victory ended the D-backs' season-long 6-game losing streak, making him the first pitcher whose 20th win of the season ended a team losing streak of at least 6 games since the Cubs' Greg Maddux ended an 8-game skid in 1992...tied a career-high by losing his previous 3 starts and was the first pitcher since the White Sox's Esteban Loaiza in 2003 to make 3 starts without a victory while sitting on 19 wins.
- ◆ Hit .149 at the plate (10-for-67) with 2 runs scored, 4 doubles and a career-high 11 RBI, including 2 game-winning RBIs...had 5 multi-RBI games and his career-high 4 doubles each drove in 2 runs.
- ◆ Was the D-backs' recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award and one of 30 Major League club nominees for the national Roberto Clemente Award, which is given annually to the MLB player who combines outstanding skills on the baseball field with devoted work in the community.

- ◆ Finished the regular season ranked second in the National League in ERA (3.01), second in wins (18), first in complete games (4), first in shutouts (3), first in innings pitched (236.1) and fourth in strikeouts (194).
- ◆ Named to the National League All-Star team for the second consecutive season, replacing injured reliever Brian Fuentes (Colorado)...did not appear in the game.
- ◆ Won 6 consecutive starts from July 25-Aug. 22, allowing only 2 earned runs over 48.0 innings pitched while striking out 40...during the win streak, he tossed a franchise and career-high 42.0 scoreless innings from July 20-Aug. 22, the longest streak since since divisional play began (Orel Hershiser, 59.0 in 1988)...broke his previous franchise-record of 30.0 scoreless innings, set in 2006 from May 20-June 5...tied Rube Foster for the 12th-longest streak in Major League history.
- ◆ Pitched 3 consecutive complete game shutouts from Aug. 5-7, the first time in franchise history...the last time someone had 3 straight shutouts was Roger Clemens with Toronto from Aug. 20-30, 1998.
- ◆ Received a no-decision on April 18 at San Diego, striking out a career-high 13 batters over 8.0 innings.
- ◆ From July 25 through the remainder of the season, went 10-2 with a 2.43 ERA over 13 starts.
- ◆ Pitched 7.0 or more innings in 24 of his 34 starts this season.
- ◆ Held right-handed batters to a .199 average, ranking fifth in the Majors among starters.
- ◆ Was the Opening Day starter for the second consecutive season.
- ◆ Won 3 consecutive starts from May 26-June 6, allowing only 2 earned runs over 22.0 innings, striking out 23 over that stretch.
- ◆ Tied his career-high with 2 doubles, batting .082 with 8 sacrifice bunts this season.

- ♦ Won the National League Cy Young Award as voted by the Baseball Writers Association of America...received 15 of a possible 32 first place votes, totaling 103 points based on a 5-3-1 point system, with San Diego's Trevor Hoffman finishing second with 77 points, including 12 first place votes...St. Louis starter Chris Carpenter was third in the voting with 63 points, including two first place votes...it marked the fifth Cy Young Award winner in the 9-year history of the D-backs, with Randy Johnson becoming just the second pitcher in Major League history to win 4 in a row from 1999-2002 (Greg Maddux 1992-1995).
- ♦ Tied for the National League lead with a then-career-best 16 victories, finished second in innings pitched (235.0), was third with a 3.10 ERA and tied for 10th with 178 strikeouts...led the Majors in ground ball to air ratio at 4.06...tied for fifth in the Majors with 23 quality starts.
- ♦ Made his first career Opening Day start on April 3 at Colorado and tossed 7.0 innings of 1-run ball...was the D-backs' youngest Opening Day starting pitcher at 26 years, 329 days, a couple of years younger than the previous year's starter, Javier Vazquez (28 years, 283 days).
- ♦ Opened the season 8-0, the best season-opening stretch in franchise history, a win more than Randy Johnson's 2000 start...the 8-game win streak was tied for the second-longest in team annals...won 6 consecutive starts from April 14-May 10.
- ♦ Became only the second pitcher in team history (Curt Schilling, 2003) to toss back-to-back shutouts, turning the trick on May 20 vs. Atlanta and May 26 at Cincinnati.
- ♦ Possessed a then-franchise-best streak of 30.0 consecutive scoreless innings from May 20-June 5, breaking the old mark set by Andy Benes in 1998 (27.1 innings)...tossed 7.0 scoreless innings during May 31 contest against the Mets' Pedro Martinez.
- ♦ Was the D-backs' only representative in the 2006 All-Star Game, his first trip to the Midsummer Classic...named by virtue of the player/coach/manager vote, garnering a league-best 325 votes among pitchers...made the most of his appearance, recording a 1-2-3 fourth inning...fanned the Yankees' Derek Jeter, coaxed a foulout to third by Boston's David Ortiz, then induced a grounder to short by New York's Alex Rodriguez in a 16-pitch inning.
- ♦ Tossed a 1-hit, complete game 3-0 win on Sept. 9 vs. St. Louis, needing only 95 pitches and 1-hour, 54 minutes in firing his fourth complete game (third shutout) of the season...faced only 3 over the minimum, with the lone hit a 2-out double in the fourth inning by Scott Rolen...it was the seventh 1-hitter in team history, third complete game, first since Randy Johnson on Sept. 14, 2003 vs. Colorado.

- ♦ Was the D-backs' most dependable starter throughout the season and was named the club's Pitcher of the Year by the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA after leading the staff in wins (14), innings (229.0) and ERA (3.54).
- ♦ Had a then-career-high workload (229.0 IP) which ranked sixth in the National League and eighth in the Majors...had a Major League-leading ground ball to air ratio of 4.34, which was light years ahead of his nearest competition, the Indians' Jake Westbrook (3.13), Dodgers' Derek Lowe (2.92) and the Cardinals' Mark Mulder (2.74)...also led with 451 groundouts induced, 4 more than Lowe...was guilty of 14 wild pitches, leading the NL for the second consecutive season.
- ♦ Opened the season 6-0 over his first 9 starts, one win shy of matching Randy Johnson's club record 7-0 start to the 2000 campaign.
- ♦ Notched his eighth win of the year on June 23 in San Francisco, eclipsing his entire victory total (7-16) of 2004...was efficient in picking up the victory needing only 79 pitches to dispatch the Giants, allowing 2 runs in 7.0 innings.
- ♦ Turned in two double-digit strikeout performances on the season, the first coming in a no decision against Colorado on Aug. 5, holding the Rockies to 2 runs (only 1 earned) over 7.0 frames of 3-hit ball with 10 strikeouts...the other was in a 3-2 win at home over the Dodgers on Sept. 21, giving up 2 runs over 7.2 frames with a career-high tying 11 strikeouts...that outing included 6 consecutive strikeouts in the fourth and fifth innings, one shy of Randy Johnson's club record.
- ♦ Finished the year strong, going 3-1 with a 1.72 ERA in his last 5 starts, allowing 7 earned runs in 36.2 innings with 32 strikeouts.
- ♦ Owned a 2.83 ERA in day games, seventh in the NL and ninth in the big leagues.

- ♦ Tied 5 others for the Major League lead with 35 starts.
- ♦ Had his shortest big league starting assignment on Sept. 17 in St. Louis, when plate umpire Jerry Layne made the judgment that Webb threw at opposing hurler Woody Williams and ejected him with none out in the third inning...had just surrendered a home run to Mike Matheny, then hit his counterpart with the next pitch...it was the first ejection of Webb's big league career.
- ♦ His sinker proved effective as he led all starters with a 3.55 groundball-to-flyball ratio, easily outdistancing Boston's Derek Lowe (2.87), the only starting pitcher Webb trailed in that category during 2003.

- ◆ Named the Major League Rookie of the Year by Baseball America.
- ◆ His ERA was fourth-best in the National League and sixth in the Majors, while his 172 strikeouts easily led all rookies... he limited opponents to a .212 average (140-for-659), good for third in the NL.
- ◆ Made 28 starts and led all rookies with 21 quality starts, including 16 in which he worked 6.0 innings and allowed 2 or fewer earned runs.
- ◆ His first recall was on April 22 and he debuted that night with a scoreless frame of relief in Montreal.
- ◆ Made his first Major League start 5 days later with a 6-1 win in the first game of an April 27 doubleheader at Shea Stadium, tossing 7.0 shutout innings, allowing only 3 hits and a walk while recording 10 strikeouts...his 10-strikeout performance started an afternoon that saw the Diamondbacks set a Major League record for most strikeouts in a doubleheader, as 27 Mets fanned during the day...within minutes of securing the win, he was optioned back to Tucson to make room on the roster for Randy Johnson, who was coming off the disabled list to start the nightcap of the twinbill.
- ◆ Following Johnson's 12-strikeout performance that resulted in a 7-3 win, he once again experienced swelling in his right knee and required arthroscopic surgery which necessitated Webb's second recall...his Big Apple outing started a streak of 13 consecutive quality starts to begin his career, the longest streak in the Majors since Montreal's Steve Rogers had 16 in a row in 1973.
- ◆ Became the first D-backs rookie to toss a complete game shutout when he blanked Detroit, 7-0, at Comerica Park on June 28, allowing 7 hits.
- ◆ Recorded 542 Major League outs, only 55 of which were caught by an outfielder (10%).

- ◆ Ranked fourth in the Texas League in ERA (3.14) and strikeouts (122) for El Paso (AA).
- ◆ Was 1 of 8 Diablos named to the Texas League All-Star Game on June 17, pitching 2.0 shutout innings.
- ◆ Made his Tucson (AAA) debut on July 4 at New Orleans as the replacement starter for Erik Sabel, who was summoned to the big league club...arriving an hour and a half before game time because of travel delays, he absorbed the loss after working 7.0 innings, allowing 3 runs on 5 hits.
- ◆ Was 2-0 with a 0.55 ERA (1 ER in 16.1 IP) and 17 strikeouts, in 8 games (1 start) for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League.

- ◆ Owned the California League's 10th-best ERA (3.99) and finished fourth in innings (162.1) and strikeouts (158).
- ◆ Led the league with 27 batters hit by pitch.

2000

- ◆ Held Midwest League opponents to a .172 batting average.
- ◆ Was disabled the final month of the season with right arm soreness.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Brandon Tyler Webb.
- ◆ He and his wife, Alicia, have a daughter, Reagan.
- ◆ Was a 1997 graduate of Ashland (Ky.) High School, then played his collegiate baseball in Lexington at the University of Kentucky.
- ◆ Established the Brandon Webb K Foundation, benefitting critically and chronically ill children throughout Arizona by providing daily support and life changing experiences...has also been the club spokesman for the past 4 seasons for the Domestic Violence Prevention campaign.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

One of the best centerfielders in the National League over the past two seasons, Young ranks second with 54 home runs, 170 runs and 135 extra-base hits and third with 159 RBI and 41 stolen bases...his 56 home runs and 43 stolen bases in his first three big league seasons as a centerfielder at age 24 or younger are second to only Ken Griffey, Jr. in Major League history...his 2007 season saw him establish club rookie records in virtually every offensive category, also setting a Major League record by becoming the first rookie to record a 30-home run, 25-stolen base season.

- ♦ Had a productive sophomore season with the D-backs after batting .248 with 22 home runs, 42 doubles, 7 triples and 85 RBI in 160 games...among National League batters, tied for seventh in doubles and tied for sixth in triples.
- ♦ With 56 home runs and 43 stolen bases in his first 3 big league seasons, Ken Griffey Jr. (60 homers, 50 stolen bases) is the only other centerfielder in Major League history to collect more homers and stolen bases at age 24 or younger in his first 3 years.
- ♦ Slugged his 10th career leadoff home run and added another homer later in the game for his sixth-career multi-homer game on April 5 at Colorado...hit his 11th career leadoff homer on May 25 at Atlanta.
- ♦ Hit home runs in 3 straight games for the first time of his career from May 7-9.
- ♦ Had a career-best 3 hits on 7 occasions, giving him 17 3-hit games for his career.
- ♦ Tied a team-record with a career-high 3 doubles on July 23 against the Cubs, accomplishing the feat for the 10th time in D-backs history.
- ♦ Hit his first career grand slam off the Astros' Brandon Backe on Aug. 16 at Houston...Backe also gave up a grand slam to Miguel Montero, marking the first time 2 D-backs players have hit grand slams in the same game.
- ♦ Had 3 season-high 6-game hitting streaks; Aug. 10-16 (.407, 11-for-27), Aug. 27-Sept. 2 (.417, 10-for-24) and Sept. 19-24 (.320, 8-for-25).
- ♦ Had one of the best games of his career on Sept. 21 at Colorado, falling a double short of hitting for the cycle...went 3-for-5 with a triple, home run, career-high 4 runs scored and 4 RBI, tying for the second-highest total of his career.
- ♦ Finished the season by hitting safely in 8 of his last 9 games, batting .314 (11-for-35) with 3 home runs and 10 RBI over this stretch.
- ♦ Committed only 3 errors in 401 total chances as a centerfielder, ranking fourth among NL centerfielders with a .993 fielding percentage.

- ♦ Established single-season franchise-highs for rookies in runs, doubles, home runs, strikeouts, slugging percentage (.467), stolen bases and extra-base hits (64).
- ♦ Became the first rookie in Major League history to record a 30 home run, 25 stolen base season...he was the second rookie in Major League history to record a 30-home run, 20-plus stolen base season (Nomar Garciaparra, 30 home runs and 22 stolen bases in 1997 for Boston).
- ♦ Led the Majors with 9 leadoff home runs...tied Ricky Henderson (New York Yankees), Ray Durham (San Francisco), Alfonso Soriano (Washington) and Brad Wilkerson (Montreal) for the fifth-highest single-season total in Major League history.
- ♦ Connected for 2 home runs on April 30 at Los Angeles, his first career multi-home run game...the first home run was to lead off the game, the first of his career.
- ♦ Collected a RBI in 5 consecutive games from April 4-8, totaling 9 total RBI.
- ♦ Hit safely in 14 of 15 games from May 7-30, batting .426 (23-for-54) with 7 doubles, 2 home runs and 6 RBI...strung together two 7-game hit streaks during that stretch, his season high.

- ♦ Collected his second career multi-home run game on May 11 at Houston, connecting for 2 solo home runs in his first return to his hometown.
- ♦ Hit home runs on back-to-back days on June 5 and 6 against San Francisco, including a walk-off home run in the 10th inning on June 5, the first of his career.
- ♦ Connected for his second career walk-off home run on June 19 against Tampa Bay.
- ♦ Hit 9 home runs over 12 games from Aug. 14-26, including 3 multi-home run games (Aug. 14, 17 and 26).
- ♦ Scored in 9 straight games from July 7-28, totaling 14 runs.

2007 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Hit .273 (3-for-11) in all 3 NLDS games against the Cubs with 2 home runs, 4 RBI, 3 walks and a stolen base...batted .286 (4-for-14) in all 4 NLCS games vs. Colorado with a double, RBI and 4 walks.

- ♦ Suffered a broken third metacarpal in his right hand prior to the 2006 season, requiring surgery by Dr. Donald Sheridan prior to spring training.
- ♦ Recalled on Aug. 18 from Tucson (AAA) and made his Major League debut that evening vs. San Diego, starting in center and collecting his first Major League hit, a single off Woody Williams in the eighth.
- ♦ Hit his first home run on Aug. 23 vs. Pittsburgh, a 2-run shot off Jason Schmidt in the fourth inning.
- ♦ Had a career-high 5-hit performance on Sept. 2 at Washington, stroking 2 doubles and collecting a career high 5 RBI.
- ♦ Did not commit an error in 149 innings with the D-backs.
- ♦ Finished fourth in the PCL in doubles, tied for fourth in home runs and eighth in runs scored.
- ♦ Hit safely in 13 of 14 games from May 18-May 31, batting .377 (20-for-53) with 5 doubles, 6 home runs, 18 RBI and 4 stolen bases.
- ♦ Reached base safely in 23 straight games from June 3-June 27.

- ♦ Recorded his second consecutive 20-home run, 20-stolen base season in his first season at Birmingham (AA), hitting .277 (129-for-466) with 41 doubles, 26 home runs, 77 RBI, 30 steals and 100 runs.
- ♦ Participated in the All-Star Futures Game on July 10 at Comerica Park, going 1-for-2 with a walk.
- ♦ Led the Southern League in doubles, extra-base hits (70) and runs, tied for the league lead in home runs, ranked second in slugging percentage (.545) and home run ratio (17.92) and tied for fifth in RBI...the 70 extra-base hits were tied for the seventh-most among all minor-league players.
- ♦ Ranked among the White Sox organizational leaders in doubles (first), extra-base hits (tied for first), runs (second), walks (70, third), slugging percentage (fourth), home runs (tied for fourth), stolen bases (sixth) and RBI (tied for eighth).
- ♦ Named the Southern League Hitter of the Week twice (June 20-26 and Aug. 8-14).
- ♦ Posted 34 multi-hit games and 16 multi-RBI affairs.
- ♦ Had a 16-game hitting streak from April 26-May 12, batting .387 (24-for-69), tying for the fifth-longest streak in the Southern League.
- ♦ Hit .253 (21-for-83) with 2 home runs and 11 RBI in 24 games with the Peoria Saguaros of in the Arizona Fall League.
- ♦ Ranked by Baseball America as the sixth-best Prospect and Best Athlete and Fastest Baserunner in the White Sox organization entering the season...also cited by the same publication as the 15th-best Prospect in the South Atlantic League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

After sitting out the 2007 season, Zavada came back in 2008 with a resounding performance...led by his stellar changeup, he was named as the top independent league player signed by an affiliated club this past season by Baseball America after playing for the Frontier League's Southern Illinois Miners...drafted by the D-backs in 30th round in 2006.

2008

- ◆ Earned a MiLB.Y as Minor League Baseball's Class A reliever of the year after posting a 3-1 record and 0.51 ERA in 24 relief appearances at South Bend (A)...held opposing batters to a .056 average (6 hits) in 35.1 innings.
- ◆ After posting a 2-1 record with 4 saves and 22 strikeouts during 15.2 innings in 12 games for the independent Southern Illinois Miners, caught the attention of the D-backs and re-signed with the organization in June.
- ◆ Tossed 2.0 perfect inning when he made his debut for the Silver Hawks on June 21 vs. Western Michigan.
- ◆ Earned his first win of the season on June 23 at Dayton, allowing 1 run and 1 hit and 4 strikeouts in 2.0 innings.
- ◆ Earned his first save of the season on June 29 vs. Great Lakes, tossing a scoreless ninth inning with a walk and 2 strikeouts.
- ◆ Earned the organization's Pitcher of the Month honors after tying for second in the Midwest League with 6 saves in August.
- ◆ Struck out a season-high 5 batters in 2.1 perfect innings on Aug. 27 at Fort Wayne.
- ◆ Did not allow a run to score after June 26, a string of 30.2 innings to end his season.
- ◆ Notched 3 saves in 3 appearances, striking out 5 and allowing 2 hits in the Midwest League playoffs.

- ◆ After his father, Clarence, died from a heart attack in December, 2006, became responsible for tending to his family's 40-acre property in Streator, Ill....his mother, Linda, had died when he was 3 and his brother, Dustin, was in the Navy.
- ◆ Sat out the season after failing to report to spring training with the D-backs and honored his father's wishes by completing his bachelor's degree in business from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville...he earned his degree during spring 2008.

- ◆ Made his organizational debut for Missoula (R) on June 20 at Helena, walking 2 and striking out 1 in 2.1 scoreless innings.
- ◆ Earned his first victory on July 5 at Billings, striking out 4 in 6.0 scoreless, innings.
- ◆ Earned his first save on Aug. 14 vs. Great Falls, tossing 1.1 perfect innings with a strike-out.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Clay Pflibson Zavada.
- ◆ Named team MVP and first-team all-state at Streator (Ill.) High.
- ◆ After playing at Illinois Valley Community College, transferred to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in his junior year.
- ◆ His story about returning to baseball was featured on the cover of the New York Times' sports section on Dec. 21, 2008.

JOE BLACK

On May 17, 2002, Major League Baseball and the Arizona Diamondbacks suffered a great loss with the passing of Joseph Black, Jr.. He began his playing career in the Negro Leagues and shuffled through various professional leagues before making his Major League debut in 1952 with the Brooklyn Dodgers as a teammate of Jackie Robinson. In his rookie season, Joe made baseball history when he became the first African-American pitcher to win a World Series game and was eventually named the National League Rookie of the Year.

Joe remained an integral part of baseball following his playing days. As Vice President of B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, he dedicated his time to helping fellow baseball players who had fallen on hard times. He contributed his vast knowledge of the game as a consultant to the Commissioner of Major League Baseball. A resident of Phoenix, he worked in the D-backs' Community Affairs department, sharing his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Joe was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities.

In remembrance of Joe, a baseball bearing his name hangs from the rafters of Chase Field, along with the retired number of his former Brooklyn Dodger teammate Jackie Robinson.

The Arizona Fall League honors Joe's memory with the Joe Black Trophy, awarded to the league's Most Valuable Player each year.

A PERFECT NIGHT IN ATLANTA

Adept at setting records throughout his Major League career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, in Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since David Cone on July 18, 1999, in Yankee Stadium against Montreal. It was also the first perfect in the National League since Montreal's Dennis Martinez retired all 27 Dodgers he faced on July 28, 1991, in Chavez Ravine. The box score:

THE ORIGINAL 35

The Arizona Diamondbacks and Tampa Bay Devil Rays were named the 29th and 30th teams in Major League Baseball history during the baseball owners meetings on March 9, 1995. Both clubs began play in 1998, but before a pitch could be thrown each team was given the opportunity to draft 35 players from the existing 28 clubs.

The 1997 MLB Expansion Draft took place across at the Phoenix Civic Plaza, across the street from the nearly constructed Bank One Ballpark. The D-backs selected lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson from the Cleveland Indians with their first choice. Arizona's 35 selections:

ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS CHRONOLOGY

1990

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of 7th Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named President and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes Vice President and General Manager.

March 11: Season ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The D-backs finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

August 17: The D-backs unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the D-backs have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a Wild Card playoff spot in 1995, signs a seven-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

November 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a D-backs' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The D-backs and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Left-handed pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the D-backs' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie league team wins, 15-7.

October 11: The D-backs announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, right-handed pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place Arizona in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the D-backs' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the D-backs sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Jay Bell becomes the D-backs' first Major Leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the MLB Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The D-backs' first choice is left-handed pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third baseman Matt Williams comes to the D-backs from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and left-handed pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

January 10: Single game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial SportsPark in Tucson to inaugurate the D-backs' first Major League spring training.

February 27: In the D-backs' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly

Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the D-backs celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2. Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 5: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete game shutout, scattering 4 hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the D-backs their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within 2 outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

December 1: Left-handed pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to a four-year contract.

February 25: President Clinton visits the D-backs at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the No. 1 on the back.

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Atlanta's Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in Major League history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named National League Player of the Week, becoming the first D-back ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player of the Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher of the Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win over Montreal. It is the third straight night that the D-backs beat the Expos with a homer in their final at bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as then-St. Louis hurler Jose Jimenez outduels the D-backs' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

July 11: Jay Bell's sixth-inning grand slam wins $1 million for fan Gylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the D-backs beat Oakland, 7-4.

July 13: Third baseman Matt Williams and second baseman Jay Bell become the first D-backs to start an All-Star Game. Pitcher Randy Johnson and leftfielder Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team had more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the D-backs a 7-4 victory in Houston. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

September 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabelli's ground ball for the final out of an 11-3 victory in San Francisco that clinches the National League West championship for the D-backs. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

September 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the D-backs on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

October 3: The D-backs notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win over San Diego at Bank One Ballpark.

October 5: In the team's first postseason appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision to the New York Mets. Edgardo Alfonzo's ninth-inning grand slam, his second homer of the night, makes the difference.

October 6: Todd Stottlemyre scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the D-backs notch their first postseason win, 7-1. Steve Finley's 2-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

October 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give New York a 4-3 victory in Game 4 of the NL Division Series.

November 11: The D-backs earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the National League's top fielding outfielders.

November 16: After leading the Major Leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

April 11: Randy Johnson is selected co-National League Player of the week, sharing the honors with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero. Johnson was also selected NL Pitcher of the month for April.

May 31: Arizona turns its first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning of a home game with St. Louis. With the bases loaded and nobody out, the Cardinals' Mark McGwire hit a fly ball to center, which was caught by Steve Finley, who then fired to home plate, where catcher Damian Miller tagged Placido Polanco, then threw to third base, where shortstop Tony Womack tagged out Edgar Renteria.

July 5: Luis Gonzalez becomes the first D-back to hit for the cycle, accomplishing the feat in Houston with a ninth-inning home run in a 12-9 D-backs win.

July 11: Pitcher Randy Johnson and outfielder Steve Finley represent the D-backs at the All-Star Game in Atlanta. Johnson is the starting pitcher for the National League, while Finley enters the game as a defensive replacement as singles home a run in his only at-bat.

July 20: The first-ever weekday matinee at Bank One Ballpark ends in dramatic fashion, as Tony Womack's 2-run homer in the ninth gives Arizona a 3-2 win over St. Louis, in front of 40,937 fans.

July 24: The D-backs defeat the Cleveland Indians, 12-7, in the Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown. Minor league outfielder Luis Terrero was named the game MVP collecting 2 hits with a double and 2 runs.

July 26: Curt Schilling is acquired from Philadelphia for Omar Daal, Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and Travis Lee. Two nights later, Schilling scatters 6 hits over 8.0 innings, leading the D-backs to a 4-1 win at Florida.

September 10: Randy Johnson becomes the 12th pitcher in Major League history to record 3,000 career strikeouts with a fourth inning strikeout of Florida's Mike Lowell at Pro Player Stadium. Earlier in the game, Johnson records his 300th strikeout of the season, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to collect 300 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons.

October 2: Buck Showalter is dismissed as manager of the D-backs.

October 30: Former Major League catcher and broadcaster Bob Brenly is named D-backs manager.

November 7: Outfielder Steve Finley wins his second consecutive Gold Glove award, his fourth award overall.

November 14: Randy Johnson wins his second consecutive National League Cy Young Award, becoming the eighth pitcher in history to win the award three times.

December 8: Free agent first baseman Mark Grace signs a two-year contract with the D-backs. Grace comes to Arizona after 13 seasons with the Chicago Cubs.

April 3: The Bob Brenly managerial era opens with the D-backs defeating the Dodgers, 3-2.

April 26: Luis Gonzalez sets a National League record and ties Ken Griffey Jr.'s Major League record for home runs in the month of April by hitting his 12th and 13th round-trippers in a 13-6 victory over Atlanta. Gonzalez also earns National League Player of the Month honors.

May 8: Randy Johnson ties a Major League record with 20 strikeouts over 9.0 innings. Johnson did not get the decision, as the D-backs scored 3 runs in the bottom of the 11th for a 4-3 win over Cincinnati. The performance later earns him co-National League Player of the Week honors for the week of May 7-13.

May 29: Erubiel Durazo's game-winning RBI double in the top of the 18th gives Arizona a 1-0 win at San Francisco in the longest game, by innings, in franchise history. The marathon comes one day after the two teams played a 12-inning contest, with the D-backs also coming out victorious.

June 4: Curt Schilling is named National League Pitcher of the month for May, after going 5-1, with a 2.35 ERA.

June 8: Luis Gonzalez ties a club-record with 3 home runs in a game, one to each field, as the D-backs defeat the Royals in Kansas City, 11-4.

June 17: Tony Womack's grand slam in the fourth inning sparked an 8-3 Father's Day home win over Detroit. It was an emotional moment for Womack, as his father had passed away two months earlier.

July 2: Luis Gonzalez earns his second National League Player of the month award of the season, after hitting .417 in June, with 12 home runs and 35 runs batted in.

July 19: Randy Johnson sets a Major League record for strikeouts by a relief pitcher, fanning 16 Padres in a 3-0 D-backs win. The relief appearance was necessitated when a transformer blew at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium the night before, suspending play in the bottom of the second inning. Johnson had been scheduled to pitch the next day, and took over for starter Curt Schilling when the game resumed.

August 12: Junior Spivey becomes the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games, as Arizona completes a sweep of the Braves in Atlanta, winning 9-1. Spivey's first 5-hit game came June 21 in Colorado.

August 19: Arizona completes a sweep of the Chicago Cubs to extend its winning streak to a club record-tying 9 games.

August 23: Randy Johnson becomes the first pitcher in Major League history to record 4 consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons, recording his 300th strikeout of the 2001 season in Pittsburgh.

August 30: Steve Finley becomes the first position player to pitch in a D-back game, tossing a scoreless ninth inning against San Francisco.

September 5: Curt Schilling becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, defeating the Giants, 7-2, in San Francisco. Schilling is also the season's first 20-game winner.

September 8: Matt Williams' walk-off 2-run homer in the tenth gives Arizona an 8-6 win over San Diego. Steve Finley ties the game in the ninth with his second home run of the game, ending reliever Trevor Hoffman's streak of 27 consecutive save conversions.

September 11: Tragedy strikes America, as terrorist attacks in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania lead to a postponement of baseball for one week. The games are rescheduled for the week following the original end of the regular season, which pushes the World Series into November for the first time.

September 27: Randy Johnson becomes a 20-game winner for the second time in his career, as he defeats Milwaukee at Bank One Ballpark. During the same game, Johnson ties a Major League record by recording his 23rd double-digit strikeout game of the season, the third consecutive season he has recorded 23 double-digit strikeout games. Johnson also joins Schilling as the first 20-game winning teammates since 1999.

September 28: Luis Gonzalez' 54th home run of the season comes in the bottom of the 11th inning, giving Arizona a crucial 4-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

October 5: Behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Albie Lopez, the D-backs clinch a tie for their second National League West Division crown in 3 years, blanking the Brewers in Milwaukee, 5-0. Later that night, San Francisco loses at home to the Dodgers, giving the D-backs the title outright.

October 9: The D-backs open the National League Division Series with a 1-0 victory over St. Louis, behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Curt Schilling.

October 12: Craig Counsell's 3-run homer in the seventh gives the D-backs a dramatic 5-3 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis, and a 2-1 lead in the best-of-5 Division Series. St. Louis attempts to rally in the ninth, but falls short as pinch-hitter Mark McGwire grounds into a game-ending double play.

October 14: Tony Womack's ninth-inning single scores Danny Bautista with the game-winner as the D-backs post their first ever playoff series win, defeating the Cardinals 2-1 in Game 5 of the Division Series. Curt Schilling tosses his second complete game of the series, limiting the Cardinals to 6 hits, while striking out 9.

October 16: The D-backs are victorious in their first ever National League Championship Series game, defeating Atlanta in Phoenix, 2-0. Randy Johnson ends a personal 7-game postseason losing streak with a complete-game 3-hitter.

October 19: Arizona takes a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 series with a 5-1 win in Atlanta. Curt Schilling throws a complete-game 4-hitter, and singled and scored as part of a 3-run fifth inning.

October 20: Arizona explodes for 12 hits en route to an 11-4 victory over the Braves, to take a 3-1 series lead. The D-backs capitalize on 4 Atlanta errors.

October 21: The D-backs become the fastest team to reach the World Series, winning the National League pennant in their fourth year of existence by defeating the Braves 3-2 in Turner Field, winning the NLCS. Craig Counsell is named series Most Valuable Player, after hitting .381 in the series. Randy Johnson wins his second game of the series, with Byung-Hyun Kim recording his second save with 2.0 scoreless innings of relief. Erubiel Durazo's 2-run, pinch-hit homer in the fifth inning is the game-winner.

October 27: The World Series comes to Arizona, as the D-backs open the Fall Classic with a 9-1 victory over the American League Champion New York Yankees. Curt Schilling limits New York to 3 hits over 7.0 innings, while Craig Counsell and Luis Gonzalez each homered.

October 28: Randy Johnson tosses a 3-hit shutout and strikes out 11 in his first World Series appearance, as the D-backs defeat the Yankees 4-0 to take a 2-0 series lead. Matt Williams' 3-run homer in the seventh inning breaks open a pitcher's duel between Johnson and Andy Pettitte.

November 3: After dropping 3 heartbreaking games in New York, the D-backs respond with a 15-2 blowout of the Yankees, sending the World Series to a decisive seventh game. Arizona scored early and often, including a Fall Classic record 8 runs in the third. Randy Johnson goes 7.0 innings to pick up his second victory of the series, while Danny Bautista goes 3-for-4 with 5 RBI.

November 4: The D-backs complete one of the most dramatic World Series in history, and become the fastest team to win a World Championship, by defeating the Yankees 3-2 in the seventh and deciding game. Luis Gonzalez' looping single just beyond shortstop Derek Jeter's grasp scores Jay Bell with the series-winning run. Randy Johnson comes on in relief to pick up his record-tying third Series victory. Johnson and fellow pitcher Curt Schilling are named World Series co-Most Valuable Players.

November 7: Over 400,000 people line the streets of Downtown Phoenix for a parade honoring the World Champion D-backs. Following the parade, over 50,000 people pack Bank One Ballpark for a celebration rally.

November 13: Randy Johnson wins his third consecutive National League Cy Young Award, and the fourth of his career. Johnson collects 30 of the 32 first-place votes, with the other 2 going to teammate Curt Schilling, who finished second.

December 13: The D-backs are the guests of President George W. Bush at the White House. Earlier in the day, the team is treated to a tour of the United States Capitol by Arizona Senator John McCain. President Bush congratulates the D-backs and thanks them for giving the country something to take its mind off the tragedy of the September 11th terrorist attacks.

February 5: The D-backs sign 18-year old Tetsuya Yamaguchi to a minor league contract, the first Japanese amateur player signed by Arizona.

April 26: Randy Johnson wins his sixth straight start to open the year, eventually winning Pitcher of the month honors for April.

May 17: Erubiel Durazo, in only his second game back from a spring training wrist injury, breaks the club RBI record and ties the home run mark. Durazo hits three 2-run home runs and adds a 3-run double in the eighth inning.

May 29: Curt Schilling improves to 10-1 on the year with the 7-3 win at San Francisco, adding to the offense with a 2-for-4 appearance at the plate with a run scored. Schilling's performance on the mound secures Pitcher of the Month honors, going 5-0 with a 2.80 ERA during the month of May.

June 8: Curt Schilling pushes his club-record winning streak to 9 victories as he out-pitches Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park, 3-2.

July 9: Bob Brenly guides the National League squad at the All-Star Game in Milwaukee, Wisc., as his entire coaching staff joins him at Miller Park, with Robin Yount serving as the AL's honorary captain. Curt Schilling got the starting nod and pitched 2.0 shut-out innings. Damian Miller tied an All-Star Game record with 2 doubles. Junior Spivey, Luis Gonzalez and Byung-Hyun Kim also played, while Randy Johnson was selected by bypassed the game.

July 1: Miguel Batista takes a perfect game into the seventh inning, while the D-backs' offense scores 6 runs in the top of the seventh en route to a 7-2 win at Oakland.

July 9: The D-backs go into the All-Star break rolling, completing a 3-game sweep of the Rockies in Denver, winning the finale 8-5.

July 14: In the opener of the post All-Star break schedule, Johnny Estrada hits a two-run walkoff homer to defeat Milwaukee at Chase Field, 4-3. The win is costly, as Arizona loses infielder Craig Counsell due to a right rib fracture.

July 15: Stephen Drew, Arizona's first round selection in the 2004 June amateur draft, makes his Major League debut. Drew reaches base twice on a walk and strikeout-wild pitch as Arizona runs its winning streak to 5 with an 8-1 defeat of the Brewers.

July 17: Drew picks up his first Major League hit with a fourth-inning single. The D-backs defeat the Dodgers, 8-5.

July 19: Miguel Batista tosses his third complete game of the season, blanking the Dodgers at Chase Field on a 6-hitter, 8-0.

July 20: Another of the D-backs' heralded youngsters, outfielder Carlos Quentin, makes his Major League debut.

July 25: Quentin's 11th-inning homer off Ryan Franklin gives the D-backs a 6-5 win in the opener of a 3-game set in Philadelphia.

July 28: The D-backs open a weekend set in Houston with an 8-7, 11-inning victory. Astros left-hander Andy Pettitte takes the loss, making his first relief appearance in 10 years.

July 30: Conor Jackson's pinch 2-run homer in the ninth lifts the D-backs to a series-clinching win at Houston, 7-6.

July 31: Orlando Hudson becomes the third player in D-back history to homer from both sides of the plate, helping Brandon Webb to his 12th win of the season, as Arizona defeats the Cubs, 15-4, at Wrigley Field.

August 7: Arizona adds to its pitching depth by acquiring right-handed starter Livan Hernandez from Washington in exchange for two minor league pitchers.

August 11: Jeff DaVanon, one of Arizona's most dependable bench players is lost for the remainder of the season. The club places him on the disabled list after he suffered a right ankle sprain five days earlier. The injury would eventually require surgery.

August 15: For the second time in franchise history, the D-backs play an 18-inning game, and as was the case in the first 18-inning marathon, the D-backs win on the road. Luis Gonzalez' single scores the game-winner in a 2-1 triumph at Colorado.

August 18: Outfielder Chris Young, acquired over the winter from the Chicago White Sox, makes his Major League debut. Young gets his first Major League hit with an eighth-inning single off San Diego's Woody Williams.

August 25: Arizona plays another marathon, defeating the Dodgers 9-7 at Chase Field. Right-handed pitcher Brandon Lyon makes the first plate appearance of his Major League career, drawing a 15th inning walk, and later scoring on Orlando Hudson's walk-off homer.

September 6: Florida's Anibal Sanchez becomes the second pitcher to no-hit the D-backs in Arizona franchise history, as the Marlins complete a 3-game sweep of the D-backs in Miami, 2-0. The loss spoiled a strong outing by D-backs' starter Edgar Gonzalez, who allowed 2 runs on 5 hits over 6.0 innings. Earlier in the day, Rich Dozer, the only President in club history, announces his intention to resign at season's end, to be replaced by Executive Vice President Derrick Hall.

September 9: Brandon Webb limits the eventual World Champion Cardinals to one hit in a complete-game, 3-0 D-backs' win at Chase Field. It was Webb's first-ever 1-hitter, and was also the shortest game in Chase Field history, lasting 1:54.

September 15: Webb throws his second consecutive complete game, and his fifth of the season, defeating the Colorado Rockies at Chase Field, 5-1.

September 16: The D-backs tied the record for the longest game in Chase Field history in terms of innings, needing 16 frames to defeat the Rockies, 7-6. Arizona set a franchise record with nine pitchers used in the game.

October 1: The D-backs say goodbye to Luis Gonzalez, Craig Counsell and Miguel Batista as they drop a 7-6 decision to San Diego. A franchise record crowd of 48,946 witnessed the game and postgame ceremonies. The game is also the last for two members of the D-backs' coaching staff, as hitting coach Mike Aldrete and bench coach Jay Bell announce their intentions to leave.

October 28: Kevin Seitzer, a veteran of 12 seasons as a Major League player, is hired to serve as the D-backs' hitting coach.

November 1: Daron Sutton joins the D-backs as the club's television play-by-play broadcaster. Sutton replaces Thom Brennaman, who leaves to take a play-by-play post with the Cincinnati Reds.

November 3: For the second consecutive year, second baseman Orlando Hudson is the winner of a Rawling Gold Glove award for defensive excellence. He earned the award in 2005 in the American League while a member of the Toronto Blue Jays.

November 8: The D-backs unveil new team colors and uniforms in a celebrity-filled event at the Hotel Valley Ho resort in Scottsdale. The new colors are Sedona Red, Sonoran Sand and black.

November 10: Kirk Gibson, a veteran of 17 Major League playing seasons, joins the D-backs as bench coach. Chip Hale, who guided the D-backs' own Tucson Sidewinders (AAA) team to the Pacific Coast League and AAA Championship, joins the Major League coaching staff as third base coach.

January 9: The D-backs re-acquire left-handed pitcher Randy Johnson from the New York Yankees, in exchange for right-handed reliever Luis Vizcaino and three minor leaguers.

April 2: Following a formula that would be the foundation of a 90-win campaign, the D-backs open the regular season with an 8-6 win over Colorado. Eric Byrnes' 2-run single and a sacrifice fly from Orlando Hudson capped a 3-run rally in the eighth inning. Four relievers combined to blank the Rockies over the game's final 3.0 innings.

April 9: Arizona completes a 4-game sweep of the Nationals in Washington, which also completed a 5-2 season opening road trip.

April 25: Stephen Drew hits a 2-run, walk-off homer off all-time saves leader Trevor Hoffman as Arizona defeats San Diego at Chase Field, 3-2. The win offset a 16-strikeout performance by San Diego starting pitcher Jake Peavy.

April 30: Brandon Webb limits the Dodgers to 1 run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings as Arizona wins its sixth consecutive game, 9-1. The win closes out the month, with Arizona posting a 16-11 mark, leading the National League West by a half-game.

May 19: The D-backs, down 7-2 going into the seventh inning, score 5 to tie the game, then 2 more in the eighth to beat the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 9-7. Tony Clark's pinch grand slam tied the game in the seventh.

May 24: Rookie Micah Owings tosses his first career complete game, as Arizona defeats Houston, 9-1 at Chase Field.

May 25: Rookie third baseman Mark Reynolds goes 5-for-5, slugging 2 home runs and driving in 5 in a 13-3 rout of the Astros. His performance came just nine days after his contract was purchased from Mobile (AA).

June 7: Right handed pitcher Jarrod Parker of Norwell High School in Bluffton, Ind., is the D-backs' first-round selection (ninth overall) in the 2007 June Amateur Draft.

July 10: Orlando Hudson makes his first career All-Star game appearance, taking over at second base in the seventh inning. Brandon Webb was selected to the mid-summer classic, as a replacement for Colorado's Brian Fuentes, for the second straight season, but did not see action in the game at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

July 11: Rick Schu replaces Kevin Seitzer as D-backs hitting coach.

July 26: Longtime Major League Baseball executive Roland Hemond returns to the D-backs' organization as a special assistant to President Derrick Hall. Hemond was with the D-backs from 1996-2000 as Senior Executive Vice President.

July 28: Conor Jackson's 10th-inning single gives Arizona its second consecutive walk off win over the Atlanta Braves at Chase Field, 4-3. The night before, Tony Clark's home run in the 11th defeated the Braves, 8-7 in 11 innings. Jackson's heroics allowed the D-backs to stretch their winning streak to eight games, moving them back into a tie for the NL West lead.

August 1: Arizona survives a 4-run Padre eighth, scoring 4 in the top of the 11th to defeat the Padres, 9-5 at Petco Park. Chris Young robbed Mike Cameron of a fifth-inning grand slam when he reached over the center field fence to catch Cameron's blast with the bases loaded and 2 outs.

August 2: The D-backs purchase the contract of Justin Upton, the number one overall pick in the 2005 June Amateur Draft. Upton makes his Major League debut in the eighth inning of the club's game in San Diego.

August 5: Brandon Webb outduels Brad Penny, tossing a complete-game 7-hitter, as Arizona completes a sweep of the Dodgers in Los Angeles, 3-0. The shutout ran Webb's scoreless inning streak to 24.

August 11: Brandon Webb limits Washington to 5 hits, striking out 10, tossing his second consecutive complete-game shutout, 1-0. Webb's consecutive scoreless inning streak reached 33 innings. The only scoring occurred on rookie Justin Upton's fourth inning RBI triple.

August 17: Brandon Webb tosses his third consecutive complete-game shutout, blanking the Braves in Atlanta, 4-0, extending Webb's scoreless inning streak to 42.

August 18: Playing in his home state, Micah Owings pitches and hits Arizona to a 12-6 win over the Braves in Atlanta. On the mound, Owings limits the Braves to 3 runs on 3 hits, with no walks and 7 strikeouts over 7.0 innings. At the plate, Owings goes 4-for-5, with 2 home runs, a double and 6 runs batted in.

August 22: Brandon Webb's scoreless inning streak is halted at 42, as Milwaukee's Prince Fielder drives in a run with a first inning single. The streak ties for the 12th best in Major League history. The D-backs beat the Brewers, 3-2, for Webb's 14th win of the year.

September 5: In the final meeting of the year between the clubs, the D-backs defeat the Padres and eventual Cy Young winner Jake Peavy, 9-6 at Chase Field. Pitching on three days' rest, Peavy allows eight runs over four innings. It was the highest run total and shortest outing Peavy had among his 34 starts in 2007.

September 5: Arizona's Justin Upton is named Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today.

September 10: Jeff Salazar's 3-run ninth-inning homer gives Arizona a 5-3 win at San Francisco. The win is Arizona's sixth in a row, and increases the D-backs' lead in the NL West to 3.5 games.

September 27: Micah Owings and three relievers combine to blank the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 8-0. Notified shortly before game time that he would start in place of Brandon Webb, Owings limits the Pirates to 4 hits over 6.1 innings, while contributing 4 hits in 4 at-bats, with 3 RBI. The win allows Arizona to maintain a 1-game lead in the NL West with 3 games to play.

September 28: The D-backs clinch their fourth postseason berth in 10 years of existence, beating the Colorado Rockies, 4-2 in Denver. Brandon Webb allows 2 runs on 8 hits over 7.0 innings for his 18th win of the year. José Valverde earns his Major League-leading 47th save, striking out the side, the last 2 coming with the tying runs on base.

September 29: Prior to that night's game in Denver, the D-backs secure their fourth National League West title in franchise history, as Milwaukee rallies to defeat San Diego.

October 3: The D-backs' first postseason game is a 3-1 win over the Chicago Cubs at Chase Field, in the opening game of the National League Division Series. Brandon Webb allows 1 run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings, striking out 9, Mark Reynolds' solo homer and Conor Jackson's sacrifice fly break a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning.

October 4: Arizona moves to a 2-0 series lead on the Cubs by beating Chicago, 8-4, at Chase Field. Chris Young's 3-run homer in the second inning stakes Arizona to a 4-2 lead. Doug Davis and four relievers preserve the victory.

October 6: Arizona scores its first postseason series win since the 2001 World Series by completing a sweep of the NL Division Series. The D-backs beat the Cubs at Wrigley Field, 5-1. Livan Hernandez allows 1 run on 5 hits over 6.0 innings, while Chris Young's leadoff homer stakes Arizona to a lead it would relinquish. The Cubs hit into 4 double plays in the game.

October 15: The D-backs' season ends where it began, as the Colorado Rockies complete a sweep of the National League Championship Series, winning in Denver, 6-4. Arizona rallies from a 6-1 deficit with a Chris Snyder 3-run homer in the eighth, and had the tying run at the plate at game's end.

November 6: Despite missing the final three weeks of the regular season, D-backs' infielder Orlando Hudson earns his third consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

November 14: The Baseball Writers' Association of America names Arizona's Bob Melvin as National League Manager of the Year. Melvin earns similar honors from The Sporting News and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum.

December 3: Arizona trades outfielder Carlos Quentin to the Chicago White Sox in exchange for infielder Chris Carter.

December 14: Arizona makes three trades, the most significant of which resulting in the D-backs acquiring right-handed pitchers Dan Haren and Connor Robertson from Oakland for six minor league players. In addition, the D-backs send right-handed relief pitcher Jose Valverde to Houston for right-handed pitchers Chad Qualls and Juan Guiterrez and outfielder Chris Burke, and they acquire right-handed pitcher Billy Buckner from Kansas City for infielder Alberto Callaspo.

April 8: Outfielder Chris Young agrees to a contract extension that will run through the 2013 season, with a club option for 2014.

April 9: Left-hander Doug Davis wins his final start against the Dodgers before being placed on the disabled list for surgery to remove thyroid cancer. Davis (6.0 IP, 6 hits, 2 runs, 2 walks, 7 strikeouts) goes 2-for-2 with a RBI at the plate as well before missing the D-backs' next 38 games.

April 29: Right-handed pitcher Max Scherzer, Arizona's first-round pick in 2006, makes his big league debut against Houston, retiring all 13 batters he faces in 4.1 innings of relief, including 7 strikeouts, the longest debut in modern Major League history (since 1900) by a pitcher who retired every batter he faced.

April 30: Pitcher Micah Owings becomes the first pitcher in the Majors since Milwaukee's Brooks Kieschnick on April 22, 2004 vs. Arizona to hit a pinch-hit home run as his 2-run shot ties the game against the Astros. The D-backs go on to an 8-7 win.

May 3: Brandon Webb wins the National League Pitcher of the Month award for April, going 6-0 with a 1.98 ERA, leading the league in wins, fourth in ERA and third in opponent batting average (.192). The last pitcher in the Majors to end April with 6 wins was Randy Johnson in 2002.

May 15: Webb becomes the first pitcher since 1985 to win his first 9 starts of the season after striking out 8 Rockies in 7.1 innings of work in an 8-5 win over Colorado. Webb's streak would end there as he loses on May 21 at Florida.

May 31: Webb tosses his eighth career complete game shutout against Washington, allowing 6 hits with 8 strikeouts in a 4-0 win over the Nationals.

June 3: Randy Johnson's first-inning strikeout of Milwaukee's Mike Cameron is his 4,673rd, moving him past Roger Clemens into second place on the all-time strikeout list.

June 5: Left-handed pitcher Daniel Schlereth of the University of Arizona is the D-backs' first-round selection (26th overall) in the 2008 June Amateur Draft.

June 13: Chad Tracy's walk-off solo home run in the bottom of the 10th inning broke a scoreless tie for the win at home over Kansas City.

July 2: Dan Haren wins the National League Pitcher of the Month award for May, going 3-0 with a league-best 1.32 ERA.

July 15: Dan Haren (2.0 IP) and Brandon Webb (1.0 IP) each make scoreless appearances for the National League in the All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium in New York. Both pitchers end their appearances with 2 strikeouts in the 15-inning NL loss.

July 17: Fan favorite Tony Clark is re-acquired in a trade with the San Diego Padres in exchange for minor league pitcher Evan Scribner.

July 21: Randy Johnson improves to 13-0 in his career against the Cubs, tossing 7.0 scoreless innings. Alex Romero hit his first big league home run.

July 22: Right-handed reliever Jon Rauch is acquired in a trade with the Washington Nationals in exchange for infielder Emilio Bonifacio.

July 23: Conor Jackson goes 3-for-3 with a triple, run scored and RBI a day after going 3-for-5 with a home run, double, 2 runs scored and 3 RBI against the Cubs. Jackson would win NL Player of the Week honors for July 21-27 with a .542 average in that span.

July 26: Brandon Webb strikes out San Francisco's Dave Roberts in third inning at San Francisco for his 1,000th career strikeout joining Randy Johnson as the only other D-back to reach that mark.

August 5: Dan Haren agrees to a contract extension that will run through the 2012 season, with a club option for 2013.

August 11: The D-backs trade for Cincinnati Reds' slugger Adam Dunn in exchange for minor league pitcher Dallas Buck and two players-to-be-named (Wilkin Castillo and Micah Owings).

August 12: The D-backs' 4-2 win over the Rockies in Denver gives Bob Melvin his 304th regular season win as Arizona's manager, moving him past Bob Brenly for the franchise lead.

August 16: Miguel Montero and Chris Young both hit grand slams in an 11-5 win in Houston, the first of both of their careers and the first time in franchise history that two D-backs have hit grand slams in the same game.

August 21: Infielder David Eckstein is acquired in a trade with the Toronto Blue Jays in exchange for minor league pitcher Chad Beck.

September 1: Stephen Drew becomes the third player in D-backs history to hit for the cycle against the Cardinals. The cycle was the first ever at Chase Field as Drew also tied the franchise-record with 5 hits.

September 22: Brandon Webb wins his 22nd game of the season in St. Louis, 4-2 over the Cardinals, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings with 2 walks and 6 strikeouts. The 22 wins tied for the Major League-lead and were tied for the third-most in franchise history with Curt Schilling in 2001.

September 23: The D-backs announce that their AAA affiliate, Tucson Sidewinders, will relocate for the 2009 season and be renamed the Reno Aces.

September 24: After spending most of the season in first place, the D-backs are eliminated from the postseason with a 4-2 loss in St. Louis, giving the Dodgers the NL West title.

September 28: Randy Johnson tosses his 100th career complete game in the season finale, a 2-1 win over Colorado, allowing 1 unearned run with 9 strikeouts.

December 12: The D-backs sign free agent infielder Felipe Lopez to take over at second base on a one-year contract.

December 30: Chris Snyder agrees to a contract extension that will run through the 2011 season, with a club option for 2012.

2009

January 2: General Partner and Chief Executive Officer Jeff Moorad resigns and Derrick Hall is promoted to President and Chief Executive Officer.

January 29: Arizona signs free agent right-handed pitcher Jon Garland to bolster their rotation on a one-year contract.

NOTEBOOK

- ♦ The D-backs entered the World Series with Craig Counsell as the only active player in possession of a World Championship ring while the Yankees were 3-time defending champs.
- ♦ Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling were the second co-MVP's in World Series history joining the Los Angeles Dodger trio of Ron Cey, Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager...it marked the 20th and 21st time a starting pitcher won the award, first since Florida's Livan Hernandez in 1997.
- ♦ It was the third time in World Series history that the home team won every game, joining the Twins against St. Louis in 1987, and Twins against Atlanta in 1991.
- ♦ The D-backs outscored New York 31-5 in the 4 wins, and were outscored 9-6 in the trio of 1-run losses in Bronx.
- ♦ The D-backs were the fastest expansion team to get to the Fall Classic a year quicker than Florida in 1997... other expansion clubs to make the World Series and the year they qualified - Mets (eighth year), Royals (12th year), Seattle Pilots/Milwaukee Brewers (14th year), San Diego (16th year), Toronto (16th year)...remaining expansion clubs that have not appeared in the Series include the Angels, Senators/Rangers, Colt 45's/Astros, Expos, Mariners, Rockies and Devil Rays.
- ♦ Arizona pitching held the Yankees to .183 team average (42-for-229), the lowest average ever in a 7 or 8 game World Series...previous low was .185 by St. Louis vs. Kansas City in 1985.
- ♦ Arizona's overall staff ERA of 1.94 was lowest in World Series play since Cincinnati's 1.70 mark in a 4-game sweep of Oakland in 1990 and lowest in a 7-game set since Kansas City had a 1.89 mark in '85 vs. the Cardinals.
- ♦ The D-backs were the first team in 80 years to win the first 2 games they ever played in the World Series, the fourth team overall joining the 1914 Boston Braves, 1919 Cincinnati Reds and 1921 New York Yankees.
- ♦ The walk-off finish to Game 7 was the 11th overall "sudden death" ending to a World Series, the third in a row that involved a 7-game series...the last was the 1997 finish when Craig Counsell scored the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as Florida defeated Cleveland...the other was Minnesota's 10th inning win over the Braves in the Metrodome in 1991.
- ♦ The D-backs are the 19th team to win the series after trailing 3 games to 2...it was also the 11th time a team won Games 6 & 7 at home.
- ♦ It was the first time the Yankees were involved in a Game 7 of any postseason series since the 1964 World Series went to the limit against St. Louis.
- ♦ The D-backs snapped New York's postseason series streak at 11, handing the Bronx Bombers their first series loss since the 5-game Division Series with Cleveland in 1997.
- ♦ When Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens hooked up in the final game, it marked the sixth time 20-game winners squared off in the seventh game, first since John Tudor (St. Louis) and Bret Saberhagen (Kansas City) in 1985.
- ♦ The 15-2 win in Game 6 alone was worth the following tidbits:
 - ...The D-backs recorded a World Series-record 22 hits.
 - ...The 15 runs tied with Toronto for third highest in a World Series game.
 - ...The 13-run margin of victory tied for second best ever matching the Yankees' 16-3 win over Pittsburgh in Game 2 of 1960 World Series, and was the second-highest ever, just behind an 18-4 Yankee win in Game 2 of the 1936 win over the Giants.
 - ...The 15-0 lead after 5 innings tied the biggest lead by any team at any time in World Series game...the Yankees had a 16-1 lead in Game 2 of the '60 series against Pittsburgh.
 - ...Arizona's 8-run third inning marked the best inning since Game 6 of 1968 series when Detroit scored 10 times in third inning of 13-1 win over St. Louis.

SCOUTING & PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

SCOUTING

Northeastern Regional Supervisor

Greg Lonigro enters his first season as Arizona's Northeastern Regional Supervisor after two years as its Eastern Supervisor and nine seasons as an area scout. He joined the D-backs in 1998, covering New York, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. This is his 22nd year in professional baseball.

In 1986, Lonigro was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds in the first round (seventh overall) out of Florida Junior College. He played parts of six seasons in the Reds' organization before being traded to the Chicago White Sox in 1992, also seeing time with the Chicago Cubs and Florida Marlins before ending his playing career in 1995. He makes his home in Connellsville, Pa.

STEVE McALLISTER
Midwestern Regional Supervisor

Steve McAllister enters his first season as the D-backs' Midwestern Regional Supervisor after four years as Central Supervisor. He worked as a full-time scout in the Midwest region from 2002-2004.

McAllister has been involved in professional baseball for the past 28 years, first as a player and then as a scout. In 1981, he was drafted out of Bradley University as the Houston Astros' fifth-round selection. He played six seasons in the minor leagues before starting his scouting career. He has previously scouted the Midwest for the Milwaukee Brewers, California Angels and the Boston Red Sox.

McAllister is an inductee in both the Chillicothe (Ill.) High School Athletic Hall of Fame and the Bradley University Athletic Hall of Fame.

HOWARD McCULLOUGH
Southeastern Regional Supervisor

Howard McCullough enters his first season as the D-backs' Southeastern Regional Supervisor after serving as a scout since joining the club in October, 1995. He previously spent 10 years with the Boston Red Sox, serving as a national scout in 1993-94. He was named the D-backs Scout of the Year in 2005, was inducted into the Mid-Atlantic Association Scouts Hall of Fame in 2007 and will be inducted into the Topps Baseball Company Professional Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame in 2009, with his plaque to be displayed at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park in Charleston, S.C.

McCullough was the pitching coach for the University of North Carolina from 1982-85 after serving as the head coach for Webb High School in Oxford, N.C., from 1978-81. He played two years at Louisburg (N.C.) Junior College and two years and East Carolina University, earning his Master's degree in education from ECU in 1977.

McCullough makes his home in Greenville, N.C., with his wife, Eva. The couple has a son, Clayton, who manages the Lansing Lugnuts (A) in the Toronto Blue Jays' organization.

BOB MINOR
Western Regional Supervisor

Bob Minor enters his third season as Arizona's Western Supervisor after spending 25 years with the New York Mets. He started there in November 1981, spending 13 years as an area scout and 12 years as a crosschecker. Minor resides in Garden Grove, Calif., with his wife, Patty, and two sons, Jimmy and Billy.

ORGANIZATIONAL SCOUTS

INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

JUNIOR NOBOA

Special Assistant to the General Manager/Director of Latin Operations

Junior Noboa was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager, Latin American Operations on Feb. 20, 2007, after serving as the Director, Latin America Operations since October 2003. He also works as the Director of the D-backs' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

He was the organization's first international hire in August 1995 and a month later signed the organization's first two players. In 1997, he was the first recipient of the Roland Hemond Award, bestowed upon a member of the baseball department who best exemplifies the "Diamondback" approach to their work. In 1999, Noboa signed Geraldo Guzman, a carpenter who had not played professionally since 1992 but went on to pitch in 17 games for the Diamondbacks from 2000-01.

JIM MARSHALL

Senior Advisor, Pacific Rim Operations

Jim Marshall continues to serve as the club's Senior Advisor, Pacific Rim Operations, a role he has filled since coming on-board in 1996. His main duty is to maintain relations with baseball organizations in Australia, Japan, Korea and Taiwan. He also works as a major league and advance scout for the D-backs.

Marshall played in the big leagues from 1958-62, logging time with the Baltimore Orioles, Chicago Cubs, San Francisco Giants, the original 1962 New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. He managed the Chicago Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland Athletics in 1979.

His first visit to Japan was in 1960 as part of a goodwill tour with the Giants. Three years later, he signed with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese Central League and hit .268 with 78 home runs and 252 RBI over three campaigns.

MACK HAYASHI

Director, Pacific Rim Operations

Makoto (Mack) Hayashi enters his second season with the Arizona Diamondbacks as Director, Pacific Rim Operations. Hayashi scouts players in Australia, Japan, Korea and Taiwan while also maintaining relationships with teams in professional baseball leagues in those countries.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Hayashi spent eight years working for agent Alan Nero, who had an inroad among agents for advising players from Japan. Hayashi was credited with maintaining Nero's strong client base in Japan with players such as Seattle Mariners' catcher Kenji Johjima and Tampa Bay Rays' infielder Akinori Iwamura and American and Latin players that played in Japan.

The Japanese-born Hayashi attended the prestigious Keio University in Tokyo. He and his wife, Eriko, reside in Aliso Viejo, Calif., with their daughters Lily and Sakura.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

JACK HOWELL
Field Coordinator

Jack Howell begins his eighth season in the D-backs organization and fifth as the minor league field coordinator. Howell was also the organizational hitting coordinator in 2004 after serving as the hitting coach at Tucson (AAA) in 2003 and manager at rookie-level Missoula in 2002, where he led the Osprey to a 35-41 record.

Howell, 47, batted .239 with 108 homers and 337 RBI in 941 games during his 11-year Major League career (1985-99) with the California/Anaheim Angels, San Diego Padres and Houston Astros. He also hit 100 home runs during four seasons in Japan from 1992-95, including a league-leading 38 homers in 1992 for the Yakult Swallows. He played at the University of Arizona in 1983 after two seasons at Pima Community College in Tucson.

MEL STOTTELMIRE, JR.
Pitching Coordinator

Mel Stottlemire Jr. begins his eighth season in the D-backs organization and third as the minor league pitching coordinator. Stottlemire, 45, was also the pitching coach at rookie-level Missoula from 2005-06, El Paso (AA) in 2004, Lancaster (A) in 2003 and short-season Yakima (A) in 2002. Prior to joining the D-backs, he was the pitching coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, where he played collegiately from 1983-84.

Stottlemire's lone stint in the big leagues was with the Kansas City Royals in 1990, when he went 0-1 with a 4.88 ERA in 13 games (two starts). He played in the Houston Astros, Royals and New York Mets organizations during eight minor league seasons. His brother, Todd, pitched in the Major Leagues for 15 seasons, including four with the D-backs (1999-2002). His father, Mel Sr., was an All-Star pitcher and three-time 20-game winner with the New York Yankees from 1964-74 and later served as the Yankees' pitching coach from 1996-2005 and was last with the Seattle Mariners in 2008 in that role.

DAVE HANSEN
Hitting Coordinator

Dave Hansen enters his third season in the D-backs organization and second as minor league hitting coordinator. Hansen was the hitting coach in 2007 at Mobile (AA), where his hitters lead the Southern League with a .271 team average. He tutored Mark Reynolds and Justin Upton for most of the season before they were promoted to the Major League club.

Hansen, 40, excelled as a pinch-hitter during his 15-year Major League career (1990-2005) with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Chicago Cubs, San Diego Padres and Seattle Mariners. He ranks sixth in Major League history with 138 career pinch hits and set Dodger team records for most pinch hits in a season (18 in 1993), pinch hits in a career (110) and pinch-hit homers in a season (seven in 2000). He also played for the Hanshin Tigers in Japan in 1998.

TONY PEREZCHICA

Infield Coordinator

Tony Perezchica enters his seventh season in the D-backs organization and fourth as minor league infield coordinator. Perezchica served as a manager in the D-backs' minor league system at Tennessee (AA) in 2005, South Bend (A) in 2004 and rookie-level Missoula in 2003, compiling a 173-179 overall record (.491). He also was a hitting coach in the New York Yankees minor league system at Norwich (AA) in 1997 and 2002, Columbus (AAA) in 1998 and Greensboro (A) from 1999-2001.

Perezchica, 42, was drafted in the third-round of the 1984 amateur draft by the San Francisco Giants. He played professionally as an infielder in the Giants, Cleveland Indians, New York Yankees and Atlanta Braves organizations and in Mexico from 1984-96. Perezchica logged a .228 career average in 68 big league games with the Giants (1988, 1990-91) and Indians (1991-92).

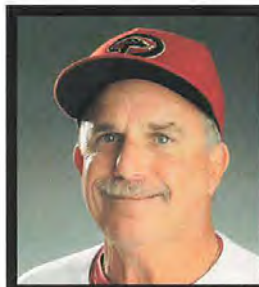

JOEL YOUNGBLOOD

Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator

Joel Youngblood enters his third season in the D-backs organization and first season as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator in 2009. He served as the hitting coach for the D-backs' AAA affiliate, Tucson, for the past two seasons, leading the club to a second-place finish with a .298 average in the Pacific Coast League and leading the league with a .297 average in 2007. Youngblood joined the D-backs organization after serving as the Milwaukee Brewers' bench coach and third base coach in 1998 and later as the Brewers' hitting coach for their rookie-level Arizona summer league team from 2004-06. Prior to his position with the Brewers, he was the first and third base coach while also serving as the outfield and base running instructor on manager Jack McKeon's Cincinnati Reds staff from 1994-97. Youngblood's coaching career began in 1991 as the Baltimore Orioles minor league hitting coordinator. He managed the Kane County (A) club in the Orioles organization in 1992 before going back to the hitting coordinator position in 1993.

A second-round selection by the Reds in 1970, Youngblood batted .265 with 80 home runs, 422 RBI in 1,408 games with the Reds (1976, 1979), St. Louis Cardinals (1977), New York Mets (1977-82), Montreal Expos (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-88) during his 14-year big league career. He was selected to the 1981 National League All-Star team with the Mets. On Aug. 4, 1982, Youngblood made Major League history by being the first player to play for two teams in two cities on the same day and collect hits in each game. He went 1-for-2 off Hall of Famer Fergie Jenkins at Wrigley Field and then was traded from the Mets to the Expos, where he flew to Philadelphia and singled off Hall of Famer Steve Carlton.

BILL PLUMMER

Catching Coordinator

Bill Plummer returns to the D-backs organization for his third season as the minor league catching coordinator as he also served as the manager for the Arizona's AAA affiliate, Tucson, from 2007-08. His 2007 club posted a 75-67 record in 2007 and finished third in the Southern division of the Pacific Coast League despite the team leading the league with a .297 batting average. Plummer also served as a minor league manager in the D-backs organization with Lancaster (A) (2002, 2005), Yakima (A) (2003-04) and Tennessee (AA) (2006). Overall, he has compiled a 1,261-1,146 record (.524 winning percentage) in 21 seasons as a minor league manager, including a 412-403 mark in seven seasons leading D-backs farm clubs (.506 winning percentage).

Plummer, 62, began his coaching career as a player/coach at Spokane in 1979. He later served two tours of duty on the Seattle Mariners' coaching staff from 1982-83 and 1988-91, including managing the M's during the 1992 season. Plummer also served as a minor league instructor in the Colorado Rockies' organization in 1993 before being elevated to the Rockies' Major League coaching staff from 1993-94.

Originally signed as an amateur free agent by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1965, Plummer batted .188 with 14 home runs and 82 RBI in 367 games primarily as a catcher with the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds and Mariners during his 10-year Major League career. He won back-to-back World Championships in 1975 and 1976 when he backed up Hall of Fame catcher Johnny Bench during his six seasons with the Reds (1972-77).

HATUEY MENDOZA
Latin Liaison

Hatuey Mendoza enters his second season as the D-backs minor league Latin Liaison after a 10-year playing career. In his current role, Mendoza helps D-backs minor leaguers acclimate to American culture both on and off the field.

After signing with Arizona as an undrafted free agent in 1996, Mendoza played seven affiliated minor league seasons, going 36-69 with a 5.61 ERA.

A native of the Dominican Republic, Mendoza lives in Tucson, Ariz., with his wife, Cristella Lopez, daughter, Kayla, and stepson, Geovanne.

JIMMY SOUTHARD
Assistant Medical Coordinator

Jimmy Southard enters his first season in the D-backs' organization after six years as a trainer in the Tampa Bay Rays' organization. He was the trainer for Durham (AAA) in 2008, Montgomery (AA) in 2007, Visalia (A) from 2004-06, Princeton (R) in 2003 and Charleston (A) in 2002. Southard was named the Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year as well as the California League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society in 2006.

Southard previously worked as a trainer with New Mexico State University's baseball and football programs in 2001-02 as well as serving as the head athletic trainer, teaching athletic training, at Nogales (Ariz.) High School in the fall of 2003. He holds a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Ariz., in 2000.

BRETT McCABE
Strength Coordinator

Brett McCabe enters his fourth season with the organization, his seventh year in professional ball and is responsible for overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for the D-backs' six minor-league affiliates.

McCabe served three seasons as a strength and conditioning coach in the Toronto Blue Jays system after first arriving in professional baseball with New Haven (AA) in 2003 before taking over at Syracuse (AAA) from 2004-2005.

He completed his undergrad work at Grand Valley State University in 2002, earning a degree in movement science. He is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

BRETT BUTLER

Manager

Brett Butler enters his fifth season in the D-backs organization and first season as manager for Reno after one season as minor league outfield and baserunning coordinator. Butler was the manager in 2007 at Mobile (AA), where he guided D-backs' prospects Mark Reynolds, Justin Upton, Max Scherzer and Esmerling Vasquez, until leaving the team when he suffered a mild stroke on July 29. He also was a manager at Lancaster (A) in 2006 and the first base coach on Bob Melvin's coaching staff in 2005. Prior to joining the D-backs, Butler managed the New York Mets' Gulf Coast League affiliate to a 36-24 record and first-place finish in 2004 and was the Mets' minor league outfield and baserunning coordinator in 2003 as well as a spring training instructor for the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2002.

Butler, 51, owns a lifetime .290 batting average over 2,213 career games totaling 1,359 runs, 2,375 hits, 277 doubles, 131 triples, 54 home runs, 578 RBI and 558 stolen bases with the Atlanta Braves, Cleveland Indians, San Francisco Giants, Dodgers and Mets from 1981-97. He is one of only 26 players in Major League history to compile at least 500 stolen bases and 2,000 hits.

MIKE PARROTT

Pitching Coach

Mike Parrott returns for his eighth season as the pitching coach for the D-backs' AAA affiliate, first season with Reno after seven with Tucson, and 13th season overall in the D-backs organization. He originally joined the D-backs in 1997 as the pitching coach for rookie-level Lethbridge before moving up to South Bend (A) in 1998 and then Lancaster (A) from 1999-2001. Parrott began his coaching career in the Montreal Expos organization in 1988.

Parrott, 54, was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the first round (15th overall selection) of the 1973 amateur draft. He compiled a 19-39 record with a 4.87 ERA in 119 games (68 starts) during his five-year Major League career with the Orioles and Seattle Mariners from 1977-81. His top single-season performance was in 1979 when he set then-Mariners records in wins (14), innings (229) and ERA (3.77) while also winning team Pitcher of the Year honors.

RICK BURLESON

Hitting Coach

Rick Burleson enters his second season in the D-backs organization after spending last year with Yakima (A). Burleson spent the previous seven seasons (2001-07) in the Cincinnati Reds organization, including the 2007 season as the Reds' extended spring training coordinator and roving instructor. He spent five seasons (2001-03, 2005-06) as the manager at rookie-level Billings, where he helped guide the club to the Pioneer League playoffs five times, including championships in 2001 and 2003. Burleson's 202 wins at Billings place him among the all-time short-season managerial leaders since the format began in 1969. He also managed at Louisville (AAA), replacing Dave Miley in 2003 and remaining for the 2004 season.

Burleson, 57, managed in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization, where he led San Bernardino (A) to the California League title in 1999 before managing San Antonio in 2000. He also managed in the Seattle Mariners organization from 1997-98 at Lancaster (A), as a Major League hitting coach (1992) and third base coach (1993) for the Boston Red Sox, as a roving minor league base running instructor (1994) and third base coach for the California Angels and a roving minor league infield instructor (1989), scout (1990) and Major League batting coach (1991) with the Oakland Athletics.

Originally drafted in the first round (fifth overall) in the 1970 amateur draft by the Red Sox, Burleson was a four-time All-Star while putting together a .273 average with 50 homers, 449 RBI and 256 doubles in 1,346 games during a 13-year Major League career (1974-87) with Red Sox, Angels and Baltimore Orioles.

HECTOR DE LA CRUZ

Manager

Hector De La Cruz returns to lead the Mobile BayBears for a second season after leading them to a 58-79 record in his first season. He moved up to Mobile (AA) from Visalia (A) after a 2007 season that saw him lead the Oaks to the California League North Division Championship with a 77-63 record in 2007, finishing the season with a 35-19 mark to win the division by one game over Modesto. The Oaks then swept Modesto, 2-0, in the first round of the playoffs before losing to San Jose, 3-1, in the California League Championship Series.

Overall, DeLaCruz, 43, has compiled a 211-218 record (.492) in four seasons as a minor league manager in the D-backs organization. He also managed rookie-level Missoula for two seasons from 2005-06 and won the Pioneer League Championship in 2006 with a 42-34 record. DeLaCruz began his coaching career in 2001, when he served as a hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League Boca Chica club and South Bend (A) and Missoula clubs all in the same year. He spent 2002 with Missoula and then returned as South Bend's hitting coach from 2003-04.

DeLaCruz played third base and in the outfield in the Toronto Blue Jays organization during seven minor league seasons. He also played professionally in Korea, Taiwan and Japan.

JEFF PICO

Pitching Coach

Jeff Pico returns for a second season as pitching coach for Mobile (AA) after holding the same position for the D-backs' California League (A) affiliate for the previous three seasons. Under Pico's guidance, Visalia's pitchers ranked third in the California League in 2007 with a 4.29 ERA while also leading the league with 45 saves and tying for fourth with 1,047 strikeouts. From 2005-06, he was the pitching coach at Lancaster, the D-backs' California League affiliate prior to moving to Visalia.

Pico, 43, joined the D-backs organization in 2003 as the pitching coach for Yakima (A) and then South Bend (A) in 2004, where his pitching staff led all affiliates in the organization with a 3.81 ERA. Prior to joining the D-backs, Pico worked for six seasons (1997-2002) as the pitching coach for the independent Western League's Chico Heat and his pitching staff led the league in ERA for five straight seasons (1998-2002). He also was a player/coach for two seasons (1995-96) for the Bend Bandits in the Western League.

Pico was a 13th-round selection by the Chicago Cubs in the 1984 amateur draft and went on to put together a 13-12 record and 4.24 ERA in 113 games (26 starts) during a three-year Major League career with the Cubs from 1988-90. He became the first Cubs' pitcher in 79 years to toss a complete-game shutout in his big league debut after blanking the Reds on four hits in a 4-0 win on May 31, 1988.

TURNER WARD

Hitting Coach

Turner Ward enters his second season in the D-backs organization as the hitting coach at Mobile (AA) after spending the previous two seasons (2006-07) as a manager in the Pittsburgh Pirates player development system. Ward led the State College Spikes to a 36-39 record in the New York-Penn League (A) in 2007 after managing rookie-level Bradenton to a 27-26 mark and second place finish in 2006.

Ward, who was originally drafted in 18th-round by the New York Yankees in the 1986 draft, hit .251 with 39 home runs and 219 RBI in 626 games mostly as an outfielder during 12 Major League seasons (1990-2001) with the Cleveland Indians, Toronto Blue Jays, Milwaukee Brewers, Pittsburgh Pirates, D-backs and Philadelphia Phillies. With the D-backs from 1999-2000, he hit .227 with two home runs and 11 RBI in 25 games.

Ward, 44, was a teammate of Deion Sanders while playing with the Yankees' Columbus (AAA) affiliate in 1988. He attended the University of South Alabama and Faulkner State Junior College.

MIKE BELL

Manager

Mike Bell returns to Visalia for his second season after leading the club to a 67-72 record in his first season after jumping from Yakima (A) last year. His managerial debut for the Bears in 2007 saw a 33-43 record, only four games out of first place after posting an 18-16 to close the season.

Bell, 34, was a first-round selection (30th overall) of the Texas Rangers in the 1993 First-Year Player Draft. His only time in the big leagues came in 2000 when he batted .222 (6-for-27) with two home runs and four RBI in 19 games with the Cincinnati Reds. Overall, he compiled a .265 batting average with 135 homers, 684 RBI, 262 doubles and 32 triples in 1,231 games in 13 minor league seasons (1993-2005) with the Rangers, New York Mets, Reds, Colorado Rockies, D-backs, Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Cardinals organizations.

Bell comes from a rich family history in professional baseball which his grandfather Gus started in 1950 as a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates. His father, Buddy, also enjoyed a 19-year Major League career while his brother, David, spent 11 seasons in the big leagues with six different teams. His other brother, Ricky, was a first-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1997.

WELLINGTON CEPEDA

Pitching Coach

Wellington Cepeda returns for his second season with the Rawhide in his sixth season overall in the D-backs' organization. He spent time with South Bend (A) from 2005-07 and short-season Missoula (A) in 2004. Cepeda's pitching staff ranked eighth in the 14-team Midwest League in 2007 despite posting an impressive 3.83 team ERA.

Cepeda, 31, went 16-11 with a 4.63 ERA in 123 games (six starts) while striking out 185 batters in 235 innings in his four-year minor league career in the D-backs organization from 1997-2000 with the club's Arizona summer league team, San Bernardino (A) and High Desert (A). He began his professional career with Boca Chica in the Dominican Summer League in 1996. Cepeda's best single-season performance came in 1997 when he went 4-0 with a 1.64 ERA in 15 games with the D-backs' Arizona summer league club.

ALAN ZINTER

Hitting Coach

Alan Zinter enters his first season with Visalia after making his coaching debut last year for Missoula. He spent the 2007 season as an outfielder for the independent Somerset Patriots of the Atlantic League, batting .261 with 13 homers, 43 RBI and 18 doubles in 91 games for the Patriots.

Despite being the New York Mets' first-round pick (24th overall) in the 1989 draft out of the University of Arizona, it took more than a decade for Zinter to make his big league debut. He hit his first big league home run as a pinch-hitter with the Houston Astros on July 1, 2002, in his sixth at-bat as a Major Leaguer and 4,706th as a professional after spending 14 seasons in the minors. He hit .136 with two homers and three RBI in 39 games with the Astros in 2002 and .206 with a homer and six RBI in 28 games with the D-backs in 2004.

Overall, Zinter, 40, hit .259 with 229 home runs, 772 RBI, 235 doubles and 36 triples as an outfielder in 1,440 games during a 15-year minor league career with seven organizations. He also spent parts of the 2000, 2004 and 2005 seasons in the D-backs organization at Tucson. Zinter also spent time with Seibu of the Japanese Pacific League in 1999.

South Bend, IN 46601

MARK HALEY

Manager

Mark Haley helped lead the Silver Hawks to the playoffs for the fourth straight season in his fourth year at the helm (2005-08), after winning the Eastern Division with a 43-27 second half to finish 76-63. Haley's South Bend club defeated West Michigan and Dayton before falling in the championships. Haley's club won both the first and second-half titles in 2005 and then swept through the first two rounds of the playoffs before defeating Wisconsin, 3-2, for the league crown.

Haley, 49, spent 13 seasons as a coach and manager in the Chicago White Sox organization, including three seasons (1991-92, 1995) as the hitting coach with South Bend, when the Silver Hawks were a White Sox affiliate. He also spent time as a hitting coach with Sarasota (1993), Hickory (1994), Prince William (1996), Winston-Salem (1997, 1999, 2001-02) and Great Falls (2003-04). Haley guided Hickory to a 56-84 record in 1998 during his only season as a minor league manager with the White Sox. He began his coaching career in the college ranks, serving as an assistant at Nebraska and Tennessee. At Tennessee, Haley also served as interim manager in 1987.

Haley was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 1977 amateur draft, but did not sign and stayed at Nebraska, where he was a member of the Cornhuskers' 1980 Big Eight Championship team.

ERIK SABEL

Pitching Coach

Erik Sabel returns to South Bend for a second season after holding the same position for Yakima from 2005-07, including mentoring five of the club's 2006 draft picks. Sabel was originally drafted by the D-backs in the 42nd round of the First-Year Player Draft in 1996 out of Tennessee Technological University. Overall, he put together a 38-40 record with 16 saves and a 4.94 ERA in 254 games (63 starts) during eight minor league seasons predominantly in the D-backs organization.

Sabel, 34, also spent three seasons in the Major Leagues from 1999-2002 with the D-backs and Detroit Tigers and compiled a 3-2 record and 5.02 ERA in 50 relief appearances. He pitched in 42 games with the World Champion D-backs in 2001, posting a 3-2 mark with a 4.38 ERA. Sabel was selected off waivers by the Tigers during the middle of the 2002 season and appeared in only one game for the Tigers.

FRANCISCO MORALES

Hitting Coach

Francisco Morales returns for his second season at South Bend after spending the 2007 season in the same position for Yakima. Morales spent the previous two seasons (2005-06) coaching at the D-backs academy in the Dominican Republic, where he spent considerable time with Gerardo Parra, the D-backs' No. 3 minor league prospect entering the 2008 season according to Baseball America.

Morales, 36, batted .223 with 45 homers, 242 RBI, 77 doubles and eight triples in 555 games as a catcher during an eight-year minor league career (1992-99) with the Chicago Cubs, St. Louis Cardinals and Montreal Expos organizations. He was originally signed as a free agent by the Cubs on May 23, 1991 and reached the AAA level twice with Ottawa in the Expos organization in 1997 and 1999.

BOB DIDIER

Manager

Bob Didier will manage short-season Yakima for the second straight season after spending the 2007-08 seasons as the D-backs' minor league catching coordinator. The D-backs leaned on Didier's multiple talents since he has been a player, coach, manager and scout during his 43 years in professional baseball by also having him serve as an advance and pro scout during the 2006 season.

Didier, 60, began his coaching career in 1976 as a player/coach with Richmond (AAA) and then moved into the manager's seat for the next seven years (1977-83) with affiliates in the Seattle Mariners, Milwaukee Brewers and Oakland A's organizations. He was a member of the A's big-league coaching staff from 1984-86 before joining the Houston Astros organization as manager of Tucson (AAA) from 1987-88. He returned to the Major League level from 1989-90 as the third base coach with the Mariners and then worked in the Toronto Blue Jays' system as a roving minor league catching instructor from 1991-92 and 2000. He returned to managing from 1993-96 at Syracuse (AAA) and worked as an advance scout with the New York Yankees from 1997-99 and 2001. Didier returned again to the dugout in 2002, managing the Montreal Expos' Florida State League affiliate, and then went back to advance scouting with the Chicago Cubs from 2003-05.

After being selected in the fourth-round by the Atlanta Braves in the 1967 amateur draft, Didier batted .229 with 25 doubles and 51 RBI as a catcher in 247 games during a six-year Major League career (1969-74) with the Braves, Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox. His father, Mel, is a longtime scout and was the D-backs' Director, Player Development from 1997-98 and Senior Assistant to the General Manager from 1999-2000.

DAN CARLSON

Pitching Coach

Dan Carlson enters his second season as the pitching coach for short-season Yakima, his eighth season as a pitching coach in the D-backs organization. Carlson has spent time with the D-backs' AA affiliates Tennessee (2005-06) and Mobile (2007). His pitching staff at Mobile in 2007 ranked second in the Southern League with a 3.88 team ERA and posted a 71-68 record. Carlson also spent time at rookie-level Missoula in 2002 before moving up to South Bend (A) in 2003 and Lancaster (A) in 2004.

Carlson, 39, was a 33rd-round draft choice by the San Francisco Giants in 1989 before compiling a 1-0 record with a 6.70 ERA in 23 relief appearances with the Giants, Tampa Bay Devil Rays and D-backs from 1996-99. He appeared in two games for the D-backs in 1999. Carlson posted an 87-56 record with a 4.12 ERA and 999 strikeouts in 1182 innings over 267 games (164 starts) in a 10-year minor league career (1992-2001).

ANDY ABAD

Hitting Coach

Andy Abad enters his first season coaching in 2009 after a 15-year professional career. He played in the organizations of the Boston Red Sox, Oakland Athletics, Florida Marlins, Pittsburgh Pirates, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds and Milwaukee Brewers, seeing action in 15 Major League games with the Athletics, Red Sox and Reds. Abad also played in Japan for the 2000 season. He was a 16th-round draft choice of the Red Sox in 1993 and saw action in 1,480 career minor league contests, batting .290 with 157 home runs and 842 RBI, playing first base, outfield and pitching in seven games.

Abad, 36, is a native of Jupiter, Fla., graduating Jupiter High School before attending Middle Georgia Junior College in Cochran, Ga. He is of Cuban descent, as his father escaped Cuba in the 1950s during the Fidel Castro revolution.

AUDO VICENTE

Manager

Audo Vicente begins his second season as the manager at rookie-level Missoula after his first campaign led to a 21-54 record. He managed Boca Chica, the D-backs' Dominican summer league affiliate, the previous two seasons (2006-07), leading Boca Chica to a 30-40 record in 2007 and also served as the club's infield instructor in 2005.

Vicente, 29, batted .261 with three doubles, one triple and 12 stolen bases for the D-backs' Arizona summer league affiliate and Tucson (AAA) in 1998.

STEVE MERRIMAN

Pitching Coach

Steve Merriman returns for his third season in the D-backs organization as pitching coach at rookie-level Missoula. Prior to joining the D-backs, Merriman was the pitching coach for the New York Mets' affiliate in Brooklyn (A) after serving in a variety of positions in professional and college baseball.

Merriman, 45, served as a scout with the Colorado Rockies in 2003 and was the bullpen catcher on manager Buddy Bell's staff with the Detroit Tigers from 1996-99. He also spent time as a college coach at Central Michigan (1991), Oakland University (1992) and the University of Toledo (1995). Merriman had two separate stints at the University of Michigan, first serving as a coach from 1993-94 and then as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator from 2001-02.

Merriman was a pitcher and catcher at Central Michigan prior to graduating in 1991 with a teaching degree.

JASON HARDTKE

Hitting Coach

Jason Hardtke enters his first season as a coach for an affiliated organization in 2009 after spending the past seven years running a baseball academy in San Jose, Calif. He had a 12-year professional career, seeing Major League action with the New York Mets and Chicago Cubs, batting .231 with two home runs and 16 RBI in 67 games over parts of three seasons. After being drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the third round of the 1990 draft, Hardtke spent time in the Indians, San Diego Padres, Mets, Cubs, Cincinnati Reds, Colorado Rockies and Chicago White Sox organizations, as well as a season with the Japanese League's Hanshin Tigers.

Hardtke, 37, was born in Milwaukee and raised in San Jose, attending Leland High School where he played baseball and football, signing a baseball letter of intent to play baseball at Arizona State University before signing with the Indians out of high school.

D-BACKS ALL-TIME FIRST DRAFT PICKS

The D-backs did not take the field until March 31, 1998, but started stocking their minor league system beginning with the 1996 draft. In the 12 years that the D-backs have drafted, six have been selected from four-year universities, while seven have been selected straight from high school, including 2007's first-round pick, Jarrod Parker. In 1998 and 2000, Arizona did not have a first-round selection and made their first pick in the third and second rounds, respectively, while in 2003 they secured a second first-round pick to go with their own. Below is a list of the D-backs all-time first draft selections:

2005 ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

The Arizona Diamondbacks were named the Topps Organization of the Year for 2005 during the annual Baseball Winter Meetings held in December 2004 in Dallas. It was the first such award for the D-backs, who have had a minor league system in place since 1996, with the big league club beginning play two years later.

The Topps Baseball Organization of the Year Award is presented annually to a Major League organization based on the number of players in their system who have received Topps awards during the season. Points are awarded for four different minor league categories including All-Star players, Players of the Month, the Trautman and Taylor Spink Award recipients, and for Major League rookies who made the Topps Rookie All-Star team.

The D-backs' individual winners were: Phil Avlas (August P.O.M. - California League); Lorenzo Cain (Trautman Award - Arizona League); Matt Elliott and Carlos Gonzalez (Class A All-Star Team - Midwest League); Andy Green (Class AAA All-Star Team/Trautman Award - Pacific Coast League); Conor Jackson (Class AAA All-Star Team - Pacific Coast League); Miguel Montero (May P.O.M. - California League); Dustin Nippert (August P.O.M. - Southern League); and Dan Uggla (Class AA All-Star Team - Southern League).

Topps is an international marketer of entertainment products, principally collectable picture cards, confections and sticker collections.

D-BACKS BROADCASTERS

TOM CANDIOTTI
Radio Analyst

Former knuckleball pitcher Tom Candiotti enters his fourth season as the D-backs radio color analyst, offering tremendous insight on the team's broadcasts on Sports 620 KTAR and on the D-backs radio network throughout Arizona. Candiotti also fills in as a color analyst on the D-backs' television broadcast when Mark Grace is on assignment with the FOX Saturday Baseball broadcasts.

Candiotti was originally drafted by the Kansas City Royals in 1980, but was later claimed in the Rule 5 Draft by the Milwaukee Brewers that year. He went on to compile a 151-164 record, including 10 or more wins in seven different seasons, and 3.73 ERA with 1,735 strikeouts in 451 games during a 16-year Major League career with the Brewers (1983-84), Cleveland Indians (1986-91, 1999), Toronto Blue Jays (1991), Los Angeles Dodgers (1992-97) and Oakland Athletics (1998-99). He posted a 72-65 record with the Indians during the 1980s, including his best season when he was 14-8 with a 3.28 ERA in 1988. Candiotti was traded to the Blue Jays mid-way through the 1991 season and went 6-7 with a 2.98 ERA during the pennant stretch while also making two starts in the American League Championship Series for the team. He signed with the Dodgers as a free agent prior to the 1992 season and compiled a 52-64 mark despite having a 3.57 ERA in six seasons in Los Angeles.

Following his playing career, Candiotti served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager with the Indians (2000-01), and established his broadcasting credentials as an analyst with ESPN, both during MLB game coverage and on the set of "Baseball Tonight," from 2001-05. While with ESPN, Candiotti also served as an analyst for the network's coverage of the Little League World Series and wrote a column for ESPN.com. He also was a color television analyst for the Blue Jays from 2002-05.

An accomplished bowler, Candiotti regularly participates in Professional Bowlers Association Tour events in Arizona. He was named to the Professional Bowling Hall of Fame's celebrity wing in 2007, joining former NFL running back Jerome Bettis as the only two inductees. Candiotti is the father of three boys, Brett, Casey and Clark, and resides in Paradise Valley.

JOE GARAGIOLA
Television Analyst

Any baseball team would love to have a member of the broadcasters' wing of the National Baseball Hall of Fame available to pinch-hit, and the D-backs have got just that as Joe Garagiola returns for his 12th season as a color analyst on select team broadcasts on FOX Sports Arizona.

Garagiola signed with his hometown St. Louis Cardinals at age 16 and made his Major League debut at age 20 in 1946. A left-handed hitting catcher, he was 6-for-19 in five World Series games in 1946 as a rookie, including going 4-for-5 with three RBI in Game 4 against the Red Sox. Garagiola went on to bat .257 with 42 home runs and 255 RBI in 676 games during a nine-year Major League career with the Cardinals, Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and New York Giants.

Garagiola turned to broadcasting following his retirement as a player, calling Cardinals radio broadcasts on KMOX with Harry Caray and Jack Buck from 1955-62. In 1961, he started his nearly 30-year association with NBC and teamed with Bob Wolff, By Saam and George Kell on national baseball broadcast for the network during the 1960s. Garagiola called New York Yankees games with Red Barber from 1965-67 and alternated play-by-play duties with Curt Gowdy on NBC from 1974-76. He teamed with analyst Tony Kubek on NBC from 1976-82 before shifting to color commentary when Vin Scully joined the network in 1983. Garagiola and Scully were NBC's No. 1 baseball broadcast team from 1983-88, calling each Saturday's "Game of the Week," three All-Star Games, three National League Championship Series and three World Series. He later had a brief stint as a color analyst for the California Angels.

Besides calling baseball broadcasts, Garagiola was a panelist on NBC's "Today" from 1967-73 and again from 1990-92. He occasionally guest-hosted the "Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson" and hosted numerous game shows in the late 1960s and 1970s, including "He Said, She Said," "Joe Garagiola's Memory Game," "Sale of the Century," "To Tell the Truth" and "Strike It Rich." Garagiola also hosted the "Baseball World of Joe Garagiola" and the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show.

For his numerous contributions to baseball broadcasting, Garagiola was enshrined in Cooperstown as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient in 1991.

Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. He works tirelessly for the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible at major league spring training camps, educating players on the evils of spit tobacco. Garagiola was honored in 2001 by the Arizona Chamber of Commerce for his work in the community, which includes his efforts on behalf of the St. Peter's Indian Mission in the Gila River Indian Community. Nicknamed "Awesome Fox" by the staff of St. Peter's, the baseball field at St. Peter's School is named "Awesome Fox Field" in his honor.

Garagiola is the author of several baseball books, including "Just Play Ball," with the forward written by his lifelong friend, Yogi Berra.

Garagiola and his wife, Audrey, reside in Scottsdale. His son, Joe Jr., was the D-backs' General Manager from 1995-2005 and is currently a Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations for Major League Baseball, while his other son, Steve, is a reporter and anchor for WDIV-TV in Detroit. His daughter, Gina, has worked as a reporter for KTVK-TV in Phoenix and is currently a freelance writer for numerous publications.

Mark Grace enters his sixth season in the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast booth as a color analyst, working alongside Daron Sutton on the team's telecasts on FOX Sports Arizona. For the third consecutive season, Grace will also serve as a color analyst for select FOX Saturday Baseball broadcasts. He has also has been a studio analyst on FOX's pregame shows at the World Series the past two years.

Grace's previous broadcasting experience was as an analyst for ESPN Radio during the 1999 and 2000 National League Division Series.

Grace made a smooth transition to the broadcast booth after retiring from a distinguished 16-year Major League playing career following the 2003 season with the D-backs. He ended his career with 2,445 hits, a .303 average, .383 on-base percentage, 511 doubles, 173 home runs and 1,146 RBI in 2,245 Major League games and never finished a season with more strikeouts than walks. He was a three-time All-Star and four-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award, anchoring first base for both the D-backs and Chicago Cubs. His 1,754 hits and 364 doubles during the 1990s decade were the most of any Major League player. Grace's 511 doubles and .990 career fielding percentage are better than any other first baseman in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

After 13 seasons with the Cubs from 1988-2000, Grace joined the D-backs in 2001 and was an integral part of the club's World Championship team that year. His single to lead off the ninth inning of Game 7 ignited the rally that led to a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees. He also went 6-for-16 in the 2001 National League Championship Series against Atlanta.

Grace also volunteers his time in the community for noteworthy causes. He held the second annual "Mark Grace Super Bowl Classic" bowling tournament this past offseason to raise funds for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Grace and Sutton also raised funds for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation with their "Redheads" section broadcast at every Wednesday home game during the 2008 season. He also was the grand marshal for the Fort McDowell Fiesta Bowl Parade prior to the 2008 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl between West Virginia and Oklahoma.

Grace is the father of two boys, Jackson and Preston, and resides in Paradise Valley.

JEFF MUNN

Radio Play-By-Play/Pre & Post-Game Radio Host

Jeff Munn enters his ninth season as a member of the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast team, serving as the secondary radio play-by-play announcer and pre- and post-game show host on the team's broadcasts on Sports 620 KTAR and the D-backs radio network throughout Arizona.

In addition to his work with the D-backs, Munn has been the radio play-by-play voice for Arizona State women's basketball since 2004. He has also been heard as a fill-in play-by-play announcer on ASU men's basketball and baseball broadcasts and served as a play-by-play announcer for MLB Radio's coverage of the Arizona Fall League in 2006.

Munn began his broadcasting career as a senior at Carl Hayden High School and later announced games at Phoenix College in the late 1970s. He was the Phoenix Suns in-arena announcer for 12 seasons from 1991-2003 and has been the stadium announcer for the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl since 1991, including four college football national championship games. Munn has announced at several major sporting events, including the 1993 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, 1995 NBA All-Star Game, 2000 WNBA All-Star Game and 2001 World Series. In 1996, he was selected as one of four announcers for the basketball competition at the Summer Olympics in Atlanta and handled the announcing duties for the Men's gold medal game.

Munn majored in history at ASU and resides in Tempe with his wife of 17 years, Laurie, and their two children, Patrick and Hayley.

MIGUEL QUINTANA

Spanish Radio Play-By-Play

Miguel Quintana enters his 11th season in the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast booth as a color analyst, working alongside Oscar Soria on the team's Spanish radio broadcasts on Radio Fiesta 1400 AM KSUN.

Quintana began his career as a 15-year-old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico. In 1981, he joined KIFN Radio (now KVVA) in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to KTVW (Channel 33), eventually becoming sports director. Quintana also worked in Los Angeles for KVEA-TV, before returning to Phoenix in 1995 to serve as play-by-play voice for the Arizona Sandsharks indoor soccer team.

Quintana's work in baseball has earned him notice from baseball officials, as he was selected to be one of the stadium announcers for the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006, announcing games at both Chase Field and Angel Stadium in Anaheim, Calif.

Quintana has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He and his wife, Karoly, have three boys, Miguel Jr., Khalid Omar and Kyle Christopher. Miguel also has three daughters, Lisette, Jasmine and Jennifer.

GREG SCHULTE

Radio Play-By-Play

Name a memorable moment in the history of the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Greg Schulte has described it as it happened.

Schulte, whose voice will forever be linked with one of baseball's greatest moments as he delivered the call of Luis Gonzalez' ninth-inning single to win the Game 7 of the 2001 World Series, has been the link between D-backs fans and their team since the club first took the field in 1998. Like the D-backs themselves, Schulte embarks on his 12th season of calling Major League Baseball in 2009. His passion for the game of baseball comes through in every broadcast, and has earned Schulte praise from fans and fellow broadcasters alike.

A part of the Phoenix radio scene since 1979, Schulte joined the organization after spending 14 years at the D-backs flagship radio station, KTAR. Over that time, Schulte was involved with nearly every major sports entity in the market. He served for 15 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, working with Al McCoy first as producer, and, for the last two seasons, as color commentator. He also served as an analyst for Arizona State football and men's basketball, and shared play-by-play duties for ASU baseball. In addition, Schulte was the original pre- and post-game host for Arizona Cardinals broadcasts from 1988-90. Prior to his arrival in Arizona, Schulte was sports director at WQUA in Moline, Ill., and also handled play-by-play duties for University of Iowa men's basketball.

Schulte is also active in the community, working extensively with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. He and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Scott and Stephanie, and reside in Glendale.

OSCAR SORIA

Spanish Radio Play-By-Play

At the age of 38, Oscar Soria is one of the most respected baseball commentators in the Hispanic community as he enters his 10th full season as the play-by-play voice on Arizona Diamondbacks' Spanish broadcasts. He works alongside Miguel Quintana on the team's Spanish radio broadcasts on Radio Fiesta 1400 AM KSUN.

Soria is a veteran of 20 seasons as a broadcaster with the Mexican Pacific League's Hermosillo Naranjeros and also covers the D-backs by writing a daily column for El Imparcial, Hermosillo's daily newspaper. Since 2006, Soria has called Mexican Pacific League and Caribbean Series games for ESPN Deportes and also provided play-by-play for the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 for the network.

Soria finished second in the general balloting for the Mexican Pacific League's "All Century Team" and was voted as the best television broadcaster. In 2005, he received the Carlos Vazquez Award as the best announcer in Sonora. Soria has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Telemex in Sonora.

Born in Tijuana, Mexico, Soria graduated from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. He and his wife, Benny, have a daughter, Paula, and a son, Oscar Gilberto, and make their home in Phoenix.

DARON SUTTON

Television Play-By-Play

One of baseball's best young broadcasters, Daron Sutton enters his third season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2009 as the club's primary play-by-play announcer on FOX Sports Arizona.

Sutton came to the D-backs in 2007 after five years in a similar capacity with the Milwaukee Brewers. During his tenure in Milwaukee, Sutton won a 2003 Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Achievement for Individual Excellence on Camera from the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. He was also nominated for regional Emmys in 1999 and 2004.

The son of Hall of Fame pitcher and current Washington Nationals broadcaster Don Sutton, Sutton spent two seasons as a radio play by play announcer for the Anaheim Angels, and also hosted the club's pre- and post-game radio shows. He also spent two seasons calling Atlanta Braves games on FSN South. While in Atlanta, Sutton handled Southeastern Conference telecasts of men's and women's basketball, swimming and diving, gymnastics, track and field and volleyball.

Sutton completed his first season as the play-by-play broadcaster for Arizona State's men basketball games on FOX Sports Arizona this past offseason while also broadcasting games for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee men's basketball team, which he has called for the past four years.

Sutton pitched two seasons in the Angels and Braves organizations, and graduated from Auburn University-Montgomery in 1992 with a degree in communications.

Community involvement is a high priority with Sutton. He and his wife, Kristin, host the annual "Sutton Strokes for Little Folks" golf tournament in the Valley to benefit the Southwest Autism Research and Resource Center (SARRC). Sutton and broadcast partner Mark Grace also raised funds for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation with their "Redheads" section broadcast at every Wednesday home game during the 2008 season. He also can be found regularly speaking to local schools to promote reading and education.

Sutton and his wife are the proud parents of two daughters, Abbey and Lilly.

TODD WALSH

Pre-Game Television Host - FS Arizona

Todd Walsh was hired on April 10, 2001, by FOX Sports Arizona to fill the role as its pre-game show host for the Arizona Diamondbacks and Phoenix Coyotes telecasts. He also serves as an in-game and post-game reporter during D-backs and Coyotes telecasts on the network and has also worked as a sideline reporter for the Phoenix Suns and University of Arizona football and basketball telecasts when his busy schedule allows.

Since coming on board with FOX Sports Arizona, his skill and talent have been noticed by many, including the Arizona Republic, which named him the top sports reporter in Phoenix in 2001 and 2002. A three-time Emmy Award winner in 2008, he won statues for work done in conjunction with not only his coverage of the D-backs, but the Coyotes as well.

In what was one of the top highlights of his career, D-backs pitcher Randy Johnson allowed him to become the first reporter to ever be invited inside his home to profile his baseball and rock and roll memorabilia collection. The visit was for the critically acclaimed "In My Own Words – Randy Johnson" episode Walsh hosted. The show was awarded with an Emmy in 2008.

His work on the Diamondbacks Live pre-game show was also honored with an Emmy Award in 2007, as it was the winner in the "News Producer" division. In September 2002, the Phoenix New Times honored him as the city's best sports television interviewer.

A fixture as well in Phoenix and Tucson sports radio, he has been the host for the Coyotes radio pre-game broadcasts since 1996 and has been the television host for Coyotes over-the-air telecasts the past nine seasons. He has also done weekday sports updates for KSLX (100.7 FM) in Phoenix and has been the sports director for KDKB (93.3 FM).

Walsh worked for KTAR radio in Phoenix from 1988-93 as a sports reporter, talk show anchor and co-host of the pre- and post-game radio broadcasts for the Arizona Cardinals and Phoenix Suns. From 1991-93, he was the color commentator for Cardinals games.

From 1988-91, Walsh served as the play-by-play announcer for the Phoenix Firebirds (AAA) of the Pacific Coast League and in 1987, he did the play-by-play duties in Tucson for the Tucson Toros (AAA) and the University of Arizona Ice Cats hockey team.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Walsh graduated from the University of Arizona in 1986 with a degree in radio and television. He got his start in the business while at Arizona, hosting a nightly sports talk show and serving as the pre and post-game host for Wildcats football and basketball games on KNST radio. Also during his time at Arizona, he served as a basketball manager for Lute Olson and had a role as a sports reporter in the 1987 movie "Can't Buy Me Love."

MATT WILLIAMS

Television & Radio Analyst

Matt Williams enters his fifth season as a member of the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast team, serving as a color analyst on select broadcasts on FOX Sports Arizona and Sports 620 KTAR. He is a minority owner of the D-backs and holds the title as Special Assistant to the President and CEO as well. Williams was the interim manager of the Double-A Mobile Bay Bears for the final two months of the 2007 season after manager Brett Butler suffered a stroke.

After the San Francisco Giants made him the third overall selection in the 1986 First-Year Player Draft out of UNLV, Williams became one of baseball's premiere third basemen during a 17-year Major League career with Giants, Cleveland Indians and D-backs from 1987-2003. Overall, he had a .268 batting average with 378 home runs, 1,218 RBI, 997 runs, 1,878 hits, 338 doubles and 35 triples in 1,866 career games. He appeared in five All-Star Games, won four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and four Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Awards as a third baseman. He played in three World Series with three different teams (Giants, 1989; Indians, 1997; D-backs, 2001), becoming the only player to hit at least one World Series home run for three different teams.

Williams was a fixture at third base for the Giants during most of the 1990s and finished in the Top 10 in league MVP voting on three occasions, including finishing second to Houston's Jeff Bagwell in 1994 after slugging 43 homers and 96 RBI during the strike-shortened season. He spent one season with the Indians in 1997 prior to becoming an original D-back after he was acquired in a post-Expansion Draft trade on Dec. 1, 1997.

Williams played an integral leadership role on D-backs teams from 1998-2003, including the 1999 season when he finished third in league MVP voting after batting .303 with 35 home runs and a team-record 142 RBI, which has since been tied by Luis Gonzalez in 2001. He still ranks among D-backs career batting leaders in home runs (99, third), RBI (381, third), hits (629, fourth), doubles (127, fourth), at-bats (2,265, fifth), runs (317, sixth), games (595, seventh) and walks (163, ninth).

Williams and his wife, Erika, reside in Paradise Valley with their four children. He has three daughters, Alysha, Rachael and Madison, as well as a son, Jacob. Williams and his wife, who previously was weekend anchor and reporter for KTVK-TV, were co-hosts of the weekend pre-game shows prior to D-backs telecasts on 3TV in 2007.

REMEMBERING OUR FRIENDS

John Michaelson Radio Booth

The Sports 620 KTAR Radio booth at Chase Field was named after John Michaelson prior to the 2001 season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away in the winter of 2000. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on D-back broadcasts, John was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

Steve Pascente Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the D-backs opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the D-backs' front office. His son, Rich, was an integral player in the D-backs inception serving as team President from 1995 through 2006 and has an executive conference room named in his honor.

MEDIA COVERAGE POLICIES

Director, Player & Media Relations	Mike McNally
Assistant Director, Player & Media Relations	Aaron Staenberg
Coordinator, Player & Media Relations	Lynita Johnson

It is once again a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks. Following are the Player & Media Relations policies for the 2009 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Pursuant to Major League Baseball policy, all season credentials issued by the Arizona Diamondbacks will include a laminated picture identification. Due to security issues, no member of the media will be allowed access to Chase Field without showing a photo ID. Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via email to credentials@dbacks.com from your company email if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the Player & Media Relations office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Chase Field is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. There is also a small space designated for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Chase Field where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close one hour prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Chase Field prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones is prohibited on the field or in either clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the D-backs' Player & Media Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game could be stopped by the umpiring crew and any stoppage in play due to a camera light will result in revocation of the credential. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Chase Field is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. The front row of the Working Press Box is for members of the BBWAA. All electronic media seats are in the second and third rows. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least two hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The D-backs also offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a cost, and will be served two hours prior to game time through the end of the second inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Chase Field, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

Credenciales para juegos individuales deben ser pedidas por el editor, productor o director del afiliado por medio de un membrete de la compañía por lo menos 48 horas antes del partido. Pedidos pueden ser por medio de e-mail a credentials@dbacks.com y es la responsabilidad del afiliado confirmar que el pedido haya sido aceptado o rechazado. Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales para escritores independientes.

CREDENCIALES DE FOTOGRAFIA: Pases de foto serán dadas a fotógrafos que estén reuniendo información para algún noticiero reconocido y representantes de compañías que estén licenciadas por el Béisbol De Grandes Ligas. Pedidos para credenciales de fotografía tendrán que seguir los mismos pasos ya mencionados bajo CREDENCIALES DE TRABAJO: Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales para fotógrafos independientes. Por favor recuerde que noticieros con fecha tope tendrán prioridad en todas las áreas dedicadas a fotógrafos. Aparte de las áreas a nivel de campo, también hay un espacio chico designado para fotógrafos que deseen tomar fotos durante el partido en la primera fila en el cuarto de prensa. Todas las fotografías tomadas deben ser utilizadas para algún noticiero o para productos oficialmente reconocidos por la organización. Cualquier otro uso de estas fotografías serán consideradas como violación de marca registrada. Fotógrafos están prohibidos entrar a los vestidores, excepto cuando se haya hecho otros arreglos con un representante del departamento.

MEDIOS DE INTERNET: Solamente aquellas personas que estén licenciadas por el Béisbol De Grandes Ligas tienen el derecho exclusivo de reportar las descripciones y jugada por jugada del partido por Internet. Ninguna transmisión de parte de cualquier otro medio será permitido que origine dentro del estadio, incluyendo video de alguna cámara que este situada dentro del estadio. Infracciones tendrán como resultado revocación de credencial y puede ser susceptible por medio de la ley. Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales a personas de sitios web, excepto que el sitio sea una organización de noticias nacionalmente reconocida.

POLICE DE AUTOGRAFOS: Esta prohibido que miembros de la prensa con credenciales pidan autógrafos o equipo en el terreno de juego, dugout o vestidores. Cualquier infracción tendrá como resultado revocación inmediata de la credencial e impedirá el uso futuro.

ACCESO AL VESTIDOR: Toda credencial listara localidades específicas dentro del Chase Field en donde acceso sea permitido. Miembros de la prensa tendrán que tener una razón específica para tener acceso al vestidor. El vestidor no es lugar para que la prensa congregate. El vestidor cerrara una hora antes del primer lanzamiento, y habrá ocasiones donde cerrará antes para juntas del equipo. Generalmente, un periodo de no más 10 minutos es permitido después del partido para que los jugadores se relajen. Acceso después del partido al vestidor del equipo contrario será determinado por las reglas individuales del equipo.

ACCESO AL CAMPO: Todos los miembros de prensa con derecho de estar en el campo de juego tendrán la oportunidad de obtener entrevistas en tiempos designados antes del inicio del partido. La prensa debe salir del campo 50 minutos antes del inicio del partido. La prensa en ningún momento es permitida en terreno bueno (dentro las líneas de foul), o detrás de la primera o tercera base. Estas precauciones son por motivos de seguridad.

TRANSMISIONES EN VIVO: Estaciones sin derechos de transmitir el partido en vivo pueden transmitir informes desde el Chase Field antes y después de todos los partidos. Todo el video de televisión que sea transmitido en vivo tiene que ser desde áreas designadas afuera del vestidor o desde la franja de advertencia afuera de cualquier dugout. Transmisiones en vivo durante el partido son prohibidas a las estaciones de televisión que no tengan el derecho de transmitir el juego por medio de contrato directamente con los Arizona Diamondbacks. Estaciones de radio y corresponsales para reportes fuera de la ciudad son permitidas para dar información del partido entre o después de las entradas. En ningún momento pueden dar información durante el partido. Cualquier infracción tendrá como resultado revocación inmediata de la credencial.

TELEFONOS CELULARES: El uso de teléfonos celulares esta prohibido en el campo y en los dos vestidores. Para que un corresponsal de radio pueda hacer una entrevista por teléfono, el corresponsal debe tener autorización del jugador o de un miembro del departamento. Cualquier otra entrevista por teléfono debe de ser coordinada por medio del Departamento de las Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores de los Diamondbacks.

CAMARAS DE TELEVISION: El uso de luces para cámaras de televisión esta prohibido en el área de asientos del estadio. El juego podría ser parado por los umpires y cualquier parada en el juego debido a esta causa tendrá como resultado revocación de la credencial. Fotografías desde el área de los asientos están prohibidas y todas las entrevistas de televisión deben ser conducidas en el área de los restaurantes detrás de los asientos durante el partido.

AREA DE PRENSA: La tribuna de prensa del Chase Field esta localizada directamente detrás de home. El área de escritores está al lado de la primera base, mientras los puestos emisores están detrás de caja de bateo para el lado de tercera base. La primera fila de la tribuna de prensa de trabajo es para miembros del BBWAA. Todos los asientos de medios electrónicos están localizados en la segunda y tercera fila. Notas y estadísticas del juego estarán disponibles por lo menos dos horas antes del inicio del partido en el área inmediatamente detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Los Diamondbacks también ofrecen un área adicional de trabajo, con monitores de televisión, en el área detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Una maquina de fax y una copiadora está disponible en la tribuna de prensa. La tribuna de prensa es un área de trabajo activa y vitoreando y conversaciones fuertes no se permitirán. Personas que no tengan credencial para la tribuna de prensa en ningún momento serán permitidas. Los Arizona Diamondbacks le prohíben a cualquier persona menor de 18 años la entrada a la tribuna de prensa los días de juego.

SALA DE COMEDOR: La sala de comedor esta localizada detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Comida para los miembros de prensa estará disponible por un costo y será servida 2 horas antes del inicio del partido y finalizará después de la segunda entrada. Los miembros de medios deben tener credencial para poder entrar al comedor.

TELEFONOS PARA LOS MEDIOS: Los Arizona Diamondbacks tienen el lujo de tener una abundante cantidad de teléfonos para llamadas de carga en la tribuna de prensa. Si por alguna razón miembros de la prensa sienten que no hay suficientes líneas disponibles, ellos deben investigar instalar su propia línea para el uso durante la temporada. Para tener una extensión de teléfono instalada para la temporada, o para una sola visita al Chase Field, por favor comuníquese con Vicki Berryman al (602) 462-6099.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

DISABLED LISTS:

(1) 15-DAY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be on the list at one time.

(2) EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players on this list at one time, but this list may only be used when the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on the 60-day list do not count against the 40-man roster.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR: 172 days constitutes a full year of Major League service.

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

WAIVER REGULATIONS: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

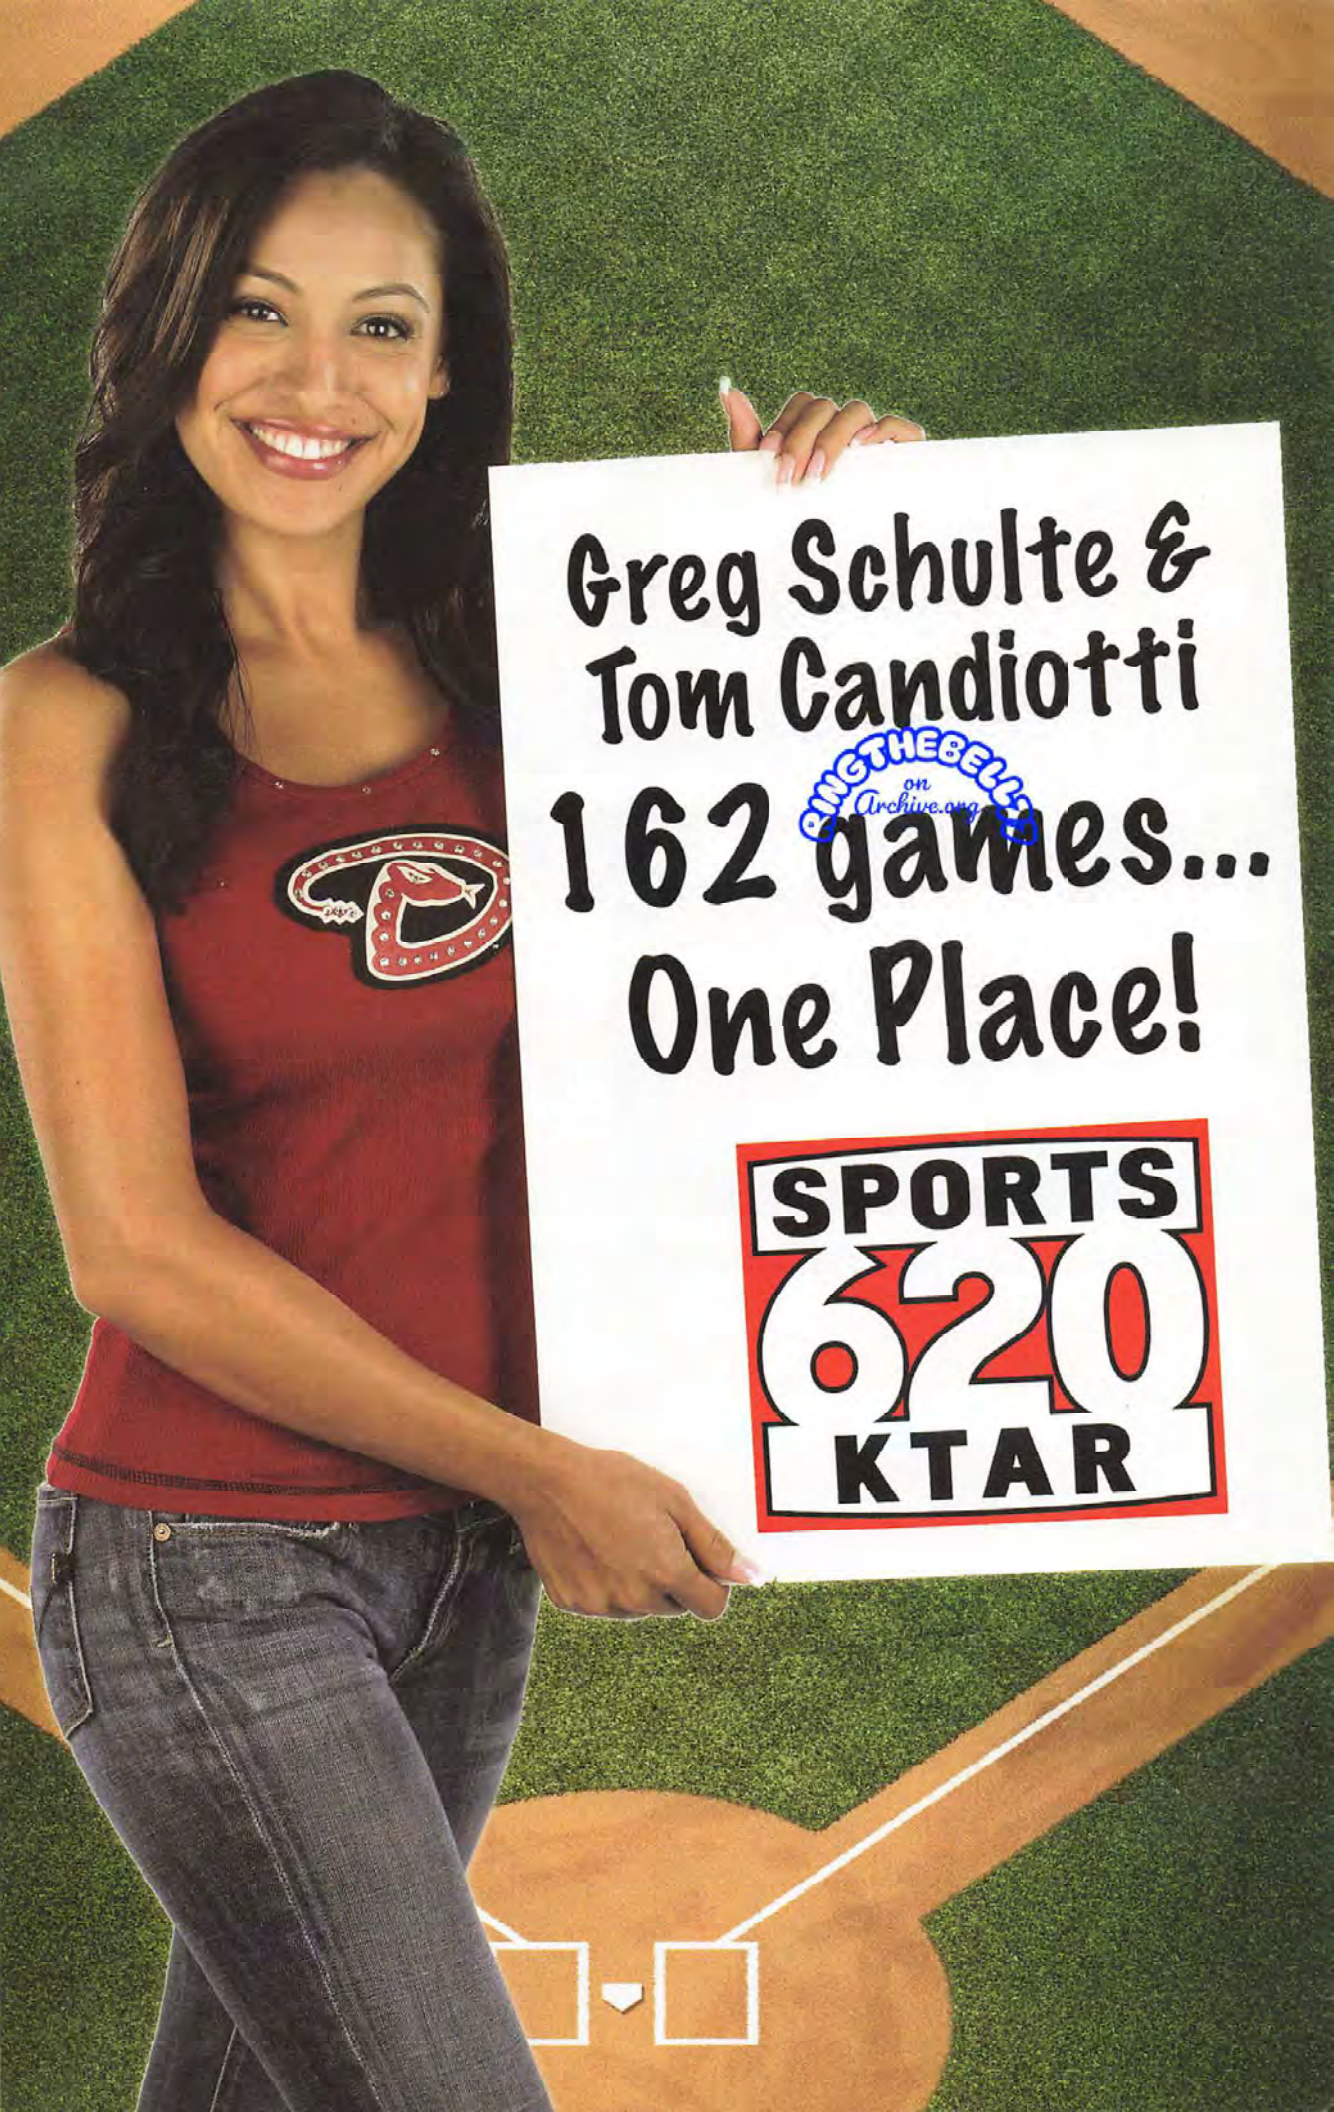

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.
